Selfemployment For Disabled People Experiences From Africa And Asia:

Self-employment for Disabled People Malcolm Harper, Willi Momm, International Labour Office, 1989 Using 16 case studies this book shows how disabled people can succeed in business and points the way towards economic self reliance It offers advice to rehabilitation specialists and planners as well as surveying rehabilitation institutes to examine how far they meet the needs of disabled clients

Research Handbook on Disability and Entrepreneurship Yousafzai, Shumaila, Ng, Wilson, Sheikh, Shandana, Coogan, Thomas, 2022-10-20 By exploring the economic and social value of disabled people with positive entrepreneurial traits and adaptive skills this innovative book breaks away from normative entrepreneurial studies to recognise the overlooked value in disabled entrepreneurs United Nations and the Rights of Disabled Persons G. N. Karna, 1999

Social Entrepreneurship and Corporate Social Responsibility Joan Marques, Satinder Dhiman, 2020-07-05 This book provides professionals as well as students with the understanding that Social Entrepreneurship and Corporate Social Responsibility CSR are now core business principles for sustainably It encourages social entrepreneurs in their role as forerunners in creating new business models that develop facilitate or implement constructive solutions to social cultural and environmental issues At the same time this book views corporate social responsibility as a means of challenging existing entities to realize and modify prior unsustainable and predatory business models and to increase social cultural and environmental accountability By linking these two concepts this book prompts a paradigmatic awakening whereby the foundational driver of business creation and management no longer rests on profit maximization but on improvement of the quality of life for society

Vocational Rehabilitation of Disabled in India Narasimham Rayadurgam, 2017-03-14 This book on Vocational Rehabilitation of Disabled in India Principles Practice is an attempt to educate the present and future rehabilitation professionals in the area of vocational rehabilitation Training for Older People Peter C. Plett, Brenda T. Lester, Katherine L. Yocum, 1991 The Sociology of Work (RLE: Organizations) Parvin Ghorayshi, 2013-08-21 This reference volume reflects the changing world of work It includes research on the various dimensions of work such as the structure of the labour force labour market segmentation technology employment unemployment trade unions and industrial democracy This book provides an integrated view of the various dimensions of work its distinguishing characteristics and issues both peculiar as well as common to industrialized countries By adopting an interdisciplinary and interactional perspective this volume provides the scholar and the lay reader with a range of approaches and debates that have made a significant contribution toward understanding the changing nature of work and its social impact Disability and Self-directed Employment Aldred H. Neufeldt, Alison Lee Albright, 1998 Disability and Self Directed Employment Business development models

Towards Equalizing Opportunities for Disabled People in Asia, 1994 Rural Development International Labour Office, 1991 Entries in English and various other languages Report of the Director-General International Labour Office, International Labour Organisation, 1990 Disability and

International Development David Cobley, 2018-04-09 Despite growing evidence of a close and complex relationship between disability and poverty development policy planning and programming has often failed to take full account of the concerns of disabled people However following the 2006 UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the post 2015 sustainable development agenda which promises to leave no one behind there have been increasing calls from governments and development agencies for disability to be mainstreamed into all development planning Disability and International Development provides a comprehensive overview of key themes in the field of disability and development including issues around identity poverty disability rights education health livelihoods disaster recovery and approaches to researching disability The book engages with relevant theory and draws on existing literature in the field as well as the author's own research and teaching experience to explore key issues using a range of examples taken from around the world Written in an accessible and engaging style to suit both students and practitioners the book also includes a wide range of reflection exercises discussion questions and further reading suggestions making it the perfect introduction to disability and international development

ILO Manual for Labour Information Centres International Labour Office, Laura Alpern, 1991 Job Creation & the Disabled Faldie Esau, 1995 Routledge Library Editions: Organizations (31 vols) Various, 2021-12-02 Re-issuing volumes originally published between 1949 and 1995 this 31 volume set examines the theory and behaviour of organizations Topics covered include the sociology of work leadership and organizations politics at work theory and practice of company organization patterns of business organization company strategy and organizational design

World social science report, 2016 UNESCO, International Social Science Council, University of Sussex (UK). Institute of Development Studies, 2016-09-22 The Report launched on 22 September at the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences in Stockholm highlights significant gaps in social science data about inequalities in different parts of the world and to support progress towards more inclusive societies calls for more robust research into the links between economic inequalities and disparities in areas such as gender education and health Proceedings of the Conference on the Capabilities and Needs of Disabled Persons in the ESCWA Region, 20-28 November, 1989, Amman, Jordan United Nations. Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia, 1992 Disabilities Martha E. Banks Ph.D., Mariah S. Gover, Elizabeth Kendall, Catherine A. Marshall, 2009-04-30 In this three volume set experts from around the world spotlight the latest research on physical and psychological disabilities as well as the social legal and political issues that come to bear on those people affected These authors teach us what the disabilities are how common they have become what challenges people with disabilities face what treatments are available and whether new promising efforts for rehabilitation are on the horizon We also learn in these volumes about social actions that have advanced human rights for people with disabilities in countries around the world Yet we learn that in these same countries discriminatory actions against people with disabilities continue to occur The impact of different cultural beliefs about disability are explored and these beliefs are juxtaposed against legislative responses In all three volumes people with disabilities share their personal narratives about events they have faced in society They provide rich examples of how culture social interactions and legislation can impact on people      Disability Studies in India G. N. Karna,2001 No one can deny the fact that this is a dearth of books on disability and on those who are physically challenged This research based volume fulfils this vacuum A pioneering work on the subject and a revolutionary step in the discipline This book is bound to win laurels from all scholars students and the general readers      Library Acquisitions List Martin P. Catherwood Library,1988
