Selected Poems, 1985 Asian American Literature Keith Lawrence, 2021-08-25 Asian American Literature An Encyclopedia for Students is an invaluable resource for students curious to know more about Asian North American writers texts and the issues and drives that motivate their writing This volume collects in one place a breadth of information about Asian American literary and cultural history as well as the authors and texts that best define it A dozen contextual essays introduce fundamental elements or subcategories of Asian American literature expanding on social and literary concerns or tensions that are familiar and relevant Essays include the origins and development of the term Asian American overviews of Asian American and Asian Canadian social and literary histories essays on Asian American identity gender issues and sexuality and discussions of Asian American rhetoric and children s literature More than 120 alphabetical entries round out the volume and cover important Asian North American authors Historical information is presented in clear and engaging ways and author entries emphasize biographical or textual details that are significant to contemporary young adults Special attention has been given to pioneering authors from the late 19th century through the early 1970s and to influential or well known contemporary authors especially those likely to be studied in high school or university classrooms Diasporic Poetics Timothy Yu, 2021 Studies Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian writing to establish what diasporic poetics might be held in common The False Laws of Narrative Fred Wah, 2011-04-07 The False Laws of Narrative is a selection of Fred Wah s poems covering the poets entire poetic trajectory to date A founding editor of Tish magazine Wah was influenced by leading progressive and innovative poets of the 1960s and was at the forefront of the exploration of racial hybridity multiculturalism and transnational family roots in poetry The selection emphasizes his innovative poetic range Wah is renowned as one of Canada s finest and most complex lyric poets and has been lauded for the musicality of his verse Louis Cabri s introduction offers a paradigm for thinking about how sound is actually structured in Wah s improvisatory poetry and offers fresh insights into Wah s context and writing In an afterword by the poet himself Wah presents a dialogue between editor and poet on the key themes of the selected poems and reveals his abiding concerns as poet and thinker Picturing Mind John Danvers, 2006 In this book the author takes an unusual multi disciplinary approach to debates about contemporary art and poetry ideas about the mind and its representations and theories of knowledge and being Arts practices are considered as enactments of mind and as transformative modes of consciousness Ideas drawn from poetics philosophy and consciousness studies are used to illuminate the conceptual and aesthetic frameworks of a diverse array of visual artists Themes explored include the interconnectedness of existence art as a way of interrogating appearances identity and otherness art and the self as open work Buddhist concepts of emptiness and suchness scepticism mysticism and the arts and mind in the landscape The book contains an important and distinctive visual dimension with photographs and drawings by the author and texts employing unorthodox syntax and layouts that exemplify the themes under discussion The author hints at a new aesthetics and philosophy of indeterminacy paradox uncertainty and discontinuity a contrarium in which we negotiate our way through the instabilities and contradictions of contemporary life Written in a lively and accessible style this volume is of interest to scholars arts practitioners teachers and to anyone with an interest in art poetry consciousness studies philosophy and nature Artists poets and philosophers discussed include Cy Twombly Helen Chadwick John Ruskin Ad Reinhardt Richard Long James Turrell Anish Kapoor Ian Hamilton Finlay Agnes Martin Land Art Arte Povera Minimalism Charles Olson Kenneth White Robin Blaser Fred Wah Gary Snyder RS Thomas Alice Oswald John Cage Jorge Luis Borges Guy Davenport Kenneth Rexroth Heidegger Marjorie Perloff Thomas McEvilley Merleau Ponty Spinoza Wittgenstein Roland Barthes Umberto Eco David Abram Thomas Merton Pyrrho Nagarjuna Selected Poems Fred Wah,1980 This volume includes work selected from each of Fred Wah's earlier books of poetry Lardeau Mountain among Tree and Pictograms from the Interior of B C in addition to unpublished work and work from the manuscript edition of Breathin My Name with a Sigh

Culture, Identity, Commodity Tseen Khoo, Kam Louie, 2005-10-05 Established and emerging scholars offer timely discussions of diasporic Chinese studies drawing on transnational postcolonial globalisation and racialisation theories The collection examines what is at stake in the consideration of diasporic literatures and the connections and fissures emerging in these new critical terrains Asian Diaspora Poetry in North America , The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang, 2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience Writing the Roaming Subject Joanne Saul, 2006-01-01 Writing the Roaming Subject explores issues of identity formation representation and resistance in Canada and suggests that these are particularly crucial questions during a period of Canadian literary history Canadian Book Review Annual , 1983 Future Horizons Sarah Roger, Paul Barrett, 2023-06-13 Across more than twenty chapters Future

