Selected Poems, 1969-1992 William Neill, 1994 International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Within and Without Empire Theo van Heijnsbergen, Carla Sassi, 2014-01-08 The concept of the border evoked by the title of the present volume provides a central interpretative key for our project at more than one level as it is suggestive both of Scotland as a theoretical borderland in relation to the Empire and postcoloniality and of our attempt at bringing into dialogue scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds including Scottish Celtic and postcolonial studies The Scotland of the present volume's title is thus suggestive of a critical standpoint The Routledge Companion to Anglophone Caribbean Literature Michael A. Bucknor, Alison Donnell, 2011-06-14 This Companion is divided into six sections that provide an introduction to and critical history of the field discussions of key texts and a critical debate on major topics such as the nation race gender and migration In the final section contributors examine the material dissemination of Caribbean literature and point towards the new directions that Caribbean literature and criticism are taking Ireland and Ecocriticism Eóin Flannery, 2015-10-05 This book is the first truly interdisciplinary intervention into the burgeoning field of Irish ecological criticism Providing original and nuanced readings of Irish cultural texts and personalities in terms of contemporary ecological criticism Flannery's readings of Irish literary fiction poetry travel writing non fiction and essay writing are ground breaking in their depth and scope Explorations of figures and texts from Irish cultural and political history including John McGahern Derek Mahon Roger Casement and Tim Robinson among many others enable and invigorate the discipline of Irish cultural studies and international ecocriticism on the whole This book addresses the need to impress the urgency of lateral ecological awareness and responsibility among Irish cultural and political commentators to highlight continuities and disparities between Irish ecological thought writing and praxis and those of differential international writers critics and activists and to establish both the singularity and contiguity of Irish ecological criticism to the wider international field of ecological criticism With the introduction of concepts such as ecocosmopolitanism deep history ethics of proximity Gaia Theory urban ecology and postcolonial environmentalism to Irish cultural studies it takes Irish cultural studies in bracing new directions Flannery furnishes working examples of the necessary interdisciplinarity of ecological criticism and impresses the relevance of the Irish context to the broader debates within international ecological criticism Crucially the volume imports ecological critical paradigms into the field of Irish studies and demonstrates the value of such conceptual dialogue for the future of Irish cultural and political criticism This pioneering intervention exhibits the complexity of different Irish cultural and historical responses to ecological exploitation degradation and social justice International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters     The Penguin Book of the Sonnet Various,2001-11-01 A unique anthology celebrating that most vigorous of literary forms the sonnet The sonnet is one of the oldest and most enduring literary forms of the post classical world a meeting place of image and voice passion and reason elegy and ode It is a form that both challenges and liberates the poet For this anthology poet and scholar Phillis Levin has gathered more than 600 sonnets to tell the full story of the sonnet tradition in the English language She begins with its Italian origins takes the reader through its multifaceted development from the Elizabethan era to the Romantic and Victorian demonstrates its popularity as a vehicle of protest among writers of the Harlem Renaissance and poets who served in the First World War and explores its revival among modern and contemporary poets In her vibrant introduction Levin traces this history discussing characteristic structures and shifting themes and providing illuminating readings of individual sonnets She includes an appendix on structure biographical notes and valuable explanatory notes and indexes And through her narrative and wide ranging selection of sonnets and sonnet sequences she portrays not only the evolution of the form over half a millennium but also its dynamic possibilities     Uneasy Subjects Silke Stroh,2011-01-01 Scottish and Celtic fringe postcolonialism has caused much controversy and unease in literary studies Can the non English territories and peoples of the British Isles faced with centuries of English hegemony be meaningfully compared to former overseas colonies This book is the first comprehensive study of this topic which offers an in depth study of Gaelic literature It investigates the complex interplay between Celticity Gaeldom Scottish and British national identity and international colonial and postcolonial discourse It situates post colonial elements in Gaelic poetry within a wider context showing how they intersect with socio historical and political issues anglophone literature and the media Highlighting the centrality of Celticity as an archetypal construct in colonial discourses ancient and modern this volume traces post colonial themes and strategies in Gaelic poetry from the Middle Ages to the present Central themes include the uneasy position of Gaels as subjects of the Scottish or British state and as both intra British colonised and overseas colonisers Aiming to promote interdisciplinary dialogue it is of interest for scholars and students of Scottish Studies Gaelic and English literature and international Postcolonial Studies     Kathy Acker Georgina Colby,2016-08-30 An in depth analysis of the work of one of the twentieth centurys most innovative writersKathy Ackers body of work is one of the most significant collections of experimental writing in English In Kathy Acker

Writing the Impossible Georgina Colby explores Ackers compositional processes and intricate experimental practices from early poetic exercises written in the 1970s to her final writings in 1997 Through original archival research Colby traces the stages in Ackers writing and draws on her knowledge of unpublished manuscripts notebooks essays illustrations and correspondence to produce new ways of reading Ackers works Rather than treating Acker as a postmodern writer this book argues that Acker continued a radical modernist engagement with the crisis of language and carried out a series of experiments in composition and writing that are comparable in scope and rigor to her modernist predecessors Stein and Joyce Each chapter focuses on a particular compositional method and insists on the importance of avant garde experiment to the process of making new non conventional modes of meaning Combining close attention to the form of Ackers experimental writings with a consideration of the literary cultures from which she emerged Colby positions Acker as a key figure in the American avant garde and a pioneer of contemporary experimental womens writing

Key FeaturesExamines unpublished manuscripts notebooks lecture notes letters and manuscripts from the Kathy Acker PapersFeatures eleven previously unpublished images of original manuscripts correspondence and colour illustrations from the Kathy Acker PapersUtilises major archival study of Ackers experimental compositional practicesSituates Acker as a late modernist writer and a key figure in the American Avant Garde
