The Song-Yuan-Ming Transition in Chinese History Paul Jakov Smith, Richard von Glahn, 2020-03-23 This volume seeks to study the connections between two well studied epochs in Chinese history the mid imperial era of the Tang and Song ca 800 1270 and the late imperial era of the late Ming and Qing 1550 1900 Both eras are seen as periods of explosive change particularly in economic activity characterized by the emergence of new forms of social organization and a dramatic expansion in knowledge and culture The task of establishing links between these two periods has been impeded by a lack of knowledge of the intervening Mongol Yuan dynasty 1271 1368 This historiographical black hole has artificially interrupted the narrative of Chinese history and bifurcated it into two distinct epochs This book aims to restore continuity to that historical narrative by filling the gap between mid imperial and late imperial China The contributors argue that the Song Yuan Ming transition early twelfth through the late fifteenth century constitutes a distinct historical period of transition and not one of interruption and devolution They trace this transition by investigating such subjects as contemporary impressions of the period the role of the Mongols in intellectual life the economy of Jiangnan urban growth neo Confucianism and local

Poetry and Painting in Song China Alfreda Murck, 2020-10-26 Throughout the history of imperial China the educated elite used various means to criticize government policies and actions During the Song dynasty 960-1278 some members of this elite found an elegant and subtle means of dissent landscape painting By examining literary archetypes the titles of paintings contemporary inscriptions and the historical context Alfreda Murck shows that certain paintings expressed strong political opinions some transparent others deliberately concealed She argues that the coding of messages in seemingly innocuous paintings was an important factor in the growing respect for painting among the educated elite and that the capacity of painting's systems of reference to allow scholars to express dissent with impunity contributed to the art's vitality and longevity for its magnificent architecture and extraordinary history the Yuanming Yuan is China's most famous imperial garden. The complex was begun in the early eighteenth century and construction continued over the next 150 years. While Chinese historians and many Chinese in general view the garden as the paramount achievement of Chinese architecture and landscape design, almost nothing is known about the Yuanming Yuan in the West. A Paradise Lost is the first comprehensive study of the palatial garden complex in a Western language. Written in a broad and engaging style, Young-tsu Wong brings the garden of perfect brightness to life as he leads readers on a grand tour of its architecture and history. Wong begins by inspecting the garden's physical appearance and its architectural elements. He discusses the origin and evolution of these structures and the aesthetics of their design and arrangement. Throughout, he refers to maps and original models of individual buildings and other existing gardens of the Ming-Qing period, including the well-preserved Yihe Yuan and the Chengde Summer Mountain Retreat in Rehe. A special feature of the book is its exploration of the activities and daily life of the royal household.

A Paradise Lost Young-tsu Wong, 2000-12-01 Noted