Horizons explores the past present and future of digital humanities research teaching and experimentation in Canada Bringing together work by established and emerging scholars this collection presents contemporary initiatives in digital humanities alongside a reassessment of the field's legacy to date and conversations about its future potential It also offers a historical view of the important yet largely unknown digital projects in Canada Future Horizons offers deep dives into projects that enlist a diverse range of approaches from digital games to makerspaces sound archives to born digital poetry visual arts to digital textual analysis and that work with both historical and contemporary Canadian materials The essays demonstrate how these diverse approaches challenge disciplinary knowledge by enabling humanities researchers to ask new questions The collection challenges the idea that there is either a single definition of digital humanities or a collective national identity By looking to digital engagements with race Indigeneity gender and sexuality not to mention history poetry and nationhood this volume expands what it means to work at the intersection of digital humanities and humanities in Canada today Available formats trade paperback accessible PDF and accessible ePub

Canadian Literature ,1997 Contemporary Poets Thomas Riggs,1995 This reference work combines bibliographical biographical and critical information on 900 living poets writing in the English language Entries are arranged alphabetically and this edition includes 120 new entrants including Wendy Cope Benjamin Zephaniah and Rachel McAlpine Poets Talk Pauline Butling,Susan Rudy,2005-01-15 This is a book that takes on the hard questions about the role of poets in society together with the challenges of reading difficult poetry Using the relaxed format of the personal interview Butling and Rudy open doors to some of the most challenging and important poetry of the 1990s Robert Kroetsch talks about his dread of systems and his subversive use of sub literary forms Erin Mour and Daphne Marlatt discuss the feminist trajectories in their work how to jump circuits and activate alternative networks Dionne Brand links her poetics to Marxist politics and Pan African liberation movements Annharte explains her use of humour to de program Native people Jeff Derksen wants to disarticulate and rearticulate linguistic and social systems while Fred Wah emphasizes the role of poetry in changing how we see the world A Secret Location on the Lower East Side Steven Clay,Rodney Phillips,New York Public Library,1998 By Jerome Rothenberg Contributions by Steven Clay Rodney Phillips The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two George Melnyk,1998 In this the companion to the landmark volume The Literary History of Alberta Volume One From Writing on Stone to World War Two George Melnyk examines Alberta literature in the second half of the twentieth century At last Melnyk argues Alberta writers have found their voice and their accomplishments have been remarkable The contradictory landscape the stereotypes of the Indian the Mountie and the Cowboy and the language of the Other speaking from the margins these elements all left their impressions on the consciousness of early Alberta But writers in the last few decades have turned this inheritance to their advantage to create compelling stories about this place and its people Today Melnyk discovers Alberta writers can appreciate not only this achievement but also its essential source the symbolic communication of Writing on Stone The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two extends the study of Alberta s cultural history to the present day It is a vital text for anyone interested in Alberta s vibrant literary culture The Presentation of a Hybrid Identity in Fred Wah's Diamond Grill Katharina Eder,2011-05 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 University of Vienna language English abstract The following seminar paper is concerned with the presentation of a hybrid identity in Fred Wah s Diamond Grill and the cultural significance of food In the beginning the most important stages of the author s life shall help to embed the story in its historical and socio cultural context After a detailed discussion on the symbolic meaning of food with various examples providing insight into the many functions that food takes in daily life and human existence as well as its crucial role in the context of communities the paper will shift its focus to the text itself The term biotext and its emergence will be discussed and information on identity ethnicity other important themes and issues in the text and the language employed by Wah will be given The last part of this paper constitutes its centrepiece in which food as a metaphor and its cultural significance as a multilayered strategy and trope in postcolonial life writing will be discussed. The culinary language employed in Wah's innovative discourse of Diamond Grill makes the concept of food a metonymy of the elaboration of identity and culture. The use of food as a metaphor in the author's culinary memoirs will be discussed, and the way in which the metaphor of food provides an axis for the understanding of Wah's explorations of his socio-cultural background will be explained in more detail.
