Inhabiting the World Niels Henrik Gregersen, Derek R. Nelson, Bengt Kristensson Uggla, 2023-11-20 Bodies Inhabiting the World Scandinavian Creation Theology and the Question of Home offers a multidimensional investigation of how houses bodies communities and the whole universe may be conceived and refigured as places where we belong where we are at home in God's creation In this way revisiting the tradition of Scandinavian creation theology provides profound resources to make theological affirmations of God's omnipresence in the human condition we all share The emergence here of an exciting new theological program can be recognized beyond the limitations of other contemporary agendas cul de sacs blind spots and diffidence What it is to have a home is a universal question closely connected to what it means to be human and to live a good flourishing life But the negative experiences of homelessness broken homes statelessness and alienation always lurk in the background of the universal quest to find one's home in the world This book contains fourteen essays exploring the dynamics of the human experience of finding losing and finding again a home Pilgrims and Sacred Sites in China Susan Naquin, Chün-Fang Yü, 2023-11-15 Until now China has been scarcely represented in the burgeoning comparative literature on pilgrimage This volume remedies that omission discussing the interaction between pilgrims and sacred sites from the tenth century to the present From the perspectives of literature art history religion politics and anthropology the essays focus on China's most famous pilgrimage mountains as well as lesser known sites Until now China has been scarcely represented in the burgeoning comparative literature on pilgrimage This volume remedies that omission discussing the interaction between pilgrims and sacred sites from the tenth century to the present From the perspective Sacred Places, Emerging Spaces Tsypylma Darieva, Florian Mühlfried, Kevin Tuite, 2018-02-19 Though long associated with violence the Caucasus is a region rich with religious conviviality Based on fresh ethnographies in Georgia Armenia Azerbaijan and the Russian Federation Sacred Places Emerging Spaces discusses vanishing and emerging sacred places in the multi ethnic and multi religious post Soviet Caucasus In exploring the effects of de secularization growing institutional control over hybrid sacred sites and attempts to review social boundaries between the religious and the secular these essays give way to an emergent Caucasus viewed from the ground up dynamic continually remaking itself within shifting and indefinite frontiers

Encyclopædia of Religion and Ethics: Picts-Sacraments James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, Louis Herbert Gray, 1919 Articles on all the religions of the world and the great systems of ethics on every religious belief or custom and ethical movement on every philosophical idea and moral practice The Encyclopaedia embraces the whole range of theology and philosophy together with aspects of anthropology mythology folklore biology psychology economics and sociology Every article has been prepared by specialists Includes bibliographies and index Sacred Place Jean Holm, John Bowker, 2001-01-01 This book explores the function of buildings for worship shrines and pilgrimage centers and the part they play in the lives of individuals and the community while also recognizing that sacred place is not defined as architectural buildings Sacred Mobilities Avril Maddrell, Alan Terry, 2016-03-03 This collection draws on the Mobilities approach to look afresh at notions of the sacred where they intersect with people objects and other things on the move Consideration of a wide range of spiritual meanings and practices also sheds light on the motivations and experiences associated with particular mobilities Drawing on rich situated case studies this multi disciplinary collection discusses what mobility in the social sciences arts and humanities can tell us about movements and journeys prompted by religious more broadly spiritual and secular sacred practices and priorities Problematising the fixity of sacred places and times as territorially and temporally bounded entities that exist in opposition to profane everyday life this collection looks at the intersection between the embodied emotional spiritual experience of places travel belief practices and communities It is this geographically informed perspective on the interleaving of religious spiritual secular notions of the sacred with the material and more than representational attributes of associated mobilities and related practices which constitutes this volume s original contribution to the field
