C. J. Dennis, a Comprehensive Bibliography Based on the Collection of the Compiler Ian Francis McLaren,1979 The Moods of Ginger Mick C. J. Dennis,2009 The Moods of Ginger Mick is a collection of poems about Ginger Mick the larrikin hero of Gallipoli On its release it was described by the Bulletin as finely patriotic and uniquely Australian It articulates the Anzac legend through the verses about Mick s feats in the Dardenelles and its values of courage mateship nationalism and sacrifice This new edition of The Moods of Ginger Mick with an introduction by Philip Butterss is a part of the Australian Classics Library series intended to make classic texts of Australian literature more widely available for the secondary school and undergraduate university classroom and to the general reader The series is co edited by Emeritus Professor Bruce Bennett of the University of New South Wales and Professor Robert Dixon Professor of Australian Literature at the University of Sydney in conjunction with SETIS Sydney University Press AustLit and the Copyright Agency Limited Each text is accompanied by a fresh scholarly introduction and a basic editorial apparatus drawn from the resources of AustLit

Manning Clark On Gallipoli Manning Clark,2016-03-22 Manning Clark s History of Australia has been nominated as the most influential work of non fiction Australia has produced As Donald Horne wrote Clark looked for great human issues and presented them as moral dramas In this extract from Volume 5 the tragedy of Gallipoli is played out against the broader Australian experience of World War I as the nation still in its infancy struggled to make sense of the terrible conflict in Europe and its costs Manning Clark On Gallipoli is the first title in the MUP Masterworks series which celebrates distinguished Australian writers and ideas This title s release coincides with the ninetieth anniversary commemorations of the landing at Gallipoli The Victorian Historical Magazine ,1960 From Fear to Hope: Alternative Australian

Narratives on War and Peacemaking Pamela Leach, 2018-07-10 This book scrutinises peace and war through Australian lenses It uncovers a deeper understanding of these terms and reflects a desire to bring to light alternative Australian ideas of war and peacemaking Certain stories have eclipsed others that add importantly to Australia's history This Quaker initiative considers a plurality of voices and the truths they purport It unpacks the act of memorialising to discover the marked impact we make in our efforts to hold on to meaning and to our past What have been the effects of our responses to the maxim Lest we forget The Periodical, 1920

Children's Literature and Culture of the First World War Lissa Paul, Rosemary R. Johnston, Emma Short, 2015-12-22 Because all wars in the twenty first century are potentially global wars the centenary of the first global war is the occasion for reflection This volume offers an unprecedented account of the lives stories letters games schools institutions such as the Boy Scouts and YMCA and toys of children in Europe North America and the Global South during the First World War and surrounding years By engaging with developments in Children's Literature War Studies and Education and mining newly available archival resources including letters written by children the contributors to this volume demonstrate how perceptions of childhood changed in the period Children who had been constructed as Romantic innocents playing safely in secure gardens were transformed into socially responsible children actively committing themselves to the war effort In order to foreground cross cultural connections across what had been perceived as enemy lines perspectives on German American British Australian and Canadian children's literature and culture are situated so that they work in conversation with each other The multidisciplinary multinational range of contributors to this volume make it distinctive and a particularly valuable contribution to emerging studies on the impact of war on the lives of children

Bullying in Schools and what to do about it Ken Rigby, 2007-09-01 Using up to date studies Bullying in Schools helps us to understand the nature of bullying and why it so often takes place in schools Importantly it examines and evaluates what schools can do to promote more positive peer relationships within the school community and take effective and sustainable action to deal with problems that may arise Teachers parents school leaders policy makers and health professionals will find it invaluable and empowering

Paper Tigers - Roaring Lions James Emlyn Griffiths, 2008-06-06 This is the story of two young men who joined the Hong Kong police force and after completing their training found themselves confronting rioters and demonstrators on the streets of the colony at the time that Chairman Mao Tsetung was inflicting socialism at first and then communism on China by way of the so called Red Guards who were a mix of students and peasants who were largely responsible for the purging and arrest of thousands of Doctors Lawyers Professional businessmen and the Bourgeoisie mostly peasant farmers While the characters portrayed are products of my imagination and bear no resemblance to any living person much of the storyline is based on facts of the Cultural Revolution as it effected Hong Kong from May 1967 thru February 1968 which I witnessed first hand

History Of Australia (Volumes 5 & 6) Manning Clark, 1999-09-13 Manning Clark's six volume history is one of the masterpieces of Australian writing It is also one of the most passionately debated visions of Australian history in which the struggle to realise an Australian nation is played out on an epic scale A History of Australia 1888 1945 covers Federation the Boer War and World War I s Gallipoli It finishes with the story of an emerging Australian identity at the point of its greatest trial the outbreak of World War II This is not a general Australian history it does not attempt to cover all aspects and it is not a definitive or quantitative analysis It is a work of art a living and breathing account of the remaking of a primitive continent history come alive Chinese in Australian Fiction, 1888-1988 ,
