Humanism, Venice, and

Women Margaret L. King, 2023-05-31 Originally published between 1975 and 2003 the essays included in Humanism Venice and Women reflect Margaret L. King's distinct but interlocking scholarly interests: humanism and Venice, women and humanism, and women of the Italian Renaissance. The first part focuses on defining the key characteristics of Venetian humanism as opposed to other Italian humanisms, with an analysis of Gramscian theory about the historical role of intellectuals as an aid to understanding humanism in Venice, followed by essays on three Venetian humanists who wrote about family relationships or the need to avoid them. The third section introduces the major Renaissance women humanists and analyzes the relation of their work to that of male humanists, along with an essay on Renaissance mothers of sons in Italy and beyond. Crossing boundaries of region and gender and the subdisciplines of intellectual and social history, these essays are provocative in themselves while demonstrating how shifting historiographical contexts encourage scholars to view the historical record in new and fruitful ways.

French Women Poets of Nine Centuries Norman R. Shapiro, 2008-09-22 Original texts and translations are presented on facing pages, allowing readers to appreciate the vigor and variety of the French and the fidelity of the English versions. Divided into three chronological sections spanning the Middle Ages through the sixteenth century, the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, and the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, the volume includes introductory essays by noted scholars of each era's poetry, along with biographical sketches and bibliographical references for each poet.

JACKET Women's History in Global Perspective Bonnie G. Smith, 2004 The American Historical Association's Committee on Women Historians commissioned some of the pioneering figures in women's history to prepare essays in their respective areas of expertise. This volume, the second in a series of three, collects their efforts. As a counterpoint to the broad themes discussed in the first volume, Volume 2 is concerned with issues that have shaped the history of women in particular places and during particular eras. It examines women in ancient civilizations, including women in China, Japan, and Korea; women and gender in South and South East Asia; Medieval women; women and gender in Colonial Latin America; and the history of women in the US to 1865. Authors included are Sarah Hughes and Brady Hughes, Susan Mann, Barbara N. Ramusack, Judith M. Bennett, Ann Twinam, and Kathleen Brown. Incorporating essays from top scholars ranging over an abundance of regions, dates, and methodologies, the three volumes of Women's History in Global Perspective constitute an invaluable resource for anyone interested in a comprehensive overview on the latest in feminist scholarship.

The Making of Juana of Austria Noelia García Pérez, 2021-12-08 Edited by art historian Noelia García Pérez, this first-ever collection of essays on Juana of Austria, the younger daughter of Holy Roman Emperor Charles V and sister to Philip II of Spain, offers an interdisciplinary study of the Habsburg princess that addresses her political, religious, and artistic dimensions. The volume's contextual framework shows her sharing agency with other women of her dynastic family who governed in the sixteenth century and developed an outstanding reputation for promoting artists and works of art. The Making of Juana of Austria demonstrates how Juana's role as a leading patron of the arts offered her a means of creating her own image, which she then promulgated through the objects she collected and her crowning architectural endeavor the Monastery Palace of the Descalzas Reales Drawing on early modern literature archival documents and artworks the essays in this volume delineate a new portrait of Juana of Austria Contributors not only highlight her multiple facets princess of Portugal regent of Castile and the only female Jesuit in history but also show her as a discerning art patron and collector who pursued an active role of patronage through which she constructed her own art collection and used it to articulate a visual statement of her lineage power and religious convictions Her role as an art promoter culminated with the foundation of the Descalzas Reales and the works of art she collected and displayed within its walls The Making of Juana of Austria offers a new perspective on female rule and patronage exploring the achievements of a crucial figure in the history of art court and gender in early modern Europe

Blurred Boundaries and Deceptive Dichotomies in Pre-Modern Texts and Images Dafna Nissim, Vered Tohar, 2023-12-18 This collection of essays focuses on the way blurred boundaries are represented in pre modern texts and visual art and how they were received and perceived by their audiences readers listeners and viewers According to the current understanding that opposing cognitive categories that are so common in modern thinking do not apply to pre modern mentalities we argue that individuals in medieval and pre modern societies did not necessarily consider sacred and secular male and female real and fictional and opposing emotions as absolute dichotomies The contributors to the present collection examine a wide range of cultural artifacts literary texts wall paintings sculptures jewelry manuscript illustrations and various objects as to what they reflect regarding the dominant perceptual system the network of beliefs worldviews presumptions values and norms of viewing reading hearing different from modern epistemology strongly predicated on the binary nature of things and people The essays suggest that analyzing pre modern cultural works of art or literature in light of reception theory can lead to a better understanding of how those cultural products influenced individuals and impacted their thoughts and actions

Feminist Circulations Jessica Enoch, Karen Nelson, 2021-06-04 The scholars in FEMINIST CIRCULATIONS RHETORICAL EXPLORATIONS ACROSS SPACE AND TIME work at the nexus of gender power and movement to explore the rhetorical nature of circulation especially considering how women from varying backgrounds and their rhetorics have moved and have been constrained across both space and time Among the central characters studied in this collection are early modern laborers letter writers petitioners and embroiderers African American elocutionists freedom singers and bloggers Muslim religious leaders Quaker suffragists South African filmmakers nineteenth century conduct book writers and twenty first century pop stars To generate their claims contributors draw from and make use of a breadth of archival and primary documents music videos tweets petitions letters embroidery work speeches memoirs diaries and made for television movies Authors read these texts with scrutiny and imagination adding distinction to their chapters arguments about circulation by zeroing in on specific rhetorical concepts that span from rhetorical agency cultivation of ethos and development of rhetorical education to capacities for social networking collective and collaborative authorship and kairotic interventions Contributors
