A Vertical Art Simon Armitage, 2022-05-24 From the UK Poet Laureate and bestselling translator a spirited book that demystifies and celebrates the art of poetry today In A Vertical Art acclaimed poet Simon Armitage takes a refreshingly common sense approach to an art form that can easily lend itself to grand statements and hollow gestures Questioning both the facile and obscure ends of the poetry spectrum he offers sparkling new insights about poetry and an array of favorite poets Based on Armitage's public lectures as Oxford Professor of Poetry A Vertical Art illuminates poets as varied as Emily Dickinson Walt Whitman Marianne Moore W H Auden Ted Hughes Thom Gunn A R Ammons and Claudia Rankine The chapters are often delightfully sassy in their treatment as in Like Elizabeth Bishop in which Armitage dissects and tallies the poet's predilection for similes. He discusses Bob Dylan's Nobel Prize poetic lists, poetry and the underworld and the dilemmas of translating Sir Gawain and the Green Knight. Armitage also pulls back the curtain on the unromantic realities of making a living as a contemporary poet and ends the book with his own list of Ninety Five Theses on the principles and practice of poetry. An appealingly personal book that explores the volatile and disputed definitions of poetry from the viewpoint of a practicing writer and dedicated reader. A Vertical Art makes an insightful and entertaining case for the power and potential of poetry today.

Selected Poems of Shmuel HaNagid Shmuel HaNagid, 2016-06-30 The first major poet of the Hebrew literary renaissance of Moslem Spain. Shmuel Ben Yosef Ha Levi HaNagid 993-1056 c.e. was also the Prime Minister of the Muslim state of Granada, battlefield commander of the non-Jewish Granadan army and one of the leading religious figures in a medieval Jewish world that stretched from Andalusia to Baghdad. Peter Cole's groundbreaking versions of HaNagid's poems capture the poet's combination of secular and religious passion as well as his inspired linking of Hebrew and Arabic poetic practice. This annotated Selected Poems is the most comprehensive collection of HaNagid's work published to date in English. The Multiple Troubles of Man The multiple troubles of man, my brother, like slander and pain, amaze you. Consider the heart which holds them all in strangeness and doesn't break. I'd suck bitter poison from the viper's mouth. I'd suck bitter poison from the viper's mouth and live by the basilisk's hole forever rather than suffer through evenings with boors fighting for crumbs from their table.

The Oxford Book of American Poetry David Lehman, 2006 Redefines the great canon of American poetry from its origins in the 17th century right up to the present.

The Portable Poetry Workshop Nigel McLoughlin, 2017-09-16 This book explores the art of poetry writing from a practice-based perspective, showing how form, trope, and theory inform the practical craft of writing poems. It is divided into three key sections: Form and structure covering sonnets, ballads, blank verse, and more; Trope and device, introducing topics such as irony, imagery, and voice; Poetics and practice, which discusses the writing of poets such as Robert Frost, Amy Lowell, and Frank O'Hara. Each chapter unpacks a particular concept or form, using examples to display it in practice. The book is filled with exercises to get you writing and hints and tips for effective re-writing and for avoiding common pitfalls. Written by published poets, many of whom teach writing or literature, The Portable Poetry Workshop will push you to explore beyond your creative writing boundaries.

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement: The Prison in Fact, Fiction, and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present, as well as non-penal situations described as confining or restrictive. These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons, just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time. Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial, particularly African literature, the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods Paperbacks in Print ,1975 The Problem of Consciousness in Modern Poetry Hugh

Underhill,1992-07-31 Modernist aesthetics have been identified with a sense of cultural crisis defined by its distance from an ideal of unified consciousness This original study examines the struggle toward that ideal of unitary subjective experience in modern British and Irish poetry from Hardy to Ted Hughes Hugh Underhill argues that the poetry's emphasis on inner states underrepresents the extent to which the crisis is in fact socio historically determined Twentieth-century Poetry Peter Verdonk,1993 This textbook based on extensive teaching experience makes new insights from linguistic and literary scholarship accessible to students in their daily practice of reading analysing and evaluating literary texts The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators Brill's Companion to

Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry, 2022-12-28 Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry explores the relations between antiquity and modernity from the angle of the reception of Graeco Roman antiquity in modern world poetry. In an innovative combination of the fields of Classical Reception and World Literature it tackles ever challenging questions which are central to both fields such as the questions of literature and identity, specificity and universality, Eurocentrism, poetics and translation. Leading experts from both Classics and Modern Languages contribute 11 chapters on modern poetry and poets from different linguistic and cultural traditions from around the world. Tears, Liquids and Porous Bodies in Literature Across the Ages Norbert Lennartz, 2021-08-26 Taking in works from writers as diverse as William Shakespeare, William Wordsworth, Charlotte Brontë, John Keats, James Joyce and D. H. Lawrence, this book spans approximately 300 years and unpacks how bodily liquidity, porosity and petrification recur as a pattern and underlie the chequered history of the body and genders in literature. Lennartz examines the precarious relationship between porosity and its opposite, closure, containment and stoniness and explores literary history as a meandering narrative in which female porosity and manly stoniness clash, showing how different societies and epochs respond to and engage with bodily porosity. This book considers the ways that this relationship is constantly renegotiated and where effusive and feminine genres such as sloppy letters and streams of consciousness are pitted against stony and astringent forms of masculinity like epitaphs, sonnets and the Bildungsroman. Sacred Sustainability, Polyhedral Christianity and Cosmic Challenges Jojo M. Fung, 2025-03-31 This book explores the concept of Polyhedral Christianity that has the capacity to embrace the inter multicultural religious complexities of our contemporary world, taking inspiration from Pope Francis' use of the image of a polyhedron. The author suggests that Polyhedral Christianity calls for an Enspirited Leadership. This spirit-driven leadership is grounded in creational pneumatology and cosmicism to promote resilient religiocultural communities that enjoy a more relational harmony of all life forms on Earth, conscious of an interdependent interconnected oneness in the sacred web of life in the cosmos creation. The chapters engage with indigenous notions of sacred sustainability from the primal as well as the Buddhist, Hindu and Islamic religious traditions. This innovative corpus will be of particular interest to the scholars of theology, theology of the people, World Christianity and interreligious relations. Writing America Keith Donohue, 2001-04 This edition of Writing America, published by the National Endowment for the Arts/NEA, features the work of 50 NEA Literature Fellowship winners, one from each state, who paint a vivid portrait of the U.S. in the last decades of the 20th century. They evoke the magnificent spectrum of people, places and experiences that define America. Their biographies and personal narratives are stories in and of themselves, revealing each writer's own unique path to fulfill the call to write. The selections, which include a mix of poetry and prose, serve as inspiration to emerging writers and provide a glimpse of the tremendous vitality and diversity of contemporary American literature. Writing America Katherine Wood (editor of Writing America), Virginia Cohen, 1999. The Reference Catalogue of Current Literature, Elementary English Review, 1924 SCC library
