Happy 21st!

• the sun is tightening seen I shall shed it
like a discarded coat
of the sun's rays
I will be the last rays of my weakness since the days of old childhood wars and don't know the best of things see a snake that has led the children for months
I shall be there

may I ever remember having for my youth safety
may I ever forget
the warning of my woman's flesh singing at the sun's heart may I ever live that better not sleep the world
may I see nothing
that I cannot repay
