Weaver,2002-10-17 Self love is an inescapable problem for ethics yet much of contemporary ethics is reluctant to offer any normative moral anthropologies Instead secular ethics and contemporary culture promote a norm of self realization which is subjective and uncritical Christian ethics also fails to address this problem directly because it tends to investigate self love within the context of conflicts between the self s interests and those of her neighbors Self Love and Christian Ethics argues for right self love as the solution of proper self relation that intersects with love for God and love for neighbor Darlene Fozard Weaver explains that right self love entails a true self understanding that is embodied in the person s concrete acts and relations In making this argument she calls upon ethicists to revisit ontological accounts of the self and to devote more attention to particular moral acts The Sum of All Possibilities in Christ J.F. Christians, Beware! Magna Parks, 2007 Several years ago I happened to come across a sermon by a pastor who delineated several spiritual dangers inherent in the field of psychology Initially I was not happy about what I read in this sermon because the writer attacked most if not all that I had been taught as a psychologist But as the Holy Spirit worked on my heart and led me to further study this issue I finally had to admit that there are many concepts in secular psychology that are in direct conflict with the Word of God What an eye opening experience it was for me Dear reader as you go through this book it is my prayer that you will allow your mind to be opened to the information that will be shared It is my hope that we as individuals will learn that we can turn to God for help with every problem that comes our way It is also my desire that on a corporate level we will realize that God's Word contains all that we need to have a flourishing vibrant church All things are possible with God Magna Parks Ph D Encyclopedia of Christianity in the United States George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Gospel-Centered Idolatry R L Coursey, 2022-10-18 Thomas Chalmers in his classic sermon entitled The Expulsive Power of a New Affection correctly ascribes subjective power to subjective affections for love does have an expulsive power whether one loves God to the despising of self or loves self to the despising of God But he incorrectly sides with objective justification full pardon and gracious acceptance as the power that creates love and the engine that empowers sanctification He is right to suggest that a new affection has expulsive power but wrong to suggest that the source and power of a new affection is primarily in the indicative benefits Jonathan Edwards on the other hand sided with regeneration for the obvious reason that without a new nature the natural man can only be constrained by outside considerations the indicatives to superficially walk in newness of life the imperatives Such considerations might produce change that rises as high as the outward performance of the Legalist but it is still only the superficial height that self love alone can achieve The Spirit s work of illuminating the higher glory and beauty of Christ to the soul is the only source of an affection that can be called new If the expulsive power of a new affection does not dethrone self as one s primary concern in life and theology then what exactly is being expelled by the power of the gospel If one s religion does not surpass one s primary concern for what s in it for oneself then one s self love may have an expulsive power but it will be the light of the glory of God in the face of Christ Jesus that is expelled by the power of self love The irony of the cross was that Christ was crucified by those who already had a knowledge of God s steadfast love and rejoiced in spiritual privileges The proper force and source behind the believer s love for God is not found in the objective benefits as they reflect upon the believer s high privileges but God s power alone as it is exerted in the soul by the Spirit imparting a new heart new affections and a new principle of action that did not exist prior Good fruit is produced only by a good tree and however constrained by outside forces a bad tree cannot be manipulated to produce fruit contrary to its nature

The New Faces of Christianity Philip Jenkins, 2006-09-01 Named one of the top religion books of 2002 by USA Today Philip Jenkins s phenomenally successful The Next Christendom permanently changed the way people think about the future of Christianity In that volume Jenkins called the world s attention to the little noticed fact that Christianity s center of gravity was moving inexorably southward to the point that Africa may soon be home to the world s largest Christian populations Now in this brilliant sequel Jenkins takes a much closer look at Christianity in the global South revealing what it is like and what it means for the future The faith of the South Jenkins finds is first and foremost a biblical faith Indeed in the global South many Christians identify powerfully with the world portrayed in the New Testament an agricultural world very much like their own marked by famine and plague poverty and exile until very recently a society of peasants farmers and small craftsmen In the global South as in the biblical world belief in spirits and witchcraft are commonplace and in many places such as Nigeria Indonesia and Sudan Christians are persecuted just as early Christians were Thus the Bible speaks to the global South with a vividness and authenticity simply unavailable to most believers in the industrialized North More important Jenkins shows that throughout the global South believers are reading the Bible with fresh eyes and coming away with new and sometimes startling interpretations Some of their conclusions are distinctly fundamentalist but Jenkins finds an intriguing paradox for they are also finding ideas in the Bible that are socially liberating especially with respect to women s rights Across Africa Asia and Latin America such Christians are social activists in the forefront of a wide range of liberation movements It s hard to overstate how interesting how eye opening how frequently surprising and sometimes disturbing Jenkins findings are Anyone interested in the implications of these trends for the major denominations for Muslim Christian conflict and for global politics will find The New Faces of Christianity provocative and incisive and indispensable Spirituality in Transition James J. Bacik, 1996 Spirituality in Transition surveys the landscape of a culturally technologically and globally changing world suggesting an authentic contemporary spirituality that deals effectively with these paradigm shifts Ideal material for groups
