Selected Speeches Statements Of Genera:

Selected Speeches and Statements of the Quaid-i-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah, 1911-34 and 1947-48 Mahomed Ali Jinnah,1966 General George C. Marshall John T. Nelsen,1993 The study of strategic leadership as a formal analytical concept is relatively new Therefore concrete historical examples of leaders who have wrestled with the width and breadth of strategic level challenges are of inestimable value Marshall s contributions were no accident of history They resulted from the exercise of effective strategic leadership consciously and consistently applied across a broad spectrum of activities and interests This study analyzes the nature and effects of that leadership and captures the magnitude of Marshall s achievements as a strategic leader during what were frequently regarded as the unglamorous prewar years Maulana Azad, Selected Speeches & Statements, 1940-47 Abūlkalām Āzād,1990 Federal Records of World War II.: Military agencies National Archives (U.S.),1951 Oppenheim's International Law: United Nations Rosalyn Higgins,Philippa Webb,Dapo Akande,Sandesh Sivakumaran,James Sloan,2018-12-13 The United Nations whose specialized agencies were the subject of an Appendix to the 1958 edition of Oppenheim s International Law Peace has expanded beyond all recognition since its founding in 1945 This volume represents a study that is entirely new but prepared in the way that has become so familiar over succeeding editions of Oppenheim An authoritative and comprehensive study of the United Nations legal practice this volume covers the formal structures of the UN as it has expanded over the years and all that this complex organization does All substantive issues are addressed in separate sections including among others the responsibilities of the UN financing immunities human rights preventing armed conflicts and peacekeeping and judicial matters In examining the evolving structures and ever expanding work of the United Nations this volume follows the long held tradition of Oppenheim by presenting facts uncoloured by personal opinion in a succinct text that also offers in the footnotes a wealth of information and ideas to be explored It is book that while making all necessary reference to the Charter the Statute of the International Court of Justice and other legal instruments tells of the realities of the legal issues as they arise in the day to day practice of the United Nations Missions to the UN Ministries of Foreign Affairs practitioners of international law academics and students will all find this book to be vital in their understanding of the workings of the legal practice of the UN Research for this publication was made possible by The Balzan Prize which was awarded to Rosalyn Higgins in 2007 by the International Balzan Foundation Federal Records of World War II.: Military agencies United States. National Archives and Records Service,1951 Nobel Lectures in Peace Frederick W. Haberman,1999 <http://www.worldscientific.com/worldscibooks/10.1142/3741> Leadership Robert A. Fitton,2018-02-20 The thought provoking quotations presented here cover a broad spectrum of topics related to leadership The majority of authors represented are great statesmen philosophers or military leaders but also included are pertinent thoughts by corporate leaders scholars and writers International in scope the collection includes quotations from every period of history from ancient to contemporary times In this eminently browseable book the reader will find the quotations arranged in an accessible format Guided by a detailed table of contents and a unique index the reader can easily locate quotes either by topic or by author Robert Fitton has created a valuable and enjoyable reference work for anyone interested in the many facets of leadership The Select Speeches Daniel O'Connell,1871 A Commentary on Selected Speeches of Isaios Brenda Griffith-Williams,2013-09-30 In A Commentary on Selected Speeches of Isaios Brenda Griffith Williams offers a fresh insight accessible to non Greek readers into four disputed inheritance cases from the Athenian courts in the 4th century B C The only comprehensive English language commentary on Isaios Wyse 1904 reflects a negative view of the Athenian legal system as one in which the judges who had no legal training could be easily outwitted by an unscrupulous speechwriter with no regard for the truth By addressing the complex interplay of factual legal and rhetorical issues in the selected speeches Brenda Griffith Williams identifies the strengths and weaknesses of each speaker s case and presents a more balanced assessment of Isaios s work

Infantry Journal ,1946 Herbert Brownell, Jr., Attorney General of the United States, Petitioner Vs. Communist Party of the United States of America, Respondent; Report United States. Subversive Activities Control Board,1953 India, Nigeria, and the Congo Crisis, 1960-65 Raja Joyce Singh,2019-06-06 After the great devastation of the Second World War 51 world leaders established an international organization for the purpose of maintaining peace and security in the world by preventing escalation of conflicts promoting mutual cooperation and developing friendly relations among them called the United Nations UN Despite its noble aims and objectives the UN could not maintain total global peace because many sporadic individual skirmishes still took place among nations One such conflict began in the Congo during 1960s which later escalated into an international crisis and made the Big Powers take sides for a major showdown At this juncture to save the international organization the Non Aligned countries under the leadership of India and Nigeria came to the fore to support the UN in its efforts for peace keeping in the Congo and preventing the Super Powers from getting involved in this conflict All these details events of the crisis and the role of the Non Aligned nations towards its diffusion are discussed in this book

