Haque presents an insightful exploration into how modern gender expressions in South Asia resist traditional archetypes and adapt to contemporary social shifts Pentagon's South Asia Defence and Strategic Year Book 2010 Col. Harjeet Singh (Retd),2010 Pentagon's South Asia Defence and Strategic Yearbook is now in its fourth year of publication It covers relevant issues of defence and security military affairs and military technology written by experts and academicians themselves These issues are important for defence services foreign ministers and security experts spread among defence units strategic think tanks government organisations public sector units national and international technology manufacturers and diplomats and bureaucrats The book has been extremely well received and its circulation has grown tremendously in the last three years It has been regularly reviewed in the USI Journal and other reputed journals and magazines As The Book Review has commented In comparison to the other yearbooks this book stands out due to the well documented opinion peices by the experienced people from the armed forces think tanks and academics It creates a space for dialogue on important topics

Leveraging Urbanization in South Asia Peter Ellis,Mark Roberts,2015-11-13 The number of people in South Asia's cities

rose by 130 million between 2000 and 2011 more than the entire population of Japan This was linked to an improvement in productivity and a reduction in the incidence of extreme poverty But the region's cities have struggled to cope with the pressure of population growth on land housing infrastructure basic services and the environment As a result urbanization in South Asia remains underleveraged in its ability to deliver widespread improvements in both prosperity and livability

Leveraging Urbanization in South Asia is about the state of South Asia's urbanization and the market and policy failures that have taken the region's urban areas to where they are today and the hard policy actions needed if the region's cities are to leverage urbanization better This publication provides original empirical and diagnostic analysis of urbanization and related economic trends in the region It also discusses in detail the key policy areas the most fundamental being urban governance and finance where actions must be taken to make cities more prosperous and livable

The Remington Registry of Outstanding Professionals Remington Registry,2011-04-26 Citizenship, Nationalism and Refugeehood of Rohingyas in Southern Asia Nasreen Chowdhory,Biswajit Mohanty,2020-05-19 This book provides an in depth investigation of citizenship and nationalism in connection with the Rohingya community It analyses the processes of production of statelessness in South Asia in general and with regard to the Rohingyas in particular Following the persecution of the Rohingya community in Myanmar Burma by the military and the Buddhist militia a host of texts mostly descriptive have examined the historical political and cultural roots of the genocidal massacre and the flight of its victims to South Asia and South East Asian countries The UNHCR reports describe the plight of Rohingyas during and after their journey while other works focus on the political economic roots of this ethnic conflict and its consequences for the Rohingyas To date very few theoretical insights have been provided on the Rohingya issue This book seeks to fill that gap and explores a dialogue between the state and its citizens and non citizens that results in the production of statelessness In theoretical terms the book addresses the construction of citizens and non citizens on the part of the state and the process of symbolic othering achieved through various state practices couched in terms of nationalism Extensive case studies from India Myanmar and Bangladesh provide the foundation for a robust theoretical argument Given its scope the book will be of interest to students academics and researchers with a focus on political economy in South Asia in general and or refugee studies in particular
