sociology and other essays on the pursuit of learning Edward Shils,1980 Kazimierz Opalek Selected Papers in Legal Philosophy Jan Wolenski,2013-06-29 Philosophical aspects of law and jurisprudence are investigated from various points of view This collection represents the analytic approach to legal philosophy However this approach is not extreme in the sense that it is limited exclusively to linguistic matters The concept of norm as a directive of conduct is the central category analyzed in particular essays The structure of directives as well as their semantic and pragmatic roles are studied Pragmatic functions of directives are linked with their functioning as speech acts Moreover existence and validity of norms are analyzed The author also touches on general methodological problems of legal theory and philosophy particularly their relations to social sciences The collection covers material interesting for philosophers lawyers and social scientists John Greaves, Pyramidographia and Other Writings, with Birch's Life of John Greaves John Anthony Butler,2019-01-22 This is a modern spelling edition of John Greaves s Pyramidographia 1646 together with some miscellaneous travel writings letters and a biography of Greaves by Thomas Birch It includes a full scholarly introduction and detailed notes This book is the first of its kind in English and undertakes a scientific evaluation of the pyramids through metrics using state of the art instruments and drawing on both ancient and modern authorities amongst which is included Arab and Persian writers as well as Western sources Greaves s work is distinguished from others by his refusal to be drawn into mystical or theological speculation and is an excellent example of how seventeenth century scientists may be said to have pioneered modern methods of scientific inquiry Greaves discusses the age of the pyramids their purpose the nature of their builders and the methods he believes were used to erect them It may be said that he is probably the earliest genuine English Egyptologist and that Pyramidographia is indeed the earliest scientific treatise on the subject Greaves s travel writings which also contain a great deal of measurement show readers how he approached his sojourn in foreign lands and his letters give some measure of the man and his relationships with fellow scientists and patrons The biography by Thomas Birch further fills out Greaves s life and career Declaring Certain Papers, Pamphlets, Books, Pictures, and Writings Nonmailable. understand the components of a truly free society Acton attempted to see how the principles of self determination and freedom worked in practice from antiquity to his own time But though he penned hundreds of papers essays reviews letters and ephemera the ultimate book of his findings and views on the history of liberty remained unwritten Reading a book a day for years he still could not keep pace with the output of his time and finally dejected he gave up Today Acton is mainly known for a single maxim power tends to corrupt and absolute power corrupts absolutely In Power Tends to Corrupt Christopher Lazarski presents the first in depth consideration of Acton s thought in more than fifty years Lazarski brings Acton s work to light in accessible language with a focus on his understanding of liberty and its development in Western history A work akin to Acton s overall account of the history of liberty with a secondary look at his political theory this book is an outstanding exegesis of the theories and findings of one of the nineteenth century s keenest minds

The Ethnographer's Magic and Other Essays in the History of Anthropology George W. Stocking, 1992 George Stocking has been widely recognized as the premier historian of anthropology ever since the publication of his first volume of essays Race Culture and Evolution in 1968 As editor of several publications including the highly acclaimed History of Anthropology series he has led the movement to establish the history of anthropology as a recognized research specialization In addition to the study Victorian Anthropology his work includes numerous essays covering a wide range of anthropological topics The eight essays collected in The Ethnographer s Magic consider the emergence of anthropology since the late nineteenth century as an academic discipline grounded in systematic fieldwork Drawing extensively on unpublished manuscript materials the essays focus primarily on Franz Boas and Bronislaw Malinowski the leading figures in the American and the British academic fieldwork traditions According to George Marcus of Rice University the essays represent the most informative and insightful writings on Malinowski and Boas and their legacies that are yet available Beyond their biographical material the essays here touch upon major themes in the history of anthropology its powerfully mythic aspect and persistent strain of romantic primitivism the contradictions of its relationship to the larger sociopolitical sphere its problematic integration of a variety of natural scientific and humanistic inquiries and the tension between its scientific aspirations and its subjectively acquired data To provide an overview against which to read the other essays Stocking has also included a sketch of the history of anthropology from the ancient Greeks to the present For this collection Stocking has written prefatory commentaries for each of the essays as well as two more extended contextualizing pieces An introductory essay Retrospective Prescriptive Reflections places the volume in autobiographical and historiographical context the Afterword Postscriptive Prospective Reflections reconsiders major themes of the essays in relation to the recent past and present situation of academic anthropology
