Selected Letters 1919 1964:

Selected Letters, 1919-1964 Dame Edith Sitwell, 1970 Literary Converts Joseph Pearce, 2009-09-03 Literary Converts is a biographical exploration into the spiritual lives of some of the greatest writers in the English language Oscar Wilde Evelyn Waugh C S Lewis Malcolm Muggeridge Graham Greene Edith Sitwell Siegfried Sassoon Hilaire Belloc G K Chesterton Dorothy Sayers T S Eliot and J R R Tolkien The role of George Bernard Shaw and H G Wells in intensifying the religious debate despite not being converts themselves is also considered Many will be intrigued to know more about what inspired their literary heroes others will find the association of such names with Christian belief surprising or even controversial Whatever viewpoint we may have Literary Converts touches on some of the most important questions of the twentieth century making it a fascinating read The Poetry of American Women from 1632 to 1945 Emily Stipes Watts, 2014-09-10 American women have created an especially vigorous and innovative poetry beginning in 1632 when Anne Bradstreet set aside her needle and picked up her poet's pen The topics of American women poets have been various their images their own and their modes of expression original Emily Stipes Watts does not imply that the work of American men and that of American women are two different kinds of poetry although they have been treated as such in the past It is her aim rather to delineate and define the poetic tradition of women as crucial to the understanding of American poetry as a whole By 1850 American women of all colors religions and social classes were writing and publishing poetry Within the critical category of female poetry developed from 1800 to 1850 these women experimented boldly and prepared the way for the achievement of such women as Emily Dickinson in the second half of the nineteenth century Indeed at times for example from 1860 through 1910 it was women who were at the outer edge of prosodic experimentation and innovation in American poetry Moving chronologically Professor Watts broadly characterizes the state of American poetry for each period citing the dominant male poets she then focuses on women contemporaries singling out and analyzing their best work This volume not only brings to light several important women poets but also represents the discovery of a tradition of women writers This is a unique and invaluable contribution to the history of American literature Women, Periodicals and Print Culture in Britain, 1890s-1920s Binckes Faith Binckes, 2019-04-10 New perspectives on women's contributions to periodical culture in the era of modernism This collection highlights the contributions of women writers editors and critics to periodical culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It explores women's role in shaping conversations about modernism and modernity across varied aesthetic and ideological registers and foregrounds how such participation was shaped by a wide range of periodical genres The essays focus on well known publications and introduce those as yet obscure and understudied including middlebrow and popular magazines movement based radical papers avant garde titles and classic Little Magazines Examining neglected figures and shining new light on familiar ones the collection enriches our understanding of the role women played in the print culture of this transformative period Key Features Helps recover neglected women writers and cast new light on canonical ones Highlights the geographical diversity of modern British print culture Emphasises the interdisciplinary nature of modernism including essays on modernist dance music cinema drama and architecture Includes a section on social movement periodicals Our Emily Dickinsons Vivian R. Pollak, 2017 Our Emily Dickinsons situates Dickinson's life and work within larger debates about gender sexuality and literary authority in America Examining Dickinson's influence on Marianne Moore Sylvia Plath Elizabeth Bishop and others Vivian R. Pollak complicates the connection between authorial biography and poetry that endures

A War Imagined Samuel Hynes, 2011-06-30 Between the opulent Edwardian years and the 1920s the First World War opens like a gap in time England after the war was a different place the arts were different history was different sex society class were all different Samuel Hynes examines the process of that transformation He explores a vast cultural mosaic comprising novels and poetry music and theatre journalism paintings films parliamentary debates public monuments sartorial fashions personal diaries and letters Told in rich detail this penetrating account shatters much of the received wisdom about the First World War It shows how English culture adapted itself to the needs of killing how our stereotypes of the war gradually took shape and how the nations thought and imagination were profoundly and irretrievably changed

A Historical Dictionary of British Women Cathy Hartley, 2013-04-15 This reference book containing the biographies of more than 1 100 notable British women from Boudicca to Barbara Castle is an absorbing record of female achievement spanning some 2 000 years of British life Most of the lives included are those of women whose work took them in some way before the public and who therefore played a direct and important role in broadening the horizons of women Also included are women who influenced events in a more indirect way the wives of kings and politicians mistresses ladies in waiting and society hostesses Originally published as The Europa Biographical Dictionary of British Women this newly reworked edition includes key figures who have died in the last 20 years such as The Queen Mother Baroness Ryder of Warsaw Elizabeth Jennings and Christina Foyle

The Many Facades of Edith Sitwell Allan Pero, Gyllian Phillips, 2017-06-13 A fascinating book that takes us deep into Edith Sitwell's world of artifice disguise high camp and verbal ingenuity In these essays Sitwell emerges as a central figure in an alternative avant garde in early twentieth century Britain Faye Hammill author of Sophistication A Literary and Cultural History Establishing Edith Sitwell at the center of British modernism this volume showcases her many achievements in poetry autobiography novel writing criticism art and performance Forgoing the gossip about her eccentric appearance and self-fashioned persona that has too often overshadowed serious writing about her work the contributors explore how Sitwell combined persona and poetry to foster an outpouring of iconoclastic creativity The Many Facades of Edith Sitwell argues that Sitwell was crucial to the development of a British avant garde that operated alongside the conventionally accepted transatlantic modernism of Ezra Pound and T S Eliot With Sitwell as an influential literary player and social architect the British interwar arts scene was not an ascetic escape from personality as the modernism of Pound and Eliot has often been characterized but an alternative space of flamboyant extravagant and ornate performance Allan Pero is associate professor of English at the University of Western Ontario Gyllian Phillips is associate professor of English studies at Nipissing University No Man's Land Sandra M.
