Select Sermons and Letters of Dr. Hugh Latimer, Bishop of Worcester and Martyr, 1555 (Classic Reprint) Hugh Latimer, 2017-10-14 Excerpt from Select Sermons and Letters of Dr Hugh Latimer Bishop of Worcester and Martyr 1555 That princely prophet David describing the perverse nature and wicked properties of the ungodly and reprobates amongst other crimes whereof he doth accuse them he layeth also to their charge that they have not called upon God By the which words he doth manifestly teach that they which do not give themselves to true and faithful prayer and invoking of the name of God are in the number of those which do say in their hearts there is no God For as the godly by their earnest and continual praying and praising of the name of God do declare the reverend fear they bear towards his divine majesty and their unfeigned love the which is grafted in their hearts by the gracious and divine Spirit towards their heavenly and most loving Father by the which they are encouraged willingly and cheerfully to walk in the way of godliness and to frame their lives to the will and pleasure of him whom they fear and love So on the contrary side the ungodly in that they do not call upon their God neither praise him most evidently declare that they stand not in awe of him nor love him but rather despise him as one that is neither able to hurt or pleasure them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
