Into the Heart of European Poetry John Taylor, 2017-07-05 John Taylor's brilliant new book examines the work of many of the major poets who have deeply marked modern and contemporary European literature Venturing far and wide from the France in which he has lived since the late 1970s the polyglot writer critic not only delves into the more widely translated literatures of Italy Greece Germany and Austria but also discovers impressive and overlooked work in Slovenia Bosnia Hungary Finland Norway and the Netherlands in this book that ranges over nearly all of Europe including Russia While providing this stimulating and far ranging critical panorama Taylor brings to light key themes of European writing the depth of everyday life the quest of the thing in itself metaphysical aspiration and anxiety the dialectics of negativity and affirmation subjectivity and self effacement and uprootedness as a category that is as ontological as it is geographical historical political or cultural The book pays careful attention to the intersection of writing and history or politics as several poets featured here have faced the Second World War the Holocaust Communism the fall of Communism or the war in the former Yugoslavia Taylor gives the work of renowned upcoming and still little known poets a thorough look all the while scrutinizing recent translations of their verse He highlights several poets who are also masters of the prose poem He includes a few novelists who have fashioned a particularly original kind of poetic prose that stylistic category that has proved so difficult for critics to define Into the Heart of European Poetry should be of immediate interest to any reader curious about the aesthetic and philosophical ideas underlying major trends of contemporary European writing In a day and age when much too little is translated and thus known about foreign literature and when Europeans themselves are pondering the common denominators of their own culture this book is a Flanders Andre de Vries,2007-06-11 Publisher description

Selected Poems of John Updike John Updike, Christopher Carduff, 2018-10-23 The best from Updike's lifework in poetry 129 witty and intimate poems that when read together take on the quality of an autobiography in verse By a master of American letters and the author of the acclaimed Rabbit series Updike's gift for close observation in these poems as elsewhere is near to supernatural The New York Times Five decades of witty intimate and moving poems written between 1953 and 2008 with the cumulative force of an unfolding verse diary Though John Updike is widely known as one of America's greatest writers of prose both his first book and his last were poetry collections and in the fifty years between he published six other volumes of verse Now six years after his death Christopher Carduff has selected the best from Updike's lifework in poetry 129 witty and intimate poems that when read together in the order of their composition take on the quality of an unfolding verse diary Among these poems are precocious undergraduate efforts including the previously unpublished Coming into New York frequently anthologized midcareer classics Seagulls Seven Stanzas at Easter Dog's Death and dozens of later works in a form that Updike made his own the blank verse sonnet The poems range from metaphysical epigrams and devotional poems to lyrical odes to rot growth and healing from meditations on Roman portrait busts and the fleshy canvases of Lucian Freud to observations on sash cords postage stamps and hand tools from several brief episodes in family history to a pair of long autobiographical poems the antic and eclectic Midpoint written at age thirty five and the elegiac masterpiece Endpoint completed just before his death at seventy six The variety of the work is astonishing the craftsmanship always of the highest caliber Art science popular culture foreign travel erotic love the beauty of the man made and the God given worlds these recurring topics provided Updike ever surprising occasions for wonder and matchless verbal invention His Selected Poems is as Brad Leithauser writes in his introduction a celebration of American life in the second half of the twentieth century No other writer of his time captured so much of this passing pageant And that he did so with brio and delight and nimbleness is another reason to celebrate our noble celebrant

A Literary History of the Low Countries Theo Hermans, 2009 What was the written culture behind visual artists like Vermeer Rembrandt and Rubens What made the historical novel in nineteenth century Flanders so different from its counterpart in Holland What was the literary impact of the huge colonial empires run by the Netherlands and Belgium What role did Latin French and Frisian play in the literary culture of the Low Countries through the ages Why is experimental writing so prevalent in modern Dutch literature What has made Cees Nooteboom an internationally acclaimed author And how does Flemish relate to Dutch anyway This first literary history of the Netherlands and Flanders in English since the 1970s answers these and many other questions Written by a team of Dutch and Flemish subject specialists it offers a comprehensive and authoritative account of the literature of the Dutch speaking area from the medieval period up to the present day While it focuses on literature written in Dutch it also assesses the significance of writings in French Latin and Frisian

Spark to a Waiting Fuse James K. Baxter, 2001 A landmark in New Zealand literary scholarship this book provides an extraordinary insight into the formative years of one of New Zealand's most significant poets Included are 56 letters written by James K Baxter to his slightly older friend Noel Ginn who was at the time imprisoned as a conscientious objector In these letters a teenage Baxter pours out his ideas and feelings on life philosophy and his own work Included are the complete texts of the 255 poems written at the time and discussed in the letters The introduction an important work of biographical criticism in its own right puts Baxter's ideas and interests within the context of the wider public events and intellectual and spiritual currents of his time
