Self Management And The Crisis Of Socialism:

Self-management and the Crisis of Socialism Michael Wayne Howard, 2000 While some conclude from the revolutions of 1989 that socialism is dead interest in socialism continues because of persisting problems of contemporary capitalism In this exciting text Michael W Howard offers critiques of liberal communitarian postmodern and some Marxist perspectives in order to develop a left liberal defense of a model of self managed market socialism that includes a basic income for all Specific applications of his view include analyses of its implications for the global marketplace the changing nature of workplaces and media restructuring and ownership This work is sure to be of interest to social scientists public policy makers and economists as well as to feminists ecologists and others concerned with how market socialism is relevant to their social issues

Culture, Society, Economy Don Robotham, 2005-03-23 Robotham offers here a clear headed expos of the limits of classical liberalism in the face of world production today His theme is both urgent and iconoclastic There is an unusual clarity about the exposition and a drive that comes from passionate engagement combined with long experience reading and reflection Keith Hart Goldsmiths College London In Culture Society and Economy Don Robotham examines the failure of recent social theory to grasp the problems of globalization and the emergence of corporate monopoly capital and sets out his own argument for a radical solution He argues that the neglect of economics by both cultural studies and social theory has weakened the ability to develop viable alternatives to present day capitalist globalization With deep awareness of and reference to current events and contemporary trends the author presents a detailed critique of cultural studies in particular Stuart Hall and Paul Gilroy Giddens theory of risk society Scott Lash and John Urry s economies of signs and space Manuel Castells theory of network society The final chapters make a unique argument that the solution to the problems of globalization lies in more globalization rather than adopting an anti globalization or localization position Don Robotham proposes more effective centralized institutions for governing the world economy in other words world government

Economic Justice and Democracy Robin Hahnel, 2013-05-13 In Economic Justice and Democracy Robin Hahnel puts aside most economic theories from the left and the right from central planning to unbridled corporate enterprise as undemocratic and instead outlines a plan for restructuring the relationship between markets and governments according to effects rather than contributions This idea is simple provocative and turns most arguments on their heads those most affected by a decision get to make it It s uncomplicated unquestionably American in its freedom reinforcement and essentially what anti globalization protestors are asking for Companies would be more accountable to their consumers polluters to nearby homeowners would be factory closers to factory town inhabitants Sometimes what s good for General Motors is bad for America which is why we have regulations in the first place Though participatory economics as Robert Heilbroner termed has been discussed more outside America than in it Hahnel has followed discussions elsewhere and also presents many of the arguments for and against this system and ways to put it in place Markets, Planning, and Democracy David L. Prychitko, 2002-01-01 Markets planning and democracy essays after the collapse of communism edited by David L Prychitko The State, Identity and Violence R. Brian Ferguson, 2003-09-02 In this book a collection of experts investigate the varied forces from global systems to local beliefs that lead to civil violence chaos and perhaps a new political order The State Identity and Violence explores acts of mass violence occurring within national borders and examines the links such acts have to personal identities and how they challenge the character or very existence of the state Building upon the anthropological premises of holism and cross cultural comparison this volume shows how violent challenges to existing states should be conceptualized as layered problems with multiple kinds of causes It not only goes beyond the ancient hatreds explanation but shows the inadequacy of the concept of ethnic violence and of theories which treat interests and identities as separate sometimes opposed variables Humanity & Society ,2004 Problems of Communism ,1985 Self-Management in Yugoslavia and the Developing World Ukandi G Damachi, Hans D Seibel, 1982-07-29

