Sacred Strands Sermons By Minnesota Women:

Sacred Strands Barbara Mraz,1991 Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J. Lawless,2015-08-10 Do women preach differently than men In Women Preaching Revolution Elaine J Lawless contends that they do Drawing on her study of more than 150 sermons and extensive interviews with the clergywomen who preached them Lawless argues that women have changed traditional preaching in ways that reflect their socialization as women and their experiences of being female in America Many of the women in her study were expected to take courses on the art of preaching as part of their seminary training Most of them rejected the sermon structure and strategies they were taught in seminary viewing them as part of a male homiletic tradition and developed styles that celebrate their commitment to connection relationship and dialogue

Feminine Registers Jennifer Copeland,2014-10-16 Women have been adding their voices to the proclamation of the gospel for as long as there has been a gospel to proclaim but only in the last half century have these voices become part of the official catalogue of Christian preaching Diagnosing the distinctiveness of women s voices and exploring the richness they convey about the presence of God requires a detailed look at the meaning making strategies used by those who preach and those who listen Register provides a tool for analyzing not only the theological and semantic contributions of women but also demonstrates how gender impacts the meaning making possibilities of the sermon Feminine Registers offers a gendered analysis of preaching that does not rely on essentialist claims about gender and moves the analysis of the preaching beyond sermon content to include the relational dynamics operating between the communicating parties and the medium used to communicate A critical examination of this constellation of meanings influenced by gender related issues of authority and self disclosure helps illuminate the production of meaning within the church and expands the homiletical possibilities for the Christian faith Preaching Justice Christine Marie Smith,2008-11-01 Preaching Justice brings together eight very diverse voices from eight distinct cultural ethnic communities challenging them to articulate the specific justice concerns issues and passions that give rise to a preaching ministry within the their own community and beyond Theological analyses are offered by theses persons representing their particular communities Kathy Black persons with disabilities Martin Brokenieg Native Americans Teresa Fry Brown African Americans Eleazar Fernandez Filipino Americans Justo Gonzalez Hispanics Eunjoo Mary Kim Korean Americans Stacy Offner Jews Christine Marie Smith lesbians and gays This volume offers a rare vision of what transforms preaching might sound and look like and urges that all preaching whatever community it comes from whatever community it hopes to reach be grounded in the sacred acts of listening and knowing A Chorus of Witnesses
