Malcolm Lowry's Poetics of Space

Richard J. Lane, Miguel Mota, 2016-10-18 This collection focuses on Lowry's spatial dynamics from the psychogeography of the Letterist and the Situationist International through musical forms especially jazz cinema photography and spatial poetic writing to the spaces of exception bio politics and the creaturely It presents previously unpublished essays by both established and new international Lowry scholars as well as innovative ways of conceiving of his aesthetic practice In each of the book's three sections critics engage in the notion of Lowry as a multi media artist who influenced and was deeply influenced by a broad range of modernist and early postmodernist aesthetic practices Acutely aware of and engaged in the world of film sensitive to the role of the graphical surface in advertising and propaganda and deeply immersed in a vast range of literary traditions and the avant garde Lowry worked within an intertextual space that is also a mediascape one which tends to transgress or at least exceed neatly controlled borders or aesthetic boundaries These new approaches to

Lowry's life and work which make use of new and recent theoretical perspectives will encourage fresh debate around Lowry documented the history of the translation of Canadian fiction outside the nation remains obscure Les Belles trang res examines the translation of Canadian English language fiction in France This book considers the history of this practice the reasons for the move away from Quebec translators as well as the process and perils involved in this detour Within a theoretical framework and drawing on primary sources this study considers the historical theoretical and concrete aspects of this practice through the study of the translations of authors such as Robertson Davies Carol Shields Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ann Marie MacDonald and Alistair MacLeod The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of English language novels poetry and plays published and translated in France over the past 240 years

American and British Writers in Mexico, 1556-1973 Drewey Wayne Gunn, 2014-07-03 American and British Writers in Mexico is the study that laid the foundation upon which subsequent examinations of Mexico's impact upon American and British letters have built Chosen by the Mexican government to be placed in translation in its public libraries the book was also referenced by Nobel Laureate Octavio Paz in an article in the New Yorker Reflections Mexico and the United States Drewey Wayne Gunn demonstrates how Mexican experiences had a singular impact upon the development of English writers beginning with early British explorers who recorded their impressions for Hakluyt's Voyages through the American Beats who sought to escape the strictures of American culture Among the 140 or so writers considered are Stephen Crane Ambrose Bierce Langston Hughes D H Lawrence Somerset Maugham Katherine Anne Porter Hart Crane Malcolm Lowry John Steinbeck Graham Greene Tennessee Williams Saul Bellow William Carlos Williams Robert Lowell Ray Bradbury Allen Ginsberg William Burroughs and Jack Kerouac Gunn finds that while certain elements reflecting the Mexican experience colors landscape manners political atmosphere a sense of the alien are common in their writings the authors reveal less about Mexico than they do about themselves A Mexican sojourn often marked the beginning the end or the turning point in a literary career The insights that this pioneering study provide into our complex cultural relationship with Mexico so different from American and British authors encounters with Continental cultures remain vital The book is essential for anyone interested in understanding the full range of the impact of the expatriate experience on writers
