Shaping Of Africa:

The Shaping of Africa Francesc Relaño, 2017 This title was first published in 2002 When did Africa emerge as a continent in the European mind This book aims to trace the origins of the idea of Africa and its evolution in Renaissance thought Particular attention is given to the relationship between the process of acquiring knowledge through travel and exploration and its representation within a discourse which also includes previously acquired cosmographical elements Among the themes investigated are How did the image of Africa evolve from the conception of a symbolic space to a Euclidean representation How did the Renaissance rediscovery of Antiquity interact with the Portuguese discoveries along the African coast And once Africa was circumnavigated how was the inner landmass depicted in the absence of first hand knowledge Also overall in this whole process what was the interplay of myth and reality Provided by publisher Shaping a New Africa

Abdullah A. Mohamoud, 2007 Shaping a New Africa contributes to the ongoing debate on shaping a new Africa which was initiated in the Netherlands in 2002 for the purpose of gaining more profound and realistic knowledge of the dynamics of shaping contemporary Africa This has been accomplished by highlighting and stimulating discussion on the other side of Africa a viable Africa rich in natural resources with ample capacity on the ground striving to find African solutions to African problems a vibrant Africa where significant progress has been made new initiatives are being promoted and issues struggles and challenges are addressed and discussed and where attempts are undertaken to find solutions from within the continent itself With contributions from academics of the African Centre for the Constructive Resolution of Disputes ACCORD Vasu Gounden Karanja Mbugua and Venashri Pillay Mohamed Ch rif DIARRA staff member of the Council for the Development of Social Sciences Research in Africa CODESRIA and Bolade M Eyinla University of Ilorin Nigeria Edited by Abdullah A Mohamoud SAHAN The Shaping of South African Society, 1652-1840. Richard Elphick, Hermann

Giliomee, 2014-01-15 History is a powerful aid to the understanding of the present and those who are concerned with the escalating crisis in South Africa will find this an invaluable source book This is the story of the evolution of a society in which race became the dominant characteristic the primary determinant of status wealth and power Cultural chauvinism of the first European colonists primarily the Dutch merged with economic and demographic developments to create a society in which whites relegated all blacks free blacks Africans imported slaves to a systematic pattern of subordination and oppression that foreshadowed the apartheid of the twentieth century From the beginning of the nineteenth century the new empire builders the British reinforced the racial order In the next century and a half the industrialized South Africa would become firmly integrated into the world economy Published originally in South Africa in 1979 and updated and expanded now a decade later this book by twelve South African British Canadian Dutch and American scholars is the most comprehensive history of the early years of that troubled nation The authors put South Africa in the comparative context of other colonial systems Their social political and economic history is rich with empirical data and rests on a solid base of archival research The story

they tell is a complex drama of a racial structure that has resisted hostile impulses from without and rebellion from within

