Shanghai Alley:

Western Queers in China David Emil Mungello, 2012 This unique work examines the role played by sexuality in the historical encounter between China and the West Distinguished historian D E Mungello focuses especially on Western homosexuals who saw China as a place of escape from the homophobia of Europe and North America His groundbreaking study traces the lives of two dozen men many previously unknown to have same sex desire who fled to China and in the process influenced perceptions of Chinese culture to this day This escapism engendered casual sexual encounters serious friendships and substantive intellectual relationships

Chinatown Vancouver Donna Seto, 2025-05-01 A colourful illustrated history of the buildings in Vancouver's Chinatown celebrating the richness diversity and vibrancy of the Chinese community Buildings are more than just bricks and mortar they are keepers of secrets and history With more than seventy vibrant illustrations writeups on the buildings interviews with community members and select archival photographs Chinatown Vancouver celebrates the invaluable contributions of the Chinese to Canada The colourful illustrations portray Chinatown during its thriving days as a commercial hub when iconic businesses such as Cathay Importers Ho Inn Restaurant Ming Wo Cookware and Ho Ho Restaurant were pillars in the community Early Chinese settlers in Vancouver demonstrated immense resilience and perseverance in creating a self sustaining safety net to weather racial hostility discrimination and segregation from broader Canadian society The protection of cultural sites like Chinatown helps us understand our connection to place the past and the future In showcasing the unique architecture Chinatown Vancouver honours the neighbourhood as an irreplaceable living heritage site and cultural asset for all Canadians

The People's Doctor Edgar A. Porter, 1997-01-01 The young George Hatem journeyed to Shanghai in 1933 to practice medicine and see the sights The deplorable health and social conditions he found there caused his sympathies to veer quickly to the revolutionary efforts of the Chinese Communist party and before long he joined the underground Party members in conspiratorial meetings and activities In 1936 he left Shanghai on a secret Province after completing the Long March For the next 14 years Hatem served the Communist troops as physician and adviser He took the name Ma Haide and became the first foreigner admitted into China's Communist Party After the Communist victory in 1949 he became the first foreigner granted citizenship in the People's Republic Over the next 40 years his reputation grew as one of the leading public health physicians in the world Until his death in 1988 he showed absolute allegiance to the Party Few foreigners have been accepted into Chinese society as readily as he and certainly none have had such intimate access to 20th century China's most powerful figures

The Lives of Agnes Smedley Ruth Price, 2005-01-07 Drawing on 15 years of intensive research and unprecedented access to previously unpublished documents this vibrant book brings to life one of the 20th century's most fascinating women

Chinatowns David Chuenyan Lai, 2007-10-01 This book is a definitive history of Chinatowns in Canada From instant Chinatowns in gold and coal mining communities to new Chinatowns which have sprung up in city neighbourhoods and suburbs since World War II it portrays the changing landscapes and images of Chinatowns from the late nineteenth century to the present It also includes a detailed case study of Victoria's Chinatown the earliest such settlement in Canada      Fodor's Vancouver & British Columbia Caroline Treffer,2006 Detailed and timely information on accommodations restaurants and local attractions highlight these updated travel guides which feature all new covers a two color interior design symbols to indicate budget options must see ratings multi day itineraries Smart Travel Tips helpful bulleted maps tips on transportation guidelines for shopping excursions and other valuable features Original      Western Canada Ulysses Travel Guides,2004-03 This guidebook offers Descriptions of numerous attractions star rated so you can spot the must sees at a glance The best accommodations and restaurants in every price range All there is to know about parks and historic sites as well as outdoor activities More than 50 regional and city maps to help you customize your itinerary      China's Open Door Policy Sam P. S. Ho,Ralph William Huenemann,1984 The Open Door has become an integral part of China's economic development strategy since the late 1970's and not surprisingly it has aroused considerable interest in developed countries This book gives a sympathetic but critical survey of this policy with particular attention to the problems that have prevented the Open Door from being implemented as rapidly as first intended Placing the open door policy within a larger policy context the authors focus on debates within China over such key issues as the choice of a management system the choice between balanced and unbalanced growth and between various patterns of income distribution They deal with institutional mechanisms recently established to attract foreign technology and capital and to encourage a more flexible Chinese response to increased interdependence with capitalist economies Based on a variety of published sources and on extensive interviews conducted in China this book is an important contribution to the growing body of literature on the Chinese economy and will prove a valuable reference for foreign exporters investors policy makers and China specialists      East by South Charles Ferrall,Paul Millar,Keren Smith,2005 At a time when China is being seen as the next superpower both sweatshop and powerhouse for the global economy political courtship on the part of interested governments is accompanied by grassroots hostility Such ambivalence is not new

Technologies for Active Aging Andrew Sixsmith,Gloria Gutman,2013-05-16 The challenge of population aging requires innovative approaches to meet the needs of increasing numbers of older people Emerging information and communication technologies ICTs such as pervasive computing and ambient assistive technology have considerable potential for enhancing the quality of life of many older people by providing additional safety and security while also supporting mobility independent living and social participation The proposed book will be a landmark publication in the area of technology and aging that will serve as a statement of the current state of the art and as a pointer to directions for future research and emerging technologies products and services      Vancouver's Chinatown Kay J. Anderson,1991-11-04 Anderson charts the construction of Chinatown in the minds and streets of the white community of Vancouver over a hundred year period She shows that Chinatown from the negative stereotyping of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries to its current status as an ethnic neighbourhood has been stamped by changing European ideologies of race and the hegemonic policies those ideas have shaped The very existence of the district is the result of a regime of cultural domination that continues to exist today Anderson clearly rejects the concept of race as a means of distinguishing between groups of human beings She points out that because the implicit acceptance of public beliefs about race affects the types of questions asked by researchers the issue of the ontological status of race is as critical for commentators on society as it is for scientists studying human variation Anderson applies this fresh approach toward the concept of race to a critical examination of popular media and academic treatments of the Chinatown in Vancouver
