Selling Today Gerald L. Manning, Barry L. Reece, 2001 This text emphasizes a partnership approach to sales. The new edition introduces the theme of selling to knowledge workers and features expanded coverage of consultations, selling, strategic selling and partnering. Effective Human Relations Barry L. Reece, Rhonda Brandt, 2001-07 Effective Human Relations helps students master the interpersonal skills needed to achieve career self-reliance. Retaining the strengths of previous editions, the text is guided by the popular Total Person approach which emphasizes that human behavior in the workplace is influenced by such diverse traits as self-esteem, physical fitness, values orientation, integrity, self-awareness, and emotional control. The authors should be commended for producing such a student friendly text and for providing such an enriched eighth edition which includes the following new features: new Human Relations in Action boxes, a mix of how-to tips, examples from real world organizations, expanded coverage of Human Relations in the Age of Information, examining the overwhelming influence that technology has had on the workplace, many new examples from well known organizations.

Personal Selling M. C. Cant, C. H. van Heerden, 2005-09 Outlining 10 steps in the personal selling process from prospecting for new business to closing a deal, this guide explains the art of the sale. The importance of listening to customers, clarifying the difference between selling a product and a service, and emphasizing the importance of business ethics are revealed. Descriptions of the options available to those seeking a career in sales are included, as is an exploration of the impact of the sales profession on the economy and a reminder that all jobs require some amount of selling.
