Self-Conscious Emotions June Price Tangney, Kurt W. Moral Character Christian B. Miller, 2013-05-09 Christian Miller presents a new account of moral character Most of our friends colleagues and even family members are not virtuous people They do not have virtues such as compassion honesty or courage But at the same time they are not vicious people either They do not have vices such as cruelty dishonesty or cowardice Instead most people today have characters which do not qualify as either virtuous or vicious They have many positive moral features but also many negative ones too Our characters are decidedly mixed and are much more complex than we might have thought On the one hand many of us would kill an innocent person in a matter of minutes under pressure from an authority figure as part of a psychology study Or we would pretend to not see someone collapse from an apparent heart attack across the street Or we would make a wide circle around someone's dropped papers rather than stop to help pick them up Yet it is also true that many of us would help another person when we are by ourselves and hear sounds of a non ambiguous emergency in the next room Or we would come to the aid of a friend when feeling empathy for her need and do so for altruistic rather than egoistic reasons In Moral Character An Empirical Theory Miller outlines a new picture of our moral character which involves what are called Mixed Character Traits This picture can help make sense of how most of us are less than virtuous people but also morally better than the vicious Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie, 2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense The Cambridge Handbook of Workplace Affect Liu-Qin Yang, Russell Cropanzano, Catherine S.
