Selected Poetry Hollander:

Selected Poetry John Hollander, 2012-05-02 Perfection is a rare accomplishment particularly in American poetry and the perfection of much of Hollander's work makes it essential reading for anyone who genuinely cares for the craft of poetry But in our fallen world we seem fated to value power of perfection and John Hollander's poetry has shown a visionary power just often enough to secure him a place as one of the major figures of our moment Vernon Shetley The New Republic

Spectral Emanations John Hollander, 1978 Figurehead John Hollander, 2009-05-06 In a major review in The New Republic of John Hollander's two earlier books Tesserae and Selected Poetry both 1993 Vernon Shetley said John Hollander's poetry has shown a visionary power just often enough to secure him a place as one of the major figures of our moment Figurehead a lively varied and technically dazzling book confirms the statement made by Henry Taylor in the Washington Times John Hollander revels in technical challenges of unusual severity and complexity yet most of his poems also have the emotional heft of something worth pausing over and remembering One of the most gifted of W H Auden's choices for the Yale Series of Younger Poets Hollander has pursued the wide range and metrical brilliance of Auden's own poetry so that this new book exhibits both a large compass of subject matter from philosophical matters to personal narrative and as usual some astonishing meditations on paintings here by Charles Sheeler Rene Magritte and Edward Hopper By turns witty touching profound mocking ingenious and always clever Hollander's poems are a joy for the reader He is a modern master And They Shall Wear Purple Jean Hollander, 2016-05-10 the color of the soul Selected Poems John Hollander, 1972

Selected Poems Hélène Aji, Jennifer Kilgore-Caradec, 2013-01-16 Complete poems are bulky and too heavy to carry around Collected poems pretend to be complete but usually are not Selected poems are altogether unpretentious and reader friendly But they can be problematic Who decides what poems are important for inclusion in a volume of selected poems When the selection occurs during the author's lifetime may one assume that the author was involved What motivates the choice of one poem over another How do readers' preferences influence this choice How do new readers and familiar readers of a poet negotiate the poems that are left out of the selection The essays in this volume address these questions in a variety of ways and also provide an overview of poetic writing from modernist poets to the present day using selections from the 1940s until now They offer new insight into the uses both pedagogical and critical of selection Because Selected Poems usually address a large general public these essays have also been written for all those who wish to know more about how these slimmer more attractive volumes are produced Tesserae John Hollander, 1995-07-18 Tricks of the Light Vicki Hearne, 2008-11-15 From The Horse That Trotting The horse that trotting with open heart Against the wind achieves bend and flow Will live forever So far so good But they never do until too late Bend properly and time spreads from The momentary hesitations Of their spines circles their tossing necks Falls from their teeth like rejected oats Litters the ground like penitence This is where we come in where the drop Of time congeals the air and someone Speaks to the discouraged grass Tricks of the Light explores the often fraught relationships between domestic animals and humans through mythological figurations vibrant thought and late modern lyrics that seem to test their own boundaries Vicki Hearne 1946-2001 best known and celebrated today as a writer of strikingly original poetry and prose was a capable dog and horse trainer and sometimes controversial animal advocate This definitive collection of Hearne's poetry spans the entirety of her illustrious career from her first book Nervous Horses 1980 to never before published poems composed on her deathbed But no matter the source each of her meditative metaphysical lyrics possesses that rare combination of philosophical speculation practical knowledge of animals and an unusually elegant style unlike that of any other poet writing today Before her untimely death Hearne entrusted the manuscript to distinguished poet scholar and long time friend John Hollander whose introduction provides both critical and personal insight into the poet's magnum opus Tricks of the Light acute vibrant and deeply informed is a sensuous reckoning of the connection between humans and the natural world Praise for The Parts of Light Hearne strives to capture exactly what she knows she can't the intense immediacy of animal consciousness a consciousness free of the moral vagaries and intellectual preoccupations that pockmark human experience Her style smooth in some places choppy in others reflects both the wholeness of animal presence and the jarring fragmentary nature of human reason and reflection Hearne's poems demand participation refuse passive enjoyment she dares the reader to stay in the saddle Publishers Weekly Tricks of the Light Vicki Hearne, 2007 Who's Who in Twentieth Century World Poetry Alan Parker, Mark Willhardt, 2005-12-05 Publicity Title Foreword by Andrew Motion Poet Laureate 900 entries by 75 international contributors all experts in their field Covers both canonical and lesser known contemporary poets Very broad range of coverage taking in poets from all over the world The only book of its kind to look at non English language poets in such detail

Wilberforce Hotel Daniel Anderson, 2014-04-21 In his third collection of poems Daniel Anderson ponders and celebrates the images sounds and tastes of contemporary life The poems in The Night Guard at the Wilberforce Hotel navigate the evanescent boundaries between the public and the private self Daniel Anderson's settings are often social but never fail to turn inward drowning out the chatter of conversation to quietly observe the truths that we simultaneously share and withhold from one another even as we visit friends celebrate a young couple's union or eavesdrop on the conversations of others These twenty poems include meditations on teaching hungover undergraduates wine tasting among snobs and engaging the war on terror from the comfort of the suburbs They are alternately driven by ornamental language that seeks to clarify and crystallize the beauties of our common world and the poet's faith that fellowship ultimately trumps partisanship Even as they weigh and measure the darkness of the heart and the sometimes rash and stingy movements of the mind the poems refrain from pronouncing judgment on their characters As much as they ponder they also celebrate in exact careful and loving terms the haunting and bracing stimuli from which they originate
