Robert Penn Warren, 2013-12-16 In the last decade of his life Robert Penn Warren remained a vibrant force in American literature producing new works of poetry and nonfiction while also dealing courageously with the gradual decline of his health and the diminishment of his poetic powers Toward Sunset at a Great Height 1980 1989 the sixth and final volume of the author's selected letters provides crucial documentation of this period containing Warren's correspondence with friends family fellow writers editors critics and the scholars studying his works Warren published several volumes of poetry including Being Here 1980 Rumor Verified 1981 and Chief Joseph of the Nez Perce 1983 and returned to nonfiction prose with Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back 1980 and the memoir Portrait of a Father 1988 His letters reveal that he tried to begin writing a novel but was unable to make substantial progress on it and that from 1985 on he became increasingly dissatisfied with his new poems Until his death at age eighty four however Warren maintained an active correspondence filled with news about his writings and travels accounts of the lives of his wife and children and a stoic attitude about his own physical decline as well as a solicitousness regarding the health of others such as his brother Thomas and sister Mary He communicated with rising young scholars and encouraged younger poets he admired Toward Sunset at a Great Height offers rich insights into the closing chapter of Robert Penn Warren's professional and personal life making it an essential resource for understanding the full scope of the author's contribution to American letters The Ballad of John Latouche : an

American Lyricist's Life and Work Howard Pollack, 2017 In his short life the Virginia born John Treville Latouche 1914-56 made a profound mark on America's musical theater as a lyricist book writer and librettist His signature achievements include theatrical works with composers Earl Robinson Vernon Duke Duke Ellington Jerome Moross and Leonard Bernstein

American Oracle David W. Blight, 2013-10-07 David Blight takes his readers back to the Civil War's centennial celebration to determine how Americans made sense of the suffering loss and liberation a century earlier He shows how four of America's most incisive writers Robert Penn Warren Bruce Catton Edmund Wilson and James Baldwin explored the gulf between remembrance and reality These Ghostly Archives Gail Crowther, Peter K. Steinberg, 2017-06-29 The authors discuss Sylvia Plath archival discoveries in unique ways unearthing previously unknown materials and bringing new context to well known works New essays on the sociological notion of haunting in the archive Innovative approaches to distance international collaboration in archival scholarship Introduces new ways of understanding Sylvia Plath Plath's The Bell Jar is to be released in 2018 as a major film starring Dakota Fanning and directed by Kirsten Dunst These Ghostly Archives The

Unearthing of Sylvia Plath offers a ground breaking look at Plath studies Focusing on previously unpublished material found in archives from around the world These Ghostly Archives aims to reconstruct the ghostly figure of Plath within our culture via unseen letters manuscripts photographs places and poems This book approaches archival studies exploring both the practical and experiential work carried out in the archive highlighting the detective type work that it involves and the traces left behind from history However for the first time this work also combines the sociological notion of haunting that is the archive as a location where researchers haunt the research subject and in turn are haunted by the traces left behind Never is material culture more powerful than when associated with the dead never is the archive ghostlier when haunted by the absent presence of Plath This book showcases the necessity to leave no archival box or folder left unopened and how the researcher and the archive can change even though its documents might stay the same Illustrations 32 colour photographs

Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Books in Print ,1994 International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets My Tongue is My Own: A Life of Gwen Harwood Ann-Marie Priest,2020-11-17 A masterful portrait of a major Australian writer her incandescent poetry and her battles to be heard in a male dominated literary establishment Winner of the 2023 National Biography Award The first biography of Gwen Harwood 1920 1995 one of Australia s most significant and distinctive poets Harwood is renowned for her brilliance but loved for her humour rebellion and mischief A public figure by the end of her life she was always deeply protective of her privacy and even now some twenty six years after her death little is known of the experiences that gave rise to her extraordinary poems This book follows Harwood from her childhood in 1920s Brisbane to her final years in Hobart in the 1990s It traces how a lively sardonic and determined young woman built a career in the conservative 1950s blasting her way into the patriarchal strongholds of Australian poetry Harwood refused to be bound by convention liberating herself to use her word before women s lib existed Yet she also struggled for much of her life to combine marriage and motherhood with her creative ambitions In this sense she is a twentieth century everywoman She is also a unique and powerful presence in Australian literary history a poet who challenged orthodoxies and spoke in a remarkable range of voices This illuminating moving biography reveals a deeply passionate figure both at odds with her time and deeply of it and reclaims and celebrates this important Australian writer Gwen Harwood that excellent poet and critic deserves a sympathetic and lively biography Ann Marie Priest to her credit has just written that book Ann Blainey winner of 2009 National Biography Award Read this meticulous biography with Harwood s poetry in hand and chase down every poem that Priest cites The Sydney Morning Herald Ann Marie Priest has captured completely the sprite like nature of one of Australia s finest poets Through these pages the great poet feels so alive Judges comments National Biography Award Places of Their Own Andrew Wiese,2009-04-24 On Melbenan Drive just west of Atlanta sunlight falls onto a long row of well kept lawns Two dozen homes line the street behind them wooden decks and living room windows open onto vast woodland properties Residents returning from their jobs steer SUVs into long driveways and emerge from their automobiles They walk to the front doors of their houses past sculptured bushes and flowers in bloom For most people this cozy image of suburbia does not immediately evoke images of African Americans But as this pioneering work demonstrates the suburbs have provided a home to black residents in increasing numbers for the past hundred years in the last two decades alone the numbers have nearly doubled to just under twelve million Places of Their Own begins a hundred years ago painting an austere portrait of the conditions that early black residents found in isolated poor suburbs Andrew Wiese insists however that they moved there by choice withstanding racism and poverty through efforts to shape the landscape to their own needs Turning then to the 1950s Wiese illuminates key differences between black suburbanization in the North and South He considers how African Americans in the South bargained for separate areas where they could develop their own neighborhoods while many of their northern counterparts transgressed racial boundaries settling in historically white communities Ultimately Wiese explores how the civil rights movement emboldened black families to purchase homes in the suburbs with increased vigor and how the passage of civil rights legislation helped pave the way for today s black middle class Tracing the precise contours of black migration to the suburbs over the course of the whole last century and across the entire United States Places of Their Own will be a foundational book for anyone interested in the African American experience or the role of race and class in the making of America s suburbs Winner of the 2005 John G Cawelti Book Award from the American Culture Association Winner of the 2005 Award for Best Book in North American Urban History from the Urban History Association

The History of British Women's Writing, 1945-1975 Clare Hanson, Susan Watkins, 2017-09-14 This volume reshapes our understanding of British literary culture from 1945 1975 by exploring the richness and diversity of women s writing of this period Essays by leading scholars reveal the range and intensity of women writers engagement with post war transformations including the founding of the Welfare State the gradual liberalization of attitudes to gender and sexuality and the reconfiguration of Britain and the empire in the context of the Cold War Attending closely to the politics of form the sixteen essays range across literary middlebrow and popular genres including espionage thrillers and historical fiction children s literature and science fiction as well as poetry drama and journalism They examine issues including realism and experimentalism education class and politics the emergence of second wave feminism responses to the Holocaust and mass migration and diaspora The volume offers an exciting reassessment of women s writing at a time of radical social change and rapid cultural expansion

Derek Mahon: A Retrospective Nicholas Grene, Tom Walker, 2024-09-17 Derek Mahon 1941 2020 is widely recognized as one of the most important Irish poets of his generation This collection of new critical essays offers an important retrospective assessment of the nature of his poetic achievement Bringing together many leading scholars of modern and contemporary Irish poetry including a notable number of accomplished poet critics its contributors range widely across Mahon s body of work Their essays offer fresh considerations of the biographical geographical and literary contexts that shaped his poetic voice This includes paying attention not only to more familiar influences but also to previously little considered interlocutors The stylistic and formal achievement of his voice is re evaluated in ways that range from attentive close readings to considerations of his controversial practice of self revision and his engagements with music and experiments in translation The politics of a poet often misleadingly considered apolitical are also reframed to take in the engagements of his early work through to the ecocritical commitment of his later poetry Indeed a notable aspect of this book is the consideration it gives to all the phases of Mahon s career As a whole the collection opens up many new ways of reading and understanding Mahon s important body of work Ten Poems to Open Your Heart Roger Housden,2007-12-18 Ten Poems to Open Your Heart is a book devoted to love to the intimacy of personal love and lovemaking to a loving compassion for others and to the love that embraces both this world and the next This new volume from Roger Housden features a few of the same poets as his extraordinarily moving Ten Poems to Change Your Life such as Mary Oliver and Pablo Neruda along with contributions from Sharon Olds Wislawa Szymborska Czeslaw Milosz Denise Levertov and others Any one of the ten poems and indeed any one of Housden s reflections on them can open gladden or pierce your heart Through the voices of these ten inspiring poets and through illustrations from his own life Housden expresses the tenderness beauty joys and sorrows of love the presence of which more than anything else gives human existence its meaning As Housden says in his eloquent introduction Great poetry happens when the mind is looking the other way and words fall from the sky to shape a moment that would normally be untranslatable When the heart opens we forget ourselves and the world pours in this world and also the invisible world of meaning that sustains everything that was and ever shall be From the Hardcover edition