Testimony Taken: Testimony taken by the committee (June 2-Nov. 11, 1871) Alabama United States. Congress. Joint Select Committee on the Condition of Affairs in the Late Insurrectionary States, 1872 The Papers of George Catlett

Marshall George Catlett Marshall, 2016-05 The Papers of George Catlett Marshall comprise the eminent soldier and statesman's most noteworthy personal and official correspondence, speeches, congressional testimonies, and statements to the press. Each volume rewards readers with insight into the life and mind of a true American hero. These highly acclaimed works provide rich resources not only for scholars and students but also for anyone interested in twentieth-century American and world history, military operations, and the inner workings of politics and diplomacy.

V 1 Follows Marshall from childhood to his appointment as acting Chief of Staff of the US Army. It covers his education at the Virginia Military Institute and early service in France, China, and the Philippines, as well as his experiences as aide de camp to General John J. Pershing and as assistant commandant of the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia, where he mentored future leaders such as Omar Bradley, Matthew Ridgway, Joseph Stilwell, and Walter Bedell Smith.

V 2 Details Marshall's attempts to transform the United States military from obscurity into one of the greatest military forces in the world. This volume illuminates Marshall's rise to prominence as he faced challenges from both political parties and from within the army itself.

V 3 Examines Marshall's reorganization of the War Department as the United States officially entered World War II. Among the many changes he implemented, troop training, leadership, and morale remained some of Marshall's top priorities.

V 4 Highlights Marshall's unique ability to get opposing factions to work together as the war progressed and the tide began to turn towards the Allies, including the preparation and execution of Operation OVERLORD and the invasion of Normandy on D Day.

V 5 Highlights Marshall's unique ability to get opposing factions to work together as the war progressed and the tide began to turn towards the Allies, including the preparation and execution of Operation OVERLORD and the invasion of Normandy on D Day.

V 6 The penultimate volume of the Marshall Papers series details Marshall's involvement as secretary of state with the formal separation between the United States and its Soviet wartime ally and the ensuing beginnings of the cold war, civil wars in Greece and China, decolonization and independence of India, Pakistan, and Israel, and the emergence of major US policies such as the Truman Doctrine, containment, and the Marshall Plan. During this time, he played a pivotal role in the transformation of American foreign policy. Implementing the European Recovery Program and other US foreign policies required Marshall to attend numerous international conferences and Senate and House committee hearings, and to cultivate broad public support for the initiatives. His close relations with legislative leaders proved to be essential for securing extraordinary bipartisan congressional approval. This volume ends with Marshall's appointment as president of the American Red Cross.

This seventh and final volume of The Papers of George Catlett Marshall covers the compelling and celebratory occasions during the last ten years of Marshall's life. During this time he also served as president of the American Red Cross which he wrote necessitate travel of more than 30 000 miles and it seems to me 30 000 interview with never a question about the Red Cross. Despite the Korean War Marshall's strategic focus remained on Europe and with it the establishment of a NATO military commander under General Dwight D Eisenhower sending additional US divisions to that commando efforts to convince the French to accept German rearmament within NATO obtaining congressional approval for a major US military buildup that included his long desired universal military training program and proposing a large military Mutual Security Program for America's allies which involved expanded military aid to other areas of the world such as French Indochina. Marshall remained active and honored in retirement particularly in 1953 when he led the US delegation to the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II in June and won the Nobel Peace Prize in November the first professional soldier to receive the honor. He continued as head of the American Battle Monuments commission traveled extensively made numerous public addresses maintained an extensive correspondence with national and international leaders and participated in anniversaries marking the success of the Marshall Plan. He also agreed to the establishment of the George C Marshall Foundation to house his papers and participated in a series of oral histories with his authorized biographer Dr Forrest C Pogue. When he died on October 16 1959 George Catlett Marshall was hailed by many as the nation's greatest soldier statesman since George Washington. From the George C Marshall Foundation website
