Selected Poems And New:

Selected Poems and New José García Villa, 1958 The Caged Owl Gregory Orr, 2002 Gregory Orr's genius is the transformation of trauma into art. Whether writing about his responsibility for a brother's death during a hunting accident, drug addiction, or being jailed during the Civil Rights struggle, lyricism erupts in the midst of desolation and violence. Orr's spare, succinct poems distill myth from the domestic and display a richness of action and visual detail. This long-awaited collection is soulful work from a remarkable poet whose poems have been described as mystical, carnal, reflective, and wry. San Francisco Review Love Poem: A black biplane crashes through the window of the luncheonette. The pilot climbs down, removing his leather hood. He hands me my grandmother's jade ring. No, it is two robin's eggs and a telephone number yours from Gathering the Bones. Together, a father and his four sons run down a slope toward a deer they just killed; the father and two sons carry rifles. They laugh, jostle, and chatter together. A gun goes off, and the youngest brother falls to the ground. A boy with a rifle stands beside him, screaming. Orr's is an immaculate style of latent violence and inhibited tenderness, charged with a desperate intensity whose source is often obscure. The New York Times Book Review Gregory Orr is the author of seven volumes of poetry and three books of criticism. He is the editor at Virginia Quarterly Review, teaches at the University of Virginia, and lives with his wife and daughters in Charlottesville. In 2002, along with his selected poems The Caged Owl, he will also publish a memoir and a book about poetry writing, Three Strange Angels: Trauma and Transformation in Lyric Poetry. Also available by Gregory Orr: Orpheus Eurydice: A Lyric Sequence TP 12 00 1 55659 151 9 CUSA New Selected Poems Mark Strand, 2007 More than twenty-five years after the appearance of his first Selected Poems, we at last have a magnificent new gathering of Mark Strand's work, one that spans and celebrates his entire remarkable career to date. From Sleeping with One Eye Open 1964 through the wonderful middle work that includes The Continuous Life 1990 and crowned by the Pulitzer Prize-winning Blizzard of One 1998 and his most recent collection Man and Camel 2006, this book makes a crucial selection of Strand's always beautiful and by turns humorous and melancholy poems. Over the decades, Strand's identity as a poet has remained firm: he is existential, playful, mysterious, a poet of simple words and sentences that somehow add up to powerful universal experiences. With his incantatory language and radiant, commanding imagery, he creates mythic scenes and vistas that, however otherworldly, are ultimately of this earth; their underlying subject, the pain and pleasure of being mortal. Here is an essential compilation from one of the most beloved and honored American poets at work today, without which no modern poetry collection is complete. Migration William Stanley Merwin, 2005 Named one of the 100 Notable Books of the Year by The New York Times, Winner of the National Book Award for Poetry, Named by O as one of the 20 Books of Poetry Everyone Should Own. The poems in Migration speak a life-long belief in the power of words to awaken our drowsy souls and see the world with compassionate interconnection. National Book Award judges' statement: The publication of W. S. Merwin's selected and new poems is one of those landmark events in the literary world. Los Angeles Times W. S. Merwin is the most influential American poet of the last half century an artist who has transfigured and reinvigorated the vision of poetry for our time Migration New and Selected Poems is that case This 540 page distillation selected by Merwin from fifteen diverse volumes is a gathering of the best poems from a profound body of work accented by a selection of distinctive new poems As an undergraduate at Princeton University Merwin was advised by John Berryman to get down on your knees and pray to the muse every day Migration represents the bounty of those prayers Over the last fifty years Merwin s muse has led him beyond the formal verse of his early years to revolutionary open forms that engage a vast array of influences and possibilities As Adrienne Rich wrote of Merwin s work I would be shamelessly jealous of this poetry if I didn t take so much from it into my own life W S Merwin is the author of over fifty books of poetry prose and translation He lives in Hawaii where he raises endangered palm trees

In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghen,2010-10-01 The title of Michael Van Walleghen s new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghen s enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether
