A Selection of Latin Inscriptions R. H. Barrow, 1968      A Selection of Latin Inscriptions Reginald Haynes Barrow, 1934      Latin Inscriptions in the Kelsey Museum Steven Tuck, 2010-03-23 The Latin inscriptions in the Kelsey Museum are among the best primary sources we have for documenting the lives of the lower classes in the Roman world They provide unique evidence of the details of Roman daily life including beliefs occupations families and attitudes toward death The 400 entries in this volume include all of the Latin inscriptions on stone or metal in the Kelsey Museum of Archaeology at the University of Michigan they represent the largest and arguably the most important collection of Latin inscriptions in the Western Hemisphere The collection is notable not just for its size but for the fact that almost all the inscriptions were acquired by purchase for their scholarly and educational value to the members of the university community Because of this the collection is also an important testimony to a seminal phase in the development of the study of Classics at the University of Michigan For the first time ever this project makes the Latin inscriptions of the Kelsey available in one volume and has provided an opportunity to reexamine some texts that have not been edited in over a century The commentaries for this edition have benefited from a wealth of recent scholarship resulting in some amended readings and reidentification of texts Steven L Tuck is Assistant Professor of Classics at Miami University of Ohio The Kelsey Museum Studies series edited by University of Michigan professors Elaine Gazda Margaret Cool Root and John Pedley is designed to publish unusual material in the Museum s collections together with reports of current and past archaeological expeditions sponsored by the University of Michigan      Musa Lapidaria Edward Courtney, 1995      The Cambridge Manual of Latin Epigraphy Alison Cooley, 2012-09-13 This book explores how Latin inscriptions were used in the Roman world and makes them accessible to students today      Illustrated Introduction to Latin Epigraphy Arthur E.
