The Law and Ethics of Lawyering Geoffrey C. Hazard, Susan P. Koniak, Roger C. Cramton, 1994 This extensive revision will update this innovative casebook throughout reporting the many important developments in the field since 1993 incorporating at many points an analysis of relevant provisions of the ALI Restatement of the Law Governing Lawyers Many segments of the book are substantially redone including the crime fraud exception to the attorney client privilege disclosure of client identity furtherance of client fraud on third persons or on a tribunal regulation of excessive fees role of the government lawyer responsibilities of the lawyer for a class form of practice restrictions regulation of multi state international practice choice of law in multi state practice      African Americans, Labor, and Society Patrick L. Mason, 2001 Over the past twenty five years union participation has declined among the nation as whole Coupled with increasing racial tensions cutbacks in public programs at the federal state and local levels and a shift in the distribution of wealth these changes have undermined the standard of living for American workers families especially African American families as they created greater wealth for the American elite African Americans Labor and Society examines these changes in particular their effects on the entire African American community and suggests a move toward a more egalitarian future This collection of essays written by legal scholars professional organizers and economists suggests integrating civil rights and labor laws to strengthen both anti discrimination and union organizing efforts The volume demonstrates the negative effects for union workers of arbitration agreements that undermine civil rights legislation in the workplace It also provides a detailed case study of the nature and extent of racial conflict within a major industrial union and analyzes and suggests policy changes that would increase the political and economic power of American workers as a whole while aggressively attacking racism in social economic and political institutions African Americans Labor and Society presents strategies for creating better opportunities for African Americans through private sector employment that will appeal to legal union and labor students and scholars as well as economists      The AALS Directory of Law Teachers ,2001      Professional Responsibility Standards, Rules & Statutes ,2009
