The Visible Word Johanna Drucker, 1994 Drucker skillfully traces the development of this critical position suggesting a methodology closer to the actual practices of the early avant garde artists based on a rereading of their critical and theoretical writings After reviewing theories of signification the production of meaning and materiality she analyzes the work of four poets active in the typographic experimentation of the 1910s and 1920s Ilia Zdanevich Filippo Marinetti Guillaume Apollinaire and Tristan Tzara Drucker explores the context for experimental typography in terms of printing handwriting and other practices concerned with the visual representation of language Her book concludes with a brief look at the ways in which experimental techniques of the early avant garde were transformed in both literary work and in applications to commercial design throughout the 1920s and early 1930s   Selected Writings Guillaume Apollinaire, 1950   Reading Apollinaire's Alcools Willard Bohn, 2016-10-27 Reviewing the previous scholarship for seventeen of the most important poems in Alcools this book provides a detailed analysis of each work and includes a state of the art survey of current Apollinaire criticism Besides acquainting readers with the existing scholarship the book considers all the interpretations that have been proposed and indicates profitable directions to pursue Each poem is subjected to a rigorous line by line analysis that engages in a succession of dialogues with previous critics The studies themselves are arranged in roughly chronological order beginning with the Rh nanes in 1901 1902 and concluding with Zone in 1912 Although each chapter is basically conceived as an independent unit readers are able to follow the evolution of Apollinaire's aesthetics from his first mature creations through his subsequent experiments with fantastic hermetic visionary and cubist poetry At the same time they witness Apollinaire's personal evolution from his infatuation with Annie Playden through a period of deep depression his love affair with Marie Laurencin and the aftermath of that relationship   Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974   The Cambridge Companion to American Poets Mark Richardson, 2015-10-15 This Companion brings together essays on some fifty four American poets from Anne Bradstreet to contemporary performance poetry This book also examines such movements in American poetry as modernism the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance

Apollinaire's Calligrammes Willard Bohn, 2018-01-25 Reading Apollinaire's Calligrammes examines Guillaume Apollinaire's second major collection of poetry Composed between 1913 and 1918 the nineteen poems examined here fall into two main groups the experimental poetry and the war poetry They also provide glimpses of the poet's personal history from his affair with Louise de Coligny Châtillon to his engagement to Madeleine Pagès and his marriage with Jacqueline Kolb Each section examines all of the previous scholarship for the work in question provides a detailed analysis and in many cases offers a new interpretation Each poem is subjected to a meticulous line by line analysis in the light of current knowledge      Music, Language and Identity in Greece Polina Tambakaki, Panos Vlagopoulos, Katerina Levidou, Roderick Beaton, 2019-09-23 The national element in music has been the subject of important studies yet the scholarly framework has remained restricted almost exclusively to the field of music studies This volume brings together experts from different fields musicology literary theory and modern Greek studies who investigate the links that connect music language and national identity focusing on the Greek paradigm Through the study of the Greek case the book paves the way for innovative interdisciplinary approaches to the formation of the national in different cultures shedding new light on ideologies and mechanisms of cultural policies

The Screen in Surrealist Art and Thought Haim Finkelstein, 2017-07-05 An interrogation of the notion of space in Surrealist theory and philosophy this study analyzes the manifestations of space in the paintings and writings done in the framework of the Surrealist Movement Haim Finkelstein introduces the screen as an important spatial paradigm that clarifies and extends the understanding of Surrealism as it unfolds in the 1920s exploring the screen and layered depth as fundamental structuring principles associated with the representation of the mental space and of the internal processes that eventually came to be linked with the Surrealist concept of psychic automatism Extending the discussion of the concepts at stake for Surrealist visual art into the context of film literature and criticism this study sheds new light on the way film thinking permeates Surrealist thought and aesthetics In early chapters Finkelstein looks at the concept of the screen as emblematic of a strand of spatial apprehension that informs the work of young writers in the 1920s such as Robert Desnos and Louis Aragon He goes on to explore the way the spatial character of the serial films of Louis Feuillade intimated to the Surrealists a related mode of vision associated with perception of the mystery and the Marvelous lurking behind the surfaces of quotidian reality The dialectics informing Surrealist thought with regard to the surfaces of the real with walls doors and windows as controlling images are shown to be at the basis of André Breton's notion of the picture as a window Contrary to the traditional sense of this metaphor Breton's window is informed by the screen paradigm with its surface serving as a locus of a dialectics of transparency and opacity permeability and reflectivity The main aesthetic and conceptual issues that come up in the consideration of Breton's window metaphor lay the groundwork for an analysis of the work of Giorgio de Chirico Renée Magritte Max Ernst André Breton and Joan Miró the concluding chapter considers      Cinema by Other Means Pavle Levi, 2012-05-31

The French Genealogy of the Beat Generation Véronique

Lane, 2017-10-19 The Francophilia of the Beat circle in the New York of the mid 1940s is well known as is the importance of the Beat Hotel in the Paris of the late 1950s and early 1960s but how exactly did French literature and culture participate in the emergence of the Beat Generation French modernism did much more than inspire its first major writers it materially shaped their works as this comparative study reveals through close textual analysis of William Burroughs Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac's appropriations of French literature and culture Sometimes acknowledged sometimes not their appropriations take multiple forms ranging from allusions invocations and citations to adaptations and translations and they involve a vast array of works including the poetic realist films of Carné and Cocteau the existentialist philosophy of Sartre and the poems and novels of Baudelaire Rimbaud Proust Gide Apollinaire St John Perse Artaud Celine Genet and Michaux While clarifying the extent of Burroughs Ginsberg and Kerouac's engagements with French literature and culture in depth analysis of their textual appropriations emphasises differences in their views of literature philosophy and politics which help us understand the early Beat circle was divided from the start The book's close readings also transform our perception of Burroughs cut up practice Kerouac's spontaneous prose and Ginsberg's poetics of open secrecy
