Selected Speeches 1979 1981

Raoul Bianchi, Marcus Stephenson

Selected Speeches 1979 1981:

Social Justice and Third World Education Timothy J. Scrase, 2021-12-12 First Published in 1997 In much of the comparative education literature questions of educational inequality and lack of educational opportunity in the developing world stand as perplexing complex and difficult problems Yet while inequality in education remains one of the most researched and written about topics in the discipline the question of social justice and its relationship to education remains implicit This volume aims to reverse this trend to make the issue of social justice both in theory and practice central and explicit

Grenada Anthony Payne, Paul Sutton, Tony Thorndike, 2022-02-06 This book first published in 1984 analyses the background to the revolution in Grenada and details the course of its progress examining the reasons why it faltered and failed International factors played no small part in these events setting the agenda for the internal processes of the revolution and bringing it to an end The book also examines closely the US led invasion of this tiny island and its aftermath

The Fall of Global Socialism D. Jayatilleka, 2016-04-20 This radical new perspective from the Global South casts a fresh light on a major aspect of contemporary history and in doing so suggests an alternative interpretation of twentieth century revolutions Socialism left thinking and radical politics

Selected Speeches, 1979-1981 Maurice Bishop, 1970

Dependency and Socialism in the Modern Caribbean Euclid A. Rose, 2002-01-01 Was the Anglophone Caribbean condemned by its colonial history to permanent conditions of dependency and by Cold War geopolitical realities to international interventionism In Dependency and Socialism in the Modern Caribbean Euclid Rose focuses upon the efforts made by the English speaking Caribbean through case studies that compare and contrast the political economies of Guyana Jamaica and Grenada to break out of the legacy of colonial dependency and underdevelopment through the implementation of a Caribbean brand of socialism The work considers the Caribbean's adoption of Fabian style socialism as an alternative to capitalist development and how these socialist policies were impacted by differences in infrastructure capacity economic and social resources and political agendas It highlights the pivotal role of race and class and the hitherto little studied impact of religion on the region's political economy Moreover the study calculates the impact of the global economy upon Caribbean socio economic conditions and the ideological geopolitical and strategic implications of the Cold War and the Caribbean's socialist alignment on the nature character and intensity of British and American interventionism in the region A must read for political economists in search of a greater understanding of the postcolonial political economy of the Caribbean and Latin America

Tourism and Citizenship Raoul Bianchi, Marcus Stephenson, 2014-02-24 More than sixty years since the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights first enshrined the right to freedom of movement in an international charter of human rights the issue of mobility and the right to tourism itself have become increasingly significant areas of scholarly interest and political debate However despite the fact that cross border travel implies certain citizenship rights as well as the material capacity to travel the manifold intersections between tourism and citizenship have not received the attention they deserve in the literature This book endeavours to fill this gap by being the first to fully examine the role of tourism in wider society through a critically informed sociological reflection on the unfolding relationships between international tourism and distinct renderings of citizenship with particular emphasis on the ideological and political alignments between the freedom of movement and the right to travel The text weaves its analysis of citizenship and travel in the context of addressing large scale societal transformations engendered by globalization neoliberalism and the geopolitical realignments between states as well as comprehending the internal reconfiguring of the relationship between citizens and states themselves By doing so it focuses on key themes including tourism and social citizenship rights race culture and minority rights states markets and the freedom of movement tourism peace and geo politics consumerism and class and ethical tourism global citizenship and cosmopolitanism The book concludes that the advancement of genuinely democratic and just forms of tourism must be commensurate with demands for distributive justice and a democratic politics of mobility encompassing all of humanity This timely and significant contribution to the sociology and politics of international tourism through the lens of citizenship is a must read for students and scholars in both in the fields of tourism and social science The royalties received from this book will be donated to the International Porter Protection Group

General History of the Caribbean Brereton,

Bridget, Martínez-Vergne, Teresita, Römer, René A., Silvestrini, Blanca G., UNESCO, 2004-12-31 The major objective of this publication is to provide an account and interpretation of the historical development of the region from around 1930 to the end of the century Within its compass are the turbulent thirties including the Cuban Revolution of 1933 and the labour protests in the British Caribbean of 1934 the strategic position occupied by the region during the Second World War the development of proletarian movements and trade unions and their links with political parties decolonization political evolution in the French and Dutch Caribbean and the turn to the left made in the 1970s by a number of Anglophone Caribbean countries notably Grenada Also examined are the Castro Revolution and its aftermath to the 1990s ethnicity and race consciousness and their effects in uniting or dividing communities and nations international relations and regional co operation changes in social and demographic structures including the role and status of women education migration and urbanization and the beliefs and cultural experiences which underpin Caribbean identity The final chapter provides an overall survey of changes in the quality of life in the Caribbean during the twentieth century

General History of the Caribbean UNESCO Volume 5 NA NA, 2019-06-12

Volume 5 provides an account and interpretation of the historical development of the region from around 1930 to the end of the twentieth century Its wide ranging study of the economic political religious social and cultural history of this period brings the series to the authorial present Highlights include the turbulent thirties decolonization the turn to the left made in the 1970s by anglophone Caribbean countries the Castro Revolution and changes in social and demographic structures including ethnicity and race consciousness and the role and status of women Journeys in Caribbean Thought Paget Henry, 2016-03-14 For the past 30 years Paget Henry has been one of the most articulate and creative voices in Caribbean scholarship making seminal contributions to the study of Caribbean political economy C L R James studies critical theory phenomenology and Africana philosophy In the case of Afro Caribbean philosophy he inaugurated a new philosophical school of inquiry Journeys in Caribbean Thought The Paget Henry Reader outlines the trajectory of Henry s scholarly career beginning and ending with his most recent work on the distinctive character of Africana and Caribbean philosophy and political and intellectual leadership in his home of Antigua and Barbuda In between the book returns to Henry s early consideration of the relationship of political economy to cultural flourishing or stagnation and how both should be studied and to the problem with which Henry began his career of peripheral development through a focus on Caribbean political economy and democratic socialism Henry s canonical work in Anglo Caribbean thought draws upon a heavily creolized canon

