Selected Works of Mao Tse-Tung, Volumes I-IV. Zedong Mao, 1967. Item is a catalogue listing the description, pricings and contents of each volume in the four volumes of the Selected works of Mao Tse Tung. Mao Tse-Tung's Theory of Dialectic F.Y.K. Soo, 2012-12-06. The year 1979 ushered in a new phase in China's long and continuous revolution. Currently this new phase is being symbolically referred to by the Chinese leaders themselves as the New Long March, a continuation of the legendary and historical Long March in terms of modernization which comprises the Four Modernizations: Agriculture, Industry, Science and Technology, and Military Defense. Such an all-encompassing attempt at modernization may appear to some at least to be something new or may indicate a radical shift in her policy. But upon closer examination this decision seems only to reflect an historical continuity in terms of the two major long-term goals of the Chinese Revolution: national independence and modernization or industrialization. The former would make China strong; the latter wealthy. For ever since the Opium War in 1840 and throughout the Revolutions of 1911 and 1949, China has always pursued these two revolutionary goals, though with different emphases at different times. This has been especially true during the past three decades as this twofold goal has dictated all of China's important policies, both domestic and foreign. In other words, while the concrete policies may have appeared to be lacking in unity at times, they have been formulated with the specific intent of achieving national independence and modernization. From this perspective, the New Long March marks the passage of post-Mao China beyond the transition of succession toward the continued pursuit of the same revolutionary goals. Collections of United States Joint Publications Research Service Translations in the Social Sciences Emanating from Communist China. United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1961. Encyclopedia of Military Science. G. Kurt Piehler, 2013-07-24. The Encyclopedia of Military Science provides a comprehensive ready reference on the organization, traditions, training, purpose and functions of today's military. Entries in this four-volume work include coverage of the duties, responsibilities and authority of military personnel and an understanding of strategies and tactics of the modern military and how they interface with political, social, legal, economic and technological factors. A large component is devoted to issues of leadership, group dynamics, motivation, problem solving and decision making in the military context. Finally, this work also covers recent American military history since the end of the Cold War, with a special emphasis on peacekeeping and peacemaking operations, the First Persian Gulf War, the events surrounding 9/11 and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq, and how the military has been changing in relation to these events. Willy Wo-Lap Lam, 2017-08-18. Whilst the Chinese Communist Party is one of the most powerful political institutions in the world, it is also one of the least understood due to the party's secrecy and tight control over the archives, the press and the Internet. Having governed the People's Republic of China for nearly 70 years, though much interest remains into how this quintessentially

Leninist party governs one fifth of the world and runs the world's second largest economy The Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Communist Party gives a comprehensive and multi faceted picture of the party's traditions and values as well as its efforts to stay relevant in the twenty first century It uses a wealth of contemporary data and qualitative analysis to explore the intriguing relationship between the party on the one hand and the government the legal and judicial establishment and the armed forces on the other Tracing the influence of Marx Engels Lenin and Stalin as well as Mao Zedong on contemporary leaders ranging from Deng Xiaoping and Jiang Zemin to Hu Jintao and Xi Jinping the sections cover the party's history and traditions how the party works and seeks to remain relevant major policy arenas the CCP in the twenty first century The Routledge Handbook of the Chinese Communist Party will be of interest to students and scholars of Chinese Politics Asian Politics Political Parties and International Relations Go to <https://www.bookshop4u.com/lw1> to see Willy Lam introduce the book

