Walter Henry Miller and more by the famed monk one of the great American letter writers of the century Kirkus Reviews From 1948 until his death in 1968 Trappist monk and author of The Seven Storey Mountain Thomas Merton corresponded with writers around the world sharing with them his concerns about war violence and repression racism and injustice and all forms of human aggression Addressed to Evelyn Waugh Czeslaw Milosz Boris Pasternak James Baldwin Walker Percy Victoria Ocampo Henry Miller Jacques Maritain Lawrence Ferlinghetti William Carlos Williams and others this collection reveals aspects of the monk that are seldom seen in literature apart from his letters Booklist Witty confessional insightful The Boston Globe Highly articulate and quietly inspirational Publishers Weekly Echoing Silence Thomas Merton, 2007-02-13 When Thomas Merton entered a Trappist monastery in December 1941 he turned his back on secular life including a very promising literary career He sent his journals a novel in progress and copies of all his poems to his mentor Columbia professor Mark Van Doren for safe keeping fully expecting to write little if anything ever again It was a relatively short lived resolution for Merton almost immediately found himself being assigned writing tasks by his Abbot one of which was the autobiographical essay that blossomed into his international best seller The Seven Storey Mountain That book made him famous overnight and for a time he struggled with the notion that the vocation of the monk and the vocation of the writer were incompatible Monasticism called for complete surrender to the absolute whereas writing demanded a tactical withdrawal from experience in order to record it He eventually came to accept his dual vocation as two sides of the same spiritual coin and used it as a source of creative tension the rest of his life Merton's thoughts on writing have never been compiled into a single volume until now Robert Inchausti has mined the vast Merton literature to discover what he had to say on a whole spectrum of literary topics including writing as a spiritual calling the role of the Christian writer in a secular society the joys and mysteries of poetry and evaluations of his own literary work Also included are fascinating glimpses of his take on a range of other writers including Henry David Thoreau Flannery O'Connor Dylan Thomas Albert Camus James Joyce and even Henry Miller along with many others