Yugoslavia In The 1980s Sabrina Ramet, 2019-03-15 The opening years of 1980 were difficult for Yugoslavia Open revolt has occurred in Kosovo province and economic hardship has added to a general crisis of confidence The system of self management once the pride of Yugoslav ideologists has come increasingly under fire in post Tito Yugoslavia as proponents of the system search for a new basis of Regional Development In Communist Yugoslavia Dijana Plestina, 2019-07-11 The brutal war now raging in what was Yugoslavia the author argues is fueled not merely by interethnic hatred but also by longstanding disparities in economic well being among republics and regions The Communist leadership having stated its intention when it took power to eliminate economic disparities nonetheless failed to confront the conflict of interests that distorted the country s economic policy and thus never worked out a coherent strategy for regional development Interregional tensions were inflamed by the failure to close the gap between wealthy and poor areas directly contributing to the breakup of the country Basing her argument on longitudinal data and on in depth interviews with Yugoslav leaders at federal and regional levels Milovan Djilas Svetozar Vukmanovic Tempo Bosko Gluscevic Hasan Zolic and several dozen others Dijana Ple tina examines and assesses the economic inequalities as well as the effects that the leadership s regional policies had on them She shows that despite the mandate for equalization that was part of socialist doctrine Yugoslav leaders were at first unwilling and later unable to formulate policies that would enhance the economic well being of the poorest regions Instead they adopted a strategy of top down growth which enhanced the further development of the wealthier regions Later partially in an effort to placate the disadvantaged they shifted funds to some of the less developed regions Rather than promoting equality such ad hoc solutions fostered competition for scarce resources and intensified political cleavages Ple tina also looks at how the devolution of decisionmaking from central to regional levels designed to increase government legitimacy and efficiency actually provided an opportunity for regional leaders to build independent power bases This trend in conjunction with the economic slump of the 1980s further eroded the unity of the federation Workers' Participation

And Self-management In Developing Countries Janez Prasnikar, 2019-04-25 Drawing on his background as an economist and a specialist on the Yugoslav system of workers self management Janez Prasnikar analyzes an extraordinary amount of dispersed information on the experience with workers participation in thirteen developing countries From Solidarity to Sellout Tadeusz Kowalik, 2012 In the 1980s and 90s renowned Polish economist Tadeusz Kowalik played a leading role in the Solidarity movement struggling alongside workers for an alternative to really existing socialism that was cooperative and controlled by the workers themselves In the ensuing two decades really existing socialism has collapsed capitalism has been restored and Poland is now among the most unequal countries in the world Kowalik asks how could this happen in a country that once had the largest and most militant labor movement in Europe This book takes readers inside the debates within Solidar Envisioning the Good Life Matthew Croasmun, Zoran Grozdanov, Ryan McAnnally-Linz, 2017-05-01 Who is God What is God's relation to the world How is God disposed towards us What does God ask of us These questions are not mere intellectual puzzles They matter for us A disinterested theology would be no theology at all for we are fundamentally at our very core invested in God God is the one who concerns us most deeply Put differently any theology worth the name is as Miroslav Volf has put it theology for a way of life We ask theological questions as those whose lives depend on the God whose character we try to articulate in the answers and also in the asking How we ask and answer these questions gives shape to our lives In this volume published in Volf's honor leading Christian Jewish and Muslim theological scholars reflect on the shapes flourishing human life takes in light of God Considering concrete questions from how to talk about suffering to the value of singing in congregational worship in light of their deep theological commitments the contributors exemplify the kind of theological reflection our cultures so deeply need Contributors to this volume Matthew Croasmun Ryan McAnnally-Linz Marianne Meye Thompson David H Kelsey Michael Welker Christoph Schwobel Alon Goshen Gottstein Reza Shah Kazemi Jurgen Moltmann Natalia Marandiuc Nancy Bedford Nicholas Wolterstorff Lidija Matosevi Ivan Sar evi Linn Marie Tonstad The Yugoslav Wars of the 1990s Catherine Baker, 2015-07-30 Catherine Baker offers an up to date balanced and concise introductory account of the Yugoslav wars of the 1990s and their aftermath The volume incorporates the latest research showing how the state of the field has evolved and guides students through the existing literature topics and debates Associated Labor and Production in the Age of Barbarism Henrique Tahan Novaes, 2024-05-07 The book focuses on different practices of associated labor in Brazil and Argentina in the case of the workers recuperated factories over the past 40 years Novaes analyses labor practices from a critical Marxist perspective as a reaction to the misery of neoliberalism Deindustrialization austerity programs increasing commodification and international competitiveness have severely deteriorated the living and working conditions of the majority of Latin Americans However alternative labor production and educational practices have developed in this increasingly ruthless neoliberal capitalism Although they are still small they indicate a potential way out of the capitalist mode of production Novaes directs his special attention to the education beyond capital which has accompanied these alternative labor and production practices from alternative job training in recuperated companies and the movement of landless rural workers MST

