The Complete Short Novels of Anton Chekhov Anton Chekhov, 2004-08-03

Anton Chekhov widely hailed as the supreme master of the short story also wrote five works long enough to be called short novels here brought together in one volume for the first time in a masterly new translation by the award winning translators Richard

Pevear and Larissa Volokhonsky The Steppe the most lyrical of the five is an account of a nine year old boy s frightening journey by wagon train across the steppe of southern Russia The Duel sets two decadent figures a fanatical rationalist and a man of literary sensibility on a collision course that ends in a series of surprising reversals In The Story of an Unknown Man a political radical spying on an important official by serving as valet to his son gradually discovers that his own terminal illness has changed his long held priorities in startling ways Three Years recounts a complex series of ironies in the personal life of a rich but passive Moscow merchant In My Life a man renounces wealth and social position for a life of manual labor

The resulting conflict between the moral simplicity of his ideals and the complex realities of human nature culminates in a brief apocalyptic vision that is unique in Chekhov s work
