

A black and white photograph of a person with long, dark hair lying on their side on a bed or couch. They are wearing a dark, long-sleeved top and dark pants. Their head is resting on their arm, and they appear to be looking away from the camera. In the background, there is a white door with a silver handle and lock. The lighting is soft, creating a somber and reflective mood.

Iris Murdoch Hilda D. Spear,2006-10-23 Iris Murdoch produced

twenty six novels in forty years The last of these Jackson s Dilemma was published in 1995 four years before her death Murdoch s interest in moral problems inclined her towards what could be seen as an unusual view of human character and human life leading her to create bizarre situations and offer unsettling solutions which frequently challenge and intrigue the reader This essential introduction to one of Britain s best known writers guides the reader through the full range of Murdoch s fictional output tracing basic patterns which run throughout Murdoch s work and showing how the novels help to elucidate one another The revised updated and expanded new edition takes into account certain details which have emerged following Murdoch s death in 1999 incorporates the latest scholarship and offers fuller treatment of a number of novels The second edition also gives more weight to the development of the moral discourse which is predominant in Murdoch s work From the mid sixties onwards Murdoch was intensely concerned with the problems of Good and Evil in a godless world In the later novels particularly those of the eighties and nineties she posited the possibility of mystic personalities who influence others from a position beyond the normal parameters of our world Hilda D Spear examines these mystic and mysterious fictions in the later chapters of her study and argues that Jackson s Dilemma should be viewed as Murdoch s unfinished novel

Women in Turmoil Robert A Schanke,2008-08-18 In this first publication of six plays by the flamboyantly uninhibited author poet and playwright Mercedes de Acosta 1893 1968 theater historian Robert A Schanke rescues these lost theatrical writings from the dusty margins of obscurity Often autobiographical always rife with gender struggle and still decidedly stageworthy Women in Turmoil Six Plays by Mercedes de Acosta constitutes a significant find for the canon of gay and lesbian drama In her 1960 autobiography Here Lies the Heart de Acosta notes that as she was contemplating marriage to a man in 1920 she was in a strange turmoil about world affairs my own writing suffrage sex and my inner spiritual development The voice in these plays is that of a lesbian in turmoil marginalized and ignored Her same sex desires and struggles for acceptance fueled her writings and nowhere is that more evident than in the plays contained herein The women characters struggle with unfulfilling marriages divorce unrequited sexual desire suppressed identity and a longing for recognition Of the six plays only the first two were ever produced Jehanne d Arc 1922 premiered in Paris with de Acosta s lover at the time Eva Le Gallienne starring and Norman Bel Geddes designing the set and lights In 1934 de Acosta adapted it into a screenplay for Greta Garbo then her lover but it was never filmed Portraying rampant anti Semitism in a small New England town Jacob Slovak 1923 was performed both on Broadway and in London with the London production starring John Gielgud and Ralph Richardson The Mother of Christ 1924 is a long one act play written for the internationally known actress Eleonora Duse After Duse s death several other actresses including Eva Bartok Jeanne Eagels and Lillian Gish explored productions of the play Igor Stravinsky wrote a score Norman Bel Geddes designed a set and Gladys Calthrop designed costumes However the play was never produced Her most autobiographical play World Without End 1925 and her most sensational play The Dark Light 1926 both unfold through plots of sibling rivalry incest and suicide With overtones of Ibsen Illusion 1928 continues the themes of de Acosta s previous plays with her rough and seedy cast of characters but here the playwright s drama grows to incorporate a yearning for belonging as well as strong elements of class conflict What notoriety remains associated with de Acosta has less to do with her writing than with her infamous romances with the likes of Greta Garbo Marlene Dietrich Isadora Duncan Alla Nazimova Eva Le Gallienne Tamara Karsavina Pola Negri and Ona Munson Through this collection of six powerfully poignant dramas editor Robert A Schanke strives to correct myths about Mercedes de Acosta and to restore both her name and her literary achievements to their proper place in history Robert A Schanke has authored the original biography That Furious Lesbian The Story of Mercedes de Acosta also available from Southern Illinois University Press The Secret of Wardale Court and Other Stories Andrée Hope,1894