Tito Geoffrey Swain,2010-11-30 Josip Broz Tito was a remarkable figure in the history of Communism the Second World War the Balkans and post war Eastern Europe He was the only European besides Lenin to lead a successful Communist revolution and became one of the most renowned Communist leaders of all time For a certain generation he was remembered as someone who stood up to both Hitler and Stalin and won Tito was above all else a communist and was devoted to the communist cause until the day he died What made him different from other communist leaders was that his early experience of Soviet Russia had given him sufficient knowledge of the Soviet experiment to be wary of its spell In this the first post communist biography of Tito the acclaimed historian Geoffrey Swain paints a new picture of this famous figure focusing primarily on his Communist years It will be essential reading for anyone interested in Communist and Eastern European history

Breaking the South Slav Dream Kate Hudson,2003-06-20 This is a revisionist history of the rise and fall of Yugoslavia Assessing the geopolitical and strategic reasons for its creation and dismemberment it is an important corrective to much contemporary theorising about the destruction of the Yugoslav state Kate Hudson draws attention to the role of foreign states whose involvement in Yugoslavia did much to destabilise the region and explains how and why this happened Tracing the state s origins from 1918 through war and the Tito years she explains the distortion of the socialist economy resulting from Yugoslavia s unusual position between the two Cold War blocs and the economic collapse of the 1980s as part of the US s drive for a free market She also investigates the true causes and effects of the recent wars in Croatia Bosnia and Kosovo and brings the book up to date with an analysis of Milosevic s downfall and events in Macedonia and Montenegro

Castoriadis, Foucault, and Autonomy Marcela Tovar-Restrepo,2012-03-29 This book examines Cornelius Castoriadis thought and the radical alternative it presents to the legacy of Michel Foucault focusing on three key notions that are central in both scholars theories the subject the production of social meaning and representation and social cultural change Castoriadis and Foucault faced similar theoretical and political challenges and tackled common questions yet their conclusions diverged significantly This important book establishes for the first time a critical dialogue between these two bodies of thought Through a detailed exploration of the Castoridian perspective Marcela Tovar Restrepo addresses the limitations of Foucault's poststructuralist thought exploring and comparing what those three central notions mean in each framework In so doing Tovar Restrepo elucidates a greater understanding of their differences and the resulting consequences for the social sciences and the role of social theory Ultimately this book presents Castoriadis' philosophical and theoretical position as an alternative to unresolved poststructuralist problems and to what Castoriadis saw as a deterministic ontology embedded in political relativism paving the way for an invigorating debate about autonomy and social change

Sociology and Post-Socialist Transformations in Eastern Europe Borut Rončević, Tamara Besednjak Valič, 2024-11-28 The volume offers a unique and comprehensive reflection on the role of sociology and sociologists in the transformation of post socialist Eastern European societies It provides detailed insight on the status of sociology in Eastern Europe its institutional development specifics of national sociological traditions the controversial and ambiguous relationship with the political system and importantly state of the art knowledge about the role of sociology as a discipline and sociologists as academics educators public intellectuals experts politicians or civil society activists in three decades of transformation The volume follows a cultural political economy approach and provides a series of national case studies that analyse the role of sociology in re imagining Eastern European societies This topical volume is of interest to a wide interdisciplinary readership in the social sciences especially students and researchers working on Eastern Europe and on post socialist societies