In Search of Southeast Asia David Joel Steinberg, David P. Chandler, William R. Roff, John R. W. Smail, Robert H. Taylor, Alexander Woodside, David K. Wyatt, 2021-05-25 No detailed description available for In Search of Southeast Asia

The Making of Détente Keith L. Nelson, 2019-12-01 Originally published in 1995 In the early 1970s largely as a result of the debilitating struggle in Vietnam the United States began to reassess and redefine its basic approach to East West relations At the same time the Soviet Union was awakening to the liabilities that a continuing and unregulated state of hostility would impose on its own internal and external agenda Keith Nelson details the circumstances and traces the steps that led to the first significant accommodation and easing of tension between the superpowers during the Cold War In this important study Keith Nelson explains the detente period in an imaginative convincing and impressively scholarly manner Although there have been scores of books and memoirs on the subject none have done the job quite like Nelson s In particular he has used post glasnost Russian memoirs and monographs and especially his own interviews with such key players as Dobrynin and Arbatov to present one of the most intelligent Kremlinological studies I have ever seen Melvin Small Wayne State University

Refugees, Self-Reliance, Development Easton-Calabria, Evan, 2022-06-10 Evan Easton Calabria s critical history of refugee self reliance assistance brings new dimensions to refugee and international development studies The promotion of refugee self reliance is evident today yet its history remains largely unexplored with good practices and longstanding issues often missed Through archival and contemporary evidence this book documents a century of little known efforts to foster refugee self reliance including the economic political and social motives driving this assistance With five case studies from Greece Tanzania Pakistan Uganda and Egypt the book tracks refugee self reliance as a malleable concept used to pursue ulterior interests It reshapes understandings of refugee self reliance and delivers important messages for contemporary policy making The first chapter is available Open Access under CC BY NC ND licence

Connectionist Approaches To Clinical Problems in Speech and Language Raymond G. Daniloff, 2001-08-01 Connectionist accounts of language acquisition processing and dissolution proliferate despite attacks from some linguists cognitive scientists and engineers Although the networks of exquisitely interconnected perceptrons postulated by PDP theorists may not be anatomically homologous with actual brain anatomy a growing body of research suggests that the posited network functions can support many human behaviors This volume brings together contributors with a variety of backgrounds and perspectives to explore for the first time the clinical implications of whole language connectionist models Demonstrating that these models are powerful and have explained many phenomena of language acquisition language therapy and speech processing especially at the engineering level they focus specifically on applications of connectionist theory to delayed language aphasia phonological acquisition and speech perception Connectionist models they conclude offer a new interpretive framework for the discussion of information processing in humans and other animals that will be of great utility to all those who study language and seek to intervene in language disorders

Ghana, Political and Constitutional Developments Tapan Prasad Biswal, 1992 Ghana the torch bearer of African Independence from the yoke of colonial bondage has been pushed to the background from its earlier pre eminent position in international as well as African affairs Since independence Ghana has experienced diverse forms of Government and has almost run out of models for governing herself Instead of providing leadership to the underdeveloped countries of Africa Ghana is busy in its quest for evolving a stable and workable political system In its effort to evolve a stable political system and an operational constitution capable of providing steady economic progress and social upliftment Ghana has experimented west minister style parliamentary system a Single Party Republic and many military regimes following coups and counter coups Like many of the developing states of Africa Ghana has been plagued with post independence political instability Civilians as well as military governments have been installed with initial enthusiasm but so far none has been able to solve the pressing problems In fact the quest for a permanent solution to what appears a persistent governmental crisis has invited many coups and counter coups It addresses and analyses the maladies that has afflicted the Ghanaian body politic

Black African Cinema Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2023-09-01 From the proselytizing lantern slides of early Christian missionaries to contemporary films that look at Africa through an African lens N Frank Ukadike explores the development of black African cinema He examines the impact of culture and history and of technology and co production on filmmaking throughout Africa Every aspect of African contact with and contribution to cinematic practices receives attention British colonial cinema the thematic and stylistic diversity of the pioneering francophone films the effects of television on the motion picture industry and patterns of television documentary filmmaking in anglophone regions Ukadike gives special attention to the growth of independent production in Ghana and Nigeria the unique Yoruba theater film tradition and the militant liberationist tendencies of lusophone filmmakers

He offers a lucid discussion of oral tradition as a creative matrix and the relationship between cinema and other forms of popular culture And by contrasting new African films with those based on the traditional paradigm he explores the trends emerging from the eighties and nineties Clearly written and accessible to specialist and general reader alike Black African Cinema s analysis of key films and issues the most comprehensive in English is unique The book s pan Africanist vision heralds important new strategies for appraising a cinema that increasingly attracts the attention of film students and Africanists From the proselytizing lantern slides of early Christian missionaries to contemporary films that look at Africa through an African lens N Frank Ukadike explores the development of black African cinema He examines the impact of culture and history and Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson,1989 Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth,Ian Munt,1998 Introduces students to the key concepts and challenges in this topical area by exploring and challenging the notion of sustainability and its relationship to contemporary tourism in the developing world National Declassification Center Prioritization Plan ,
