Lloyd, 2018-08-06 Upon his death in 1898 the French Symbolist poet Stéphane Mallarmé 1842 left behind a body of published work which though modest in quantity was to have a seminal influence on subsequent poetry and aesthetic theory He also enjoyed an unparalleled reputation for extending help and encouragement to those who sought him out Rosemary Lloyd has produced a fascinating literary biography of the poet and his period offering a subtle exploration of the mind and letters of one of the giants of modern European poetry Every Tuesday from the late 1870s on Mallarmé hosted gatherings that became famous as the Mardis and that were attended by a cross section of significant writers artists thinkers and musicians in fin de siècle France England and Belgium Through these gatherings and especially through a voluminous correspondence eventually collected in eleven volumes Mallarmé developed and recorded his friendships with Paul Valéry André Gide Berthe Morisot and many others Attractively written and scrupulously documented Mallarmé The Poet and His Circle is unique in offering a biographical account of the poet's literary practice and aesthetics which centers on that correspondence A.C. Swinburne and the Singing Word Yisrael Levin, 2016-03-16 Focusing on Algernon Charles Swinburne's later writings this collection makes a case for the seriousness and significance of the writer's mature work While Swinburne's scandalous early poetry has received considerable critical attention the thoughtful rich spiritually and politically informed poetry that began to emerge in his thirties has been generally neglected This volume addresses the need for a fuller understanding of Swinburne's career that includes his fiction aesthetic ideology and analyses of Shakespeare and the great French writers Among the key features of the collection is the contextualizing of Swinburne's work in new contexts such as Victorian mythography continental aestheticism positivism and empiricism Individual essays examine among other topics the dialect poems and Swinburne's position as a regional poet Swinburne as a transition figure from nineteenth century aesthetic writing to the professionalized criticism that dominates the twentieth century Swinburne's participation in the French literary scene Swinburne's friendships with women writers and the selections made for anthologies from the nineteenth century to the present Taken together the essays offer scholars a richer portrait of Swinburne's importance as a poet critic and fiction writer Border
