Selected Letters Charles Olson, 2000 In this volume edited and annotated by Ralph Maud we see Olson at the height of his powers and also at his most human The nearly two hundred letters selected from a known three thousand demonstrate the wide range of Olson's interests and the depth of his concern for the future As we read through the letters which span the years from 1931 when Olson was an undergraduate in college to his death in 1970 a fascinating portrait of this complex poet and thinker emerges Jacket Jack Kerouac Jack Kerouac, 1995 It was in his letters that Jack Kerouac set down the raw material that he transmuted into his novels exploring and refining the spontaneous prose style that became his trademark The letters in this volume written between 1940 when Kerouac was a freshman at college and 1956 immediately before his breathless leap into celebrity with the publication of On the Road offer invaluable insights into Kerouac's family life his friendships with Neal and Carolyn Cassady Allen Ginsberg Gary Snyder and William S Burroughs his travels love affairs and literary apprenticeship At once fascinating reading and a major addition to Kerouac scholarship here is a rare portrait of the writer as a young adventurer of immense talent energy and ambition in the midst of writing and living an American legend
