Today teens face tough challenges due to the reality distortion of social media and the lack of true interpersonal relationships. The battlefield is in your mind and you're not properly equipped for the fight. In The Self Esteem Workbook for Teens Megan Dutton presents innovative, detailed and compassionate methods that will help you identify the causes of your low self esteem and develop a more positive outlook on life. You feel the way you think. Negative feelings like guilt, anger and depression do not result from the bad things that happen to you but from the way in which you think about these events. This simple but revolutionary idea can change your life. Self confidence begins with knowing yourself. From facing fears to practicing acceptance and self compassion. The Self Confidence Workbook offers practical and accessible strategies to get to know your best self and see results in the real world. Practical exercises. Discover yourself with personality quizzes, self esteem checklists and more in a workbook that doesn't feel like work. A guide to understanding self confidence. Explains to you what it means to be confident and determines your level of self confidence as a starting reference. Practical problem solving. Find ways to work through the challenges you're facing including fighting with your parents, getting up in the morning, struggling with homework and much more. Being a teen in today's world is hard and no one knows that more than you. But if you are ready to stop comparing yourself to others, silence your inner critic and build authentic, lasting self confidence, you can change the way you feel. You will discover why you get depressed and learn how to brighten your outlook when you're in a slump. This book is your go to guide.