Endogenous Origins of Economic Reforms in India and China Rajiv G. Maluste, 2011-07 Attitudinal change in the context of economic reforms has been referred to in Rodrik and Subramanian 2005 DeLong 2003 Kohli 1989 and Panagariya 2004 2008 This dissertation provides empirical support for this literature establishing an earlier start for India's economic policy liberalisation than presented in stylized accounts It demonstrates the endogenous nature of the origins of these policy shifts Attitudinal change literature had directed attention to the need for further research into India's policy changes of the early 1980s and for studying broader comparability issues in other developing countries This research makes a contribution towards filling these gaps This dissertation shows that India started its economic liberalisation under the Indira Gandhi administration from 1980 to 1984 These findings depart from the conventional view that India's economic policy changes were initiated by the Narasimha Rao government in 1991 or by the Rajiv Gandhi administration in the mid to late 1980s The dissertation establishes that policy shifts of the early 1980s had endogenous origins in the political leadership's attitudinal changes The Indira Gandhi administration of the early 1980s revisited the statist policies of its previous tenure from 1966 to 1977 The new approach entailed more openness towards private enterprise scaling back the role of the public sector and starting India's integration into the global economy The dissertation also discusses the comparable role of attitudinal changes at the start of China's policy liberalisation led by Deng Xiaoping from 1978 to 1982 It focuses on the significance and challenges faced by China's political leadership in bringing about societal attitudinal change The dissertation concludes by drawing comparisons between India and China developing a linkage between their endogenous attitudinal changes and economic policy liberalisation

A Continuous Revolution Barbara Mittler, 2020-03-17 Cultural Revolution Culture often denigrated as nothing but propaganda was liked not only in its heyday but continues to be enjoyed today A Continuous Revolution sets out to explain its legacy By considering Cultural Revolution propaganda art music stage works prints and posters comics and literature from the point of view of its longue dure Barbara Mittler suggests it was able to build on a tradition of earlier art works and this allowed for its sedimentation in cultural memory and its proliferation in contemporary

China Taking the aesthetic experience of the Cultural Revolution 1966 1976 as her base Mittler juxtaposes close readings and analyses of cultural products from the period with impressions given in a series of personal interviews conducted in the early 2000s with Chinese from diverse class and generational backgrounds By including much testimony from these original voices Mittler illustrates the extremely multifaceted and contradictory nature of the Cultural Revolution both in terms of artistic production and of its cultural experience

War in Modern China Harold M Tanner, 2025-09-30 This book offers comprehensive coverage of China's military history from the Qing dynasty 1644 1912 to present China has become one of the great world powers of the twenty first century As a result Chinese leaders and observers outside of China alike seek to explain China's strategic thought and action In doing so they routinely refer to China's military history This volume examines this history beginning with the Qing dynasty's era of imperial expansion and subsequent decline continuing with the wars against foreign aggression and internal uprisings of the nineteenth century the revolutionary overthrow of the Qing in 1911 and seemingly constant wars of the first half of the twentieth century and concluding with the Chinese Communist Party's use of military power from 1950 to present This history is generally presented as a narrative of imperial greatness followed by a century of national humiliation followed by a recovery of national wealth and power under Communist Party leadership While acknowledging this narrative Harold Tanner digs deeper to reveal a fundamental continuity of interests underlying Chinese strategic thinking from the Qing to the present while also showing how the theory and practice of war in China changed over time as Chinese political and military leaders wrestled with tremendous challenges drawing on foreign sources as well as their own cultural heritage to seek new solutions Both engaging and timely War in Modern China A Military History is essential reading for students scholars and enthusiasts of Chinese and global military history

On the Alternative Punishment to the Death Penalty in China Gui Huang, 2024-04-17 This book presents a study of alternative penalties to the death penalty in China aiming to promote theoretical exploration of death penalty reform in China as well as long term penal reform Currently China is endeavouring to control the use of the death penalty and is gradually moving towards its abolition The factors influencing the choice of the punishment option to replace the death penalty are complex and varied and include the traditional punishment culture penalty concepts the political system the punishment system public opinion and human rights etc Given the differences between China and developed Western democratic states when we examine these influencing factors we cannot ignore the culture of the punishment and the special political and legislation system in China In this light this work examined and analysed the factors that influence the choice of punishment option to replace the death penalty in this special political system with its clearly Chinese characteristics Criminal policy and public opinion are two significant and typical factors involving obvious political considerations in China The former normally reflects and carries out the will of the Government as expressed to the national management the latter responds to the majority of citizens view on the current legal system and it is to a great extent the basis for national leadership s running of the country Even though life imprisonment without release hereinafter LWOR has been stipulated by the Ninth Amendment for the crime of corruption it should not be the preferable option as the alternative sanction to the death penalty because it is a kind of cruel torture and violates the constitutional principle of human rights protection On the contrary life imprisonment with possibility of release hereinafter LWPR would be an option but the termination mechanisms for inmates should be set out in accordance with the principle of proportional justice aggravated life imprisonment can be chosen to replace the death penalty in China In addition there needs to be improvements made to the relevant criminal systems By examining China s death penalty reform and long term imprisonment reform this book not only explains the methodology of the reform theoretically but also pays attention to the issues of legislation and judicial practice This book is of interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of criminal justice penal reform issues and crime control in China