Africa's Future Duncan Clarke, 2012-02-09 Many seek to fix Africa economists experts politicians gurus cognoscenti and glitterati But the continent conceals multiple secrets including the Holy Grail explanations of its saga over the previous centuries Africa's Future tells the tale of Africa's economic evolution revealing unique prisms for understanding the continent's panoramic story one of triumph over the lasting influences of nature and multiple political tragedies Modern Africa developed diverse economic pathways to betterment yet survivalist economies litter the landscape Its paradox of subsistence with many faces coexists amidst the tiny middle class growing rich and many more poor expected in the future Clarke provides fresh and challenging insights into Africa's economies and future offering seasoned views on a continent of unlocked potential which has witnessed many false dawns Not poor but poorly managed Africa holds greater promise its destiny revealed by its history African Voices Israel Oluwole Olofinjana, 2017-08-30 Introducing an emerging academic field known as African British Theologies this publication explores the significant presence of African Christianity in Britain Featuring contributions from twelve scholarly African pastors engaged in ministry and theology in Britain this book is a unique expression of theology from African Christians contextualizing the gospel for a multicultural British society Under three key areas of missiology contextual constructive theology and transformative practical theology the contributors interact with topics such as reverse missiology African pneumatology prosperity gospel and urban mission This book rigorously examines new contexts of Christianity and articulates new theological perspectives that are required to understand twenty first century ministry not only in urban Britain but also across the world African Financial Ecosystem Dr. Jean-Denis Gabikini, 2024-11-08 Historically and contextually various integration models were experimented with by colonial powers but these systems largely collapsed post independence For instance the French attempted to maintain cohesion but prioritized their own interests leading to fragmentation Efforts in East and West Africa similarly faltered as each nation pursued its own agenda without a unified political will South Africa made a notable attempt but integration never materialized it would have required a different approach such as the adoption of a SADC currency The recent endeavors of AES countries and Zimbabwe's new currency inject fresh dynamics into this ecosystem Concurrently the rise of new technologies presents both challenges and opportunities for financial integration Public organizations and pan African institutions play crucial roles in navigating this journey where the political dimension holds significant sway Additionally international dynamics exemplified by initiatives like those of the BRICs further influence the landscape Taken together these elements paint an intriguing picture fostering discussions on the African ecosystem and brainstorming plausible solutions The ultimate aim is to achieve within a reasonable timeframe a monetary union and a common African currency Development in Africa George Kararach, Hany Besada, Timothy M. Shaw, 2016-10-26 Though the fact gets little international attention in recent years countries across Africa have seen unprecedented economic growth a boom that stretches back to 2000 and has made a huge difference in the lives of citizens in countless nations Nonetheless the continent still faces major development challenges This book brings together a sterling roster of contributors to analyze present and future development in Africa post Millennium Development Goals It presents twelve major public policy conversations that they deem essential to Africa's future growth and success The Shaping of South African Society, 1652-1840 Richard Elphick, Hermann Giliomee, James C. Doctor Edgar Pieterse, Susan Parnell, 2014-01-09 The facts of Africa's rapid urbanisation are startling By 2030 African cities will have grown by more than 350 million people and over half the continent's population will be urban Yet in the minds of policy makers scholars and much of the general public Africa remains a quintessentially rural place This lack of awareness and robust analysis means it is difficult to make a policy case for a more overtly urban agenda As a result there is across the continent insufficient urgency directed to responding to the challenges and opportunities associated with the world's last major wave of urbanisation Drawing on the expertise of scholars and practitioners associated with the African Centre for Cities and utilising a diverse array of case studies Africa's Urban Revolution provides a comprehensive insight into the key issues demographic cultural political technical environmental and economic surrounding African urbanisation Governing Natural Resources for Sustainable Peace in Africa Obasesam Okoi, Victoria R Nalule, 2023-12-18 This book examines the dynamics of natural resource conflicts in Africa and explores the different governance approaches for securing sustainable peace One of the most prominent challenges facing Africa today is the consequences of natural resource extraction While these resources hold the potential for economic transformation across Africa their extraction also comes with a range of environmental social and economic consequences including issues related to governance This book assembles a unique cohort of peacebuilding environmental justice and sustainable development scholars and practitioners from Africa and beyond to examine the dynamics of natural resource conflict and explore the governance approaches that offer pathways for sustainable peace in Africa Drawing on case studies and empirical lessons from the Horn of Africa Southern Africa West Africa East Africa and the Central Sahel region along with the African Union the multidisciplinary contributors offer fresh insights into the nature of natural resource conflict in Africa delve deeper into the complexities of natural resource governance and highlight the interplay between resource governance and sustainable peace By shedding light not only on Africa's experiences and vulnerabilities but also on the challenges of natural resource governance this book fills a crucial gap in understanding the connection between natural resource governance conflict and pathways for sustainable peace in Africa Drawing on a range of disciplinary perspectives this book will be of interest to students and scholars of natural resource governance peace and conflict studies environmental policy and justice sustainable development security studies and African studies more widely Africa's Cities Somik Vinay Lall, J. Vernon Henderson, Anthony J. Venables, 2017-02-09 Cities in Sub Saharan Africa are experiencing rapid population growth Yet their economic growth has not kept pace Why One factor might be low capital investment due in part to Africa's relative poverty Other regions have reached similar stages of urbanization at higher per capita GDP This study however identifies a deeper reason African cities are closed to the world Compared with other developing cities cities in Africa produce few goods and services for trade on regional and international markets To grow economically as they are growing in size Africa's cities must open their doors to the world They need to specialize in manufacturing along with other regionally and globally tradable goods and services And to attract global investment in tradables production cities must develop scale economies which are associated with successful urban economic development in other regions Such scale economies can arise in Africa and they will if city and country leaders make concerted efforts to bring agglomeration effects to urban areas Today potential urban investors and entrepreneurs look at Africa and see crowded disconnected and costly cities Such cities inspire low expectations for the scale of urban production and for returns on invested capital How can these cities become economically dense not merely crowded How can they acquire efficient connections And how can they draw firms and skilled workers with a more affordable livable urban environment From a policy standpoint the answer must be to address the structural problems affecting African cities Foremost among these problems are institutional and regulatory constraints that misallocate land and labor fragment physical development and limit productivity As long as African cities lack functioning land markets and regulations and early coordinated infrastructure investments they will remain local cities closed to regional and global markets trapped into producing only locally traded goods and services and limited in their economic growth African Ethics Jonathan O. Chimakonam, Luis

