The Foresight of Dark Knowing John Jorgensen, 2018-06-30 Korea has long had an underground insurrectionary literature The best known example of the genre is the Ch ng Kam nok a collection of premodern texts predicting the overthrow of the Yi Dynasty 1392 1910 that in recent times has been invoked by a wide range of groups to support various causes and agendas from leaders of Korea s new religious movements formed during and after the Japanese occupation to spin doctors in the South Korean elections of the 1990s to proponents of an aborted attempt to move the capital from Seoul in the early 2000s Written to inspire uprisings and foment dissatisfaction the Ch ng Kam nok texts are anonymous and undated Most were probably written between the seventeenth and late nineteenth centuries In his expansive introduction to this first English translation John Jorgensen notes that the work employs forms or codes of political prediction Ch tuch en Kor toch am allied with Chinese geomancy fengshui but in a combination unique to Korea The two types of codes appear to deal with different subjects the potency of geographical locations and political predictions derived from numerological cycles omens and symbols but both emerge from a similar intellectual sphere of prognostication arts that includes divination the Yijing Book of Changes physiognomy and astrology in early China and both share theoretical components such as the fluctuation of ki Ch qi In addition to ambiguous and obscure passages allusion and indirection abound many predictions are attributed to famous people in the distant past or made after the fact to lend the final outcome an air of authority Jorgensen s invaluable introduction contains a wealth of background on the history and techniques of political prediction augury and geomancy from the first century Han dynasty in China to the end of the nineteenth century in Korea providing readers with a thorough account of East Asian geomancy based on original sources This volume will be welcomed by students and scholars of premodern Korean history and beliefs and those with an interest in early arcane sources of political disinformation that remain relevant in South Korea to this day Legal Authority in Premodern Islam Fachrizal A. Halim, 2014-11-20 Offering a detailed analysis of the structure of authority in Islamic law this book focuses on the figure of Yahy b Sharaf al Nawaw who is regarded as the chief contributor to the legal tradition known as the Sh fi madhhab in traditional Muslim sources named after Muhammad b Idr s al Sh fi d 204 820 the supposed founder of the school of law Al Nawaw s legal authority is situated in a context where Muslims demanded to stabilize legal disposition that is consistent with the authority of the madhhab since in premodern Islamic society the ruling powers did not produce or promulgate law as was the case in other monarchic civilizations Al Nawaw s place in the long term formation of the madhhab is significant for many reasons but for one in particular his effort in reconciling the two major interpretive communities among the Sh fi ites i e the tar qas of the Iraqians and Khurasanians This book revisits the history of the Sh fi school in the pre Nawawic era and explores its later development in the post Nawawic period Presenting a comprehensive picture of the structure of authority in Islamic law specifically within the Shafi ite legal tradition this book is an essential resource for students and scholars of Islamic Studies History and Law Matrix Dreams & Other Stories James C. Glass, 2004-05 James C Glass has been writing science fiction fantasy and dark fantasy tales for over a dozen years haunting us with ghosts aliens and things far worse These breathtaking and disturbing stories have now been gathered in his first collection Also featuring new unpublished work MATRIX DREAMS offers something to every reader of speculative fiction Peek inside and dare to discover the dreams of this talented award winning author More Than the Great Wall John W. Dardess, 2019-10-18 This groundbreaking book provides the first comprehensive analysis of Ming China s pursuit of national security along its 1 700 miles of northern frontier Drawing on a wealth of original sources John Dardess vividly portrays how Ming China s emperors officials and commanders in the field thought argued and made decisions in real time as they worked to defend their country Despite common perceptions of the central role of the so called Great Wall of China Dardess convincingly shows that the wall was but a minor piece in a much bigger effort to battle Tatar looting Dardess immerses readers in the day to day world of the Ming as he explores the question of how leaders kept their country safe over the 276 years the dynasty ruled Beyond the Five-paragraph Essay Kimberly Hill Campbell, Kristi Latimer, 2012 Love it or hate it the five paragraph essay is perhaps the most frequently taught form of writing in classrooms of yesterday and today But have you ever actually seen five paragraph essays outside of school walls Have you ever found it in business writing journalism nonfiction or any other genres that exist in the real world Kimberly Hill Campbell and Kristi Latimer reviewed the research on the effectiveness of the form as a teaching tool and discovered that the research does not support the five paragraph formula In fact research shows that the formula restricts creativity emphasizes structure rather than content does not improve standardized test scores inadequately prepares students for college writing and results in vapid writing In Beyond the Five Paragraph Essay Kimberly and Kristi show you how to reclaim the literary essay and create a program that encourages thoughtful writing in response to literature They provide numerous strategies that stimulate student thinking value unique insight and encourage lively personal writing including the following Close reading which is the basis for writing about literature Low stakes writing options that support students thinking as they read Collaboration in support of discussion debate and organizational structures that support writing as exploration A focus on students writing process as foundational to content development and structure The use of model texts to write in the form of the literature students are reading and analyzing The goal of reading and writing about literature is to push and challenge our students thinking We want students to know that their writing can convey something important a unique view to share defend prove delight discover and inspire If we want our students to be more engaged skilled writers we need to move beyond the five paragraph essay

Japan and China NA NA,2016-04-30 The study of modern China and Japan have separately become major arenas of scholarship over the past three decades in the west but little work has been done that brings these two histories together for the period prior to the twentieth century This work does just that Many of these texts were built on fanciful embellishments of stories that migrated from one land to the other but the unique qualities of the Sino Japanese cultural bond seem to have conditioned the interaction Japan and China Matsuda Wataru,2013-09-13 This volume ties together the histories of Japan and China for the modern period prior to the 20th century The chapters look at Chinese and Japanese works which were written in response to events in the other country None of these works has received any sustained attention in the west As a result we get a view of how Chinese and Japanese saw each other at a time when there were few personal contacts allowed Many of these texts were built on fanciful embellishments of stories that migrated from one land to the other But the unique qualities of the Sino Japanese cultural bond seem to have conditioned the interaction so that these texts all reveal a fascinatingly well defined area The Keystone ,1915 The Stockholm Journal of East Asian Studies ,1990
