ADRIAAN VAN DER WEEL [EDS.]

A Selection of the Poems of
Sir Constantijn
Huygens
(1596–1687)

REVISED EDITION

Selection Of The Poetry Of Sir Constantijn Huygens 15961687:

The Dutch Republic in the Seventeenth Century Maarten Prak, 2023-01-19 Rembrandt Hals and Vermeer are still household names even though they died over three hundred years ago In their lifetimes they witnessed the extraordinary consolidation of the newly independent Dutch Republic and its emergence as one of the richest nations on earth As one contemporary wrote in 1673 the Dutch were the envy of some the fear of others and the wonder of all their neighbours During the Dutch Golden Age the arts blossomed and the country became a haven of religious tolerance However despite being self proclaimed champions of freedom the Dutch conquered communities in America Africa and Asia and were heavily involved in both slavery and the slave trade on three continents This substantially revised second edition of the leading textbook on the Dutch Republic includes a new chapter exploring slavery and its legacy as well as a new chapter on language and literature

The Cambridge Companion to the Dutch Golden Age Helmer J. Helmers, Geert H. Janssen, 2018-08-23 An accessible introduction to the political economic literary and artistic heritage of the Dutch Republic in the seventeenth century

Literature without Frontiers Cornelis van der Haven, Youri Desplenter, J.A. Parente Jr., Jan Bloemendal, 2023-07-31 This volume explores the indispensability of a transnational perspective for the construction and writing of literary histories of the Low Countries from 1200 1800 It looks at the role of mediators such as translators printers and editors at characteristics of literary genres and the possibilities they offered for literary boundary crossing and adaptation and at the role of regions and urban centers as multilingual hubs This collection demonstrates the centrality of transnational perspectives for elucidating the complex inter relationship between Netherlandic and European literary history The Low Countries were a dynamic site for new literary production and transnational exchange that shaped and reshaped the intellectual landscape of premodern Europe Contributors include Lia van Gemert Lucas van der Deijl Feike Dietz Paul Wackers David Napolitano James A Parente Jr Frank Willaert Youri Desplenter Bart Besamusca Frans R E Blom and Jan Bloemendal

A History of European Literature Walter Cohen, 2017-01-19 Walter Cohen argues that the history of European literature and each of its standard periods can be illuminated by comparative consideration of the different literary languages within Europe and by the ties of European literature to world literature World literature is marked by recurrent systematic features outcomes of the way that language and literature are at once the products of major change and its agents Cohen tracks these features from ancient times to the present distinguishing five main overlapping stages Within that framework he shows that European literatures ongoing internal and external relationships are most visible at the level of form rather than of thematic statement or mimetic representation European literature emerges from world literature before the birth of Europe during antiquity whose Classical languages are the heirs to the complex heritage of Afro Eurasia This legacy is later transmitted by Latin to the various vernaculars The uniqueness of the process lies in the gradual displacement of the learned language by the vernacular long dominated by Romance literatures That development subsequently informs the second crucial differentiating dimension of European literature the multicontinental expansion of its languages and characteristic genres especially the novel beginning in the Renaissance This expansion ultimately results in the reintegration of European literature into world literature and thus in the creation of today's global literary system The distinctiveness of European literature is to be found in these interrelated trajectories Relics, dreams, voyages Peter Davidson, 2024-07-30 Relics dreams voyages is a closely focused sequence of studies of worldwide connections in all the arts in the baroque period Drawing on original research in libraries collections and archives in five countries and in as many languages this book draws many astonishing unfamiliar and beautiful texts things and events into a cartography of the secret and strange patterns of baroque cultures worldwide The visual arts are examined across a wide temporal and geographical span and many subversive iconographies are decoded at the French and English courts in remote Scotland in Nagasaki in Valladolid This book offers a new extraordinary cultural geography of the baroque world opening doors to many rich and strange cultural artefacts from China to Peru Humanistica Lovaniensia Jozef Ijsewijn, 1997-02-15 Volume 46 A selection of the poems of Sir Constantijn Huygens (1596-1687) Adriaan van der Weel, Peter Davidson, 2015-07-21 Dutch Golden Age poet Constantijn Huygens 1596 1687 was a remarkable figure in addition to writing poetry he composed music was secretary to two Princes of Orange Frederick Henry and William II and became a friend to John Donne Rembrandt Descartes and many other notable people of his time In this book Peter Davidson and Adriaan van der Weel offer a broad selection of Huygens's poems and provide excellent translations for those written in Dutch Latin and a number of other languages revealing both Huygens's literary talent and his remarkable linguistic range A Selection of the Poems of Sir Constantijn Huygens (1596-1687) Constantijn Huygens, 1996 Constantijn Huygens 1596 1687 was one of the Dutch nation's principal contributions to the transformation of European culture in the early modern period As a poet diplomat scholar and statesman he had far reaching influence on the cultural scholarly and political life of his time This collection introduces Huygens's poetry to English speaking readers and presents a literary counterpart to the much better known visual arts of the Dutch Golden Age The poems have been selected to demonstrate the breadth of his interests his pivotal role in European culture and his mastery of a variety of literary genres and styles As a poet Huygens wrote not only in his native Dutch but also in Latin French Italian German and English and he made translations from these and other languages All poems are presented in both Dutch or Latin and English the translations facing the original and are provided with headnotes The concise biographical and cultural introduction the three extensive appendices and the bibliography and index will present ample suggestions for further investigation of the many areas of possible interest presented in the book such as architecture garden design painting music science and politics BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved English Manuscript Studies, 1100-1700, 2002 English Manuscript Studies, 1100-1700 Peter Beal, Jeremy Griffiths, 2002 The Century Dictionary and Cyclopaedia: The Century cyclopedia of names ... ed. by Benjamin
