Selected Writings of William Goyen Robert Phillips, 1974 William Goyen William Goyen, 2014-02-19 Proclaimed one of the great American writers of short fiction by the New York Times Book Review William Goyen 1915 1983 had a quintessentially American literary career in which national recognition came only after years of struggle to find his authentic voice his audience and an artistic milieu in which to create These letters which span the years 1937 to 1983 offer a compelling testament to what it means to be a writer in America A prolific correspondent Goyen wrote regularly to friends family editors and other writers Among the letters selected here are those to such major literary figures as W H Auden Archibald MacLeish Joyce Carol Oates William Inge Elia Kazan Elizabeth Spencer and Katherine Anne Porter These letters constitute a virtual autobiography as well as a fascinating introduction to Goyen s work They add an important chapter to the study of American and Texas literature of the twentieth century Selected Writings of William Goyen William Goyen, 1974 A Random House Bookwords book Bibliography 11 prelim page William Goyen William Goyen, 1995 It Starts with Trouble Clark Davis, 2015-05-15 William Goyen was a writer of startling originality and deep artistic commitment whose work attracted an international audience and the praise of such luminaries as Northrop Frye Truman Capote Gaston Bachelard and Joyce Carol Oates His subject was the land and language of his native East Texas his desire to preserve the narrative music through which he came to know his world Goyen sought to transform the cherished details of his lost boyhood landscape into lasting mythic forms Cut off from his native soil and considering himself an orphan Goyen brought modernist alienation and experimentation to Texas materials The result was a body of work both sophisticated and handmade and a voice at once inimitable and unmistakable It Starts with Trouble is the first complete account of Goyen s life and work It uncovers the sources of his personal and artistic development from his early years in Trinity Texas through his adolescence and college experience in Houston his Navy service during World War II and the subsequent growth of his writing career which saw the publication of five novels including The House of Breath nonfiction works such as A Book of Jesus several short story collections and plays and a book of poetry It explores Goyen s relationships with such legendary figures as Frieda Lawrence Katherine Anne Porter Stephen Spender Ana s Nin and Carson McCullers No other twentieth century writer attempted so intimate a connection with his readers and no other writer of his era worked so passionately to recover the spiritual in an age of disabling irony Goyen s life and work are a testament to the redemptive power of storytelling and the absolute necessity of narrative art William Goyen Stuart T. Wright, 1986 The Collected Stories of William Goyen

The Madness of Art Robert Phillips,2003-03-01 Robert Phillips s conversational yet penetrating approach yields self assessments that read like new essays by the writers themselves Conducted over the course of twenty years many of these pieces were first published in the Paris Review Taken from a passage Henry James the title speaks to the madness that drives our greatest works of creativity Phillips s interviews bring out this madness in its most important sense the writers are seers and visionaries whose works inspire us beyond the limits of reason The conversations recorded in The Madness of Art attain that same level of inspiration and power Phillips questions his interviewees about their work methods daily lives influences sources of inspiration relationship to other literary figures response to critics choice of genre audience and reasons for writing

Half a Look of Cain William Goyen,1998-09 I was twenty when I followed away from my town a trapeze family aerialists a group of beautiful winged people mother father son and daughter They were the Ishbels Chris whose leg is injured and his lover Stella with whom he lives in a ruined abandoned house Chris s male nurse Marvello the circus aerialist a lighthouse keeper a flagpole sitter in small town America these are the creatures of William Goyen s visionary fable of love lust and loneliness Half a Look of Cain A Fantastical Narrative was written in the 1950s and early 1960s and is now being published for the first time Part fable and part rhapsodic exploration of desire and loss Half a Look of Cain bears Goyen s unmistakable artistic signature on every page

Too far ahead of its time in its swirling visionary structure this novel was rejected by Goyen's first publisher as not sufficiently commercial and remained unpublished despite extensive revisions. The novel is shaped as a group of medallions, a series of related episodes. It dreams of defying mortality as if living in the air like the aerialists or the flagpole sitter and of finding perfect companionship in lover and friend. The novel is both a rediscovered cry against the conformity and suppressed emotions of the 1950s and a celebration of passion. Reginald Gibbons has edited the novel from the author's multiple manuscripts and has contributed an illuminating afterword.      Dictionary of Literary Biography Yearbook ,1983
