Metaphor, Riddles, and the Origin of Language Marcel Danesi, 2024-04-08 Scientific evidence for the origin of speech is abundant but evidence for the origin of language as separate from speech as a naming system remains speculative What evidence can be utilized that will furnish relevant insights on the origin of language This book attempts to provide an answer by suggesting that the first riddles of humanity along with the first myths reveal that language may have emerged as a mode of reflection via metaphor a mode that involves blending speech forms together to produce complex abstract cognition

Reframing Pilgrimage Simon Coleman, John Eade, 2004-08-02 Reframing Pilgrimage argues that sacred travel is just one of the twenty-first century's many forms of cultural mobility The contributors consider the meanings of pilgrimage in Christian Mormon Hindu Islamic and Sufi traditions as well as in secular contexts and they create a new theory of pilgrimage as a form of voluntary displacement This voluntary displacement helps to constitute cultural meaning in a world constantly en route Pilgrimage which works both on global economic and individual levels is recognised as a highly creative and politically charged force intimately bound up in economic and cultural systems

The Discursive Construction of Migrant Identities Charlotte Taylor, Simon Goodman, Stuart Dunmore, 2025-01-23 This edited volume explores how migrant identities are created and constructed in discourse both by migrants themselves and by others The contributors reveal how migrant identities are discursively constructed by those with lived experiences of mobility and those who view themselves as part of the host population This dual focus responds to a lack of previous research examining migration representation from both perspectives Readers will discover how the discursive constructions of migrant identities in different domains relate to one another The case studies include a broad range of text types from film government documents and narrative accounts to newspapers and Twitter They also cover a wide range of contexts including Argentina Australia Italy Romania and UK making this a more comprehensive account of the framing of migration than has been previously accomplished The chapters all follow the same structure to help the reader learn how to investigate migration discourses using qualitative and quantitative critical discourse analytic approaches

Sense of Place and Sense of Planet Ursula K. Heise, 2008-09-29 Sense of Place and Sense of Planet analyzes the relationship between the imagination of the global and the ethical commitment to the local in environmentalist thought and writing from the 1960s to the present Part One critically examines the emphasis on local identities and communities in North American environmentalism by establishing conceptual connections between environmentalism and ecocriticism on one hand and theories of globalization transnationalism and cosmopolitanism on the other It proposes the concept of eco cosmopolitanism as a shorthand for envisioning these connections and the cultural and aesthetic forms into which they translate Part Two focuses on conceptualizations of environmental danger and connects environmentalist and ecocritical thought with the interdisciplinary field of risk theory in the social sciences arguing that environmental justice theory and ecocriticism stand to benefit from closer consideration of the theories of cosmopolitanism that have arisen in this field from the analysis of transnational communities at risk Both parts of the book combine in depth theoretical discussion with detailed analyses of novels poems films computer software and installation artworks from the US and abroad that translate new connections between global national and local forms of awareness into innovative aesthetic forms combining allegory epic and views of the planet as a whole with modernist and postmodernist strategies of fragmentation montage collage and zooming The Curious History of Mazes Julie E.