China's Changed Road to Development Neville Maxwell, Bruce McFarlane, 2016-07-29 China s Changed Road to Development covers papers on the very different attitudes to social and economic development that have emerged in China since 1978 The book contains papers on the logic and limits of Chinese socialist development the underlying factors and prospects of China s economic system reform and the political economy of class struggle and economic growth in China from 1950 to 1982 The text also includes papers on Chinese market mechanism the changing relations between state and enterprise in contemporary China and the trends in Chinese enterprise management 1978 1982 The production responsibility system and its implications the peasant labor for urban industry and the single child family are also encompassed The book further presents papers on Chinese Marxism since 1978 bureaucratic privilege as an issue in Chinese politics and post Mao China s development model in global perspective

The Translatability of Revolution Pu Wang, 2020-10-20 The first comprehensive study of the lifework of Guo Moruo 1892 1978 in English this book explores the dynamics of translation revolution and historical imagination in twentieth century Chinese culture Guo was a romantic writer who eventually became Mao Zedong s last poetic interlocutor a Marxist historian who evolved into the inaugural president of China s Academy of Sciences and a leftist politician who devoted almost three decades to translating Goethe s Faust His career embedded in China s revolutionary century has generated more controversy than admiration Recent scholarship has scarcely treated his oeuvre as a whole much less touched upon his role as a translator Leaping between different genres of Guo s works and engaging many other writers texts The Translatability of Revolution confronts two issues of revolutionary cultural politics translation and historical interpretation Part 1 focuses on the translingual making of China s revolutionary culture especially Guo s translation of Faust as a development of Zeitgeist

Part 2 deals with Guo's rewritings of antiquity in lyrical dramatic and historiographical paleographical forms including his vernacular translation of classical Chinese poetry Interrogating the relationship between translation and historical imagination within revolutionary cultural practice this book finds a transcoding of different historical conjunctures into now time saturated with possibilities and tensions      Confucian Marxism Weigang Chen, 2013-09-25 Buttressed by an autocratic system China's colossal economic growth over the past decades seems to have had the paradoxical effect of undermining the foundation of Western domination but at the same time invigorating Eurocentricism In particular it highlights the current relevance of the central conviction of Weber's Orient the absence of civic roots in non Western societies will create a kind of uncivic capitalist system in which one has no choice but to seek to compensate for instabilities through authoritarian institutions Does this mean that the West may alone afford to harmonize political stability with the universalistic ideal of justice as the basic structure of society If not how then is it possible to develop a notion of the primacy of social justice that transcends the limits of liberal democracy This book aims at addressing these timely questions by drawing on Confucian Marxism a distinctive perspective on civil society      Selected Works of Mao Tse-Tung Zedong Mao, 1961      Chinese Military Strategy in the Third Indochina War Edward C. O'Dowd, 2007-04-16 This well researched volume examines the Sino Vietnamese hostilities of the late 1970s and 1980s attempting to understand them as strategic operational and tactical events The Sino Vietnamese War was the third Indochina war and contemporary Southeast Asia cannot be properly understood unless we acknowledge that the Vietnamese fought three not two wars to establish their current role in the region The war was not about the Sino Vietnamese border as frequently claimed but about China's support for its Cambodian ally the Khmer Rouge and the book addresses US and ASEAN involvement in the effort to support the regime Although the Chinese completed their troop withdrawal in March 1979 they retained their strategic goal of driving Vietnam out of Cambodia at least until 1988 but it was evident by 1984-85 that the PLA held back by the drag of its Maoist organization doctrine equipment and personnel was not an effective instrument of coercion Chinese Military Strategy in the Third Indochina War will be of great interest to all students of the Third Indochina War Asian political history Chinese security and strategic studies in general      Selections from China Mainland Magazines , 1960
