Shanghai Escapist:

Shanghai Escapist Robert M. Liu, 2000-10 A must read for those with strong interest in the history of the Cultural Revolution upheavals in 1960s 70s China This is a novel about oppression and misery about struggle and survival about escape and escapism about hope and despair about love and sex It is a work of great realism and brilliant description It rings so shockingly true that you can't even tell fiction from reality It may very well be a real life story Hollywood in China Ying Zhu, 2022-04-12 China surpassed North America to become the world's largest movie market in 2020 Formerly the focus of exotic fascination in the golden age of Hollywood today the Chinese are a make or break audience for Hollywood's biggest blockbusters And movies are now an essential part of China's global soft power strategy a Chinese real estate tycoon who until recently was the major shareholder of the AMC theater chain built the world's largest film production facility Behind the curtains as this brilliant new book reveals movies have become one of the biggest areas of competition between the world's two remaining superpowers Will Hollywood be eclipsed by its Chinese counterpart No author is better positioned to untangle this riddle than Ying Zhu a leading expert on Chinese film and media In fascinating vignettes Hollywood in China unravels the century long relationship between Hollywood and China for the first time Blending cultural history business and international relations Hollywood in China charts multiple power dynamics and teases out how competing political and economic interests as well as cultural values are manifested in the art and artifice of filmmaking on a global scale and with global ramifications The book is an inside look at the intense business and political maneuvering that is shaping the movies and the U S China relationship itself revealing a headlines grabbing conflict that is playing out not only on the high seas but on the silver screen Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew David, 2010-11-03 Drawing upon a unique and untapped reservoir of newspapers magazines novels government documents photographs and illustrations this book traces the origin pinnacle and ultimate demise of a commercial dance industry in Shanghai between the end of the First World War and the early years of the People's Republic of China Delving deep into the world of cabarets nightclubs and elite ballrooms that arose in the city in the 1920s and peaked in the 1930s the book assesses how and why Chinese society incorporated and transformed this westernized world of leisure and entertainment to suit its own tastes and interests Focusing on the jazzage nightlife of the city in its golden age the book examines issues of colonialism and modernity urban space sociability and sexuality and modern Chinese national identity formation in a tumultuous era of war and revolution Shanghai's Dancing World Andrew Field, 2010 It was thanks to its cabarets that Old Shanghai was called the Paris of the Orient No one has studied the rise and fall of those cabarets more extensively than Andrew Field His book is packed with fascinating information and attests on every page to his understanding of Shanghai's history LYNN PAN author of Sons of the Yellow Emperor Contending for the "Chinese Modern" Xiaoping Wang, 2019-05-15 In Contending for the Chinese Modern Xiaoping Wang studies the writing of fiction in 1940s China Through a practice of political hermeneutics of fictional texts and social subtexts it explores how social modernity and literary modernity intertwined with and interacted upon each other in the development of modern Chinese literature It not only makes critical reappraisal of some renowned modern Chinese writers but also sheds fresh lights on a series of theoretical problems pertaining to the issue of plural modernities in which the problematic of subjectivity class consciousness and identity politics are the key words as well as the concrete procedures that it employs to undertake the ideological analysis The manuscript signifies a new paradigm in studies of modern Chinese literature