Cordeiro-Rodrigues, 2022-08-25 This is the first comprehensive exploration of African ethics covering everything from normative ethics and applied ethics to meta ethics and methodology as well as the history of its evolution African Ethics provides an in depth exploration of Ubuntu ethics which is defined as a set of values based on concepts such as reciprocity mutual respect and working towards the common good Ubuntu ethics also strongly emphasize the place of human dignity The book engages with both theory and practice and how these ethical ideas impact upon the actual lived experience of Africans It also includes important political considerations such as the impact of imperialism colonialism and capitalism on African ethics as well as the negative impact of apartheid and the renaissance made possible by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission whose work was premised heavily on African ethical ideas This book is not just a wide ranging and incisive introduction but also a reformulation of key concepts and current debates in African ethics Crucially African Ethics is an inclusive text one that speaks from an African perspective and contributes to the decolonizing of contemporary ethics Africa's Social and Religious Quest Randee Ijatuyi-Morphé, 2014-01-30 This well crafted book probes the key dimensions of Africa's existential predicament It constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing African situation the starting point for grasping Africa's social and religious quest Beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e.g. colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation The situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional African religion and material culture which hitherto defines African communality politics and destinies vis vis the cosmos and nature Thus African religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity Rather they operate via adaptation The communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are This study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of Africans quest today African-Asian Relations: Past, Present, Future LIT Verlag,2023-03-15 Is the impression of a new dynamism in African Asian relations empirically correct Is it a process that will once be accepted as one of the fundamental transformations of World Society in the 21st century This volume addresses these questions in 14 chapters from a look back to 2000 years of African Asian contacts and exchange to the analysis of the origins of this new inter regional dynamism On the Asian side the focus is on China which has with the Forum on China African Cooperation FOCAC the Belt and Road Initiative with numerous infrastructure projects development assistance resource deals and the support for the African Union in Africa drawn most attention but also recent initiatives by India and South Korea are described On the African side the recent developments in Burkina Faso C te d Ivoire Ethiopia Angola Guinea Tanzania Ghana Zimbabwe and South Africa are analyzed in detail with a special focus on the various impacts of the recent and ongoing projects and initiatives and the conditions under which they exert developmental or detrimental economic Do we witness the repetition of past mistakes of development policies at higher level or is this time everything different Patrick Ziltener is an Associate Professor at the University of Zurich Switzerland Christian Suter is Professor of Sociology at the University of Neuch tel and President of the World Society Foundation Zurich Switzerland Careers in Africa Oluwatimilehin Temitope Ologunoye,Chima Mordi,Olatunji David Adekoya,2025-04-16 As Africa continues to rise as a global economic and cultural force more scholarly attention must be paid to the diverse and dynamic world of careers and professional development on the African continent This edited volume presents a collection of studies written by some of the most prominent career research scholars in Africa shedding light on the multidimensional and ever evolving landscape of careers across the African continent The book advocates for a greater focus on the institutionalist approach to studying career dynamics in Africa and also offers recommendations and directions for future career studies It motivates future scholars to contribute to cross cultural research on career dynamics by providing an African perspective The narrative explores historical and current practices in career guidance and counselling in Africa by addressing pressing matters such as minimum wage policies equity social justice labour market gender dynamics disability and employment intellectual capital and educational development This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of careers and employment HRM international business and African business more generally as well as practitioners and policymakers working on the continent Impacts of the Knowledge Society on Economic and Social Growth in Africa Amoah, Lloyd G. Knowledge and Change in African Universities Michael Cross, amasa ndofirepi, 2017-01-28 Besides the ongoing concern with the epistemological and theoretical hegemony of the West in African academic practice the book aims at understanding how knowledge is produced and controlled through the interplay of the politics of knowledge and current intellectual discourses in universities in Africa In this regard the book calls for African universities to relocate from the position of object to subject in order to gain a form of liberated epistemological voice more responsive to the social and economic complexities of the continent In itself this is a critical exposé of contemporary practices in knowledge advancement in the continent Broadly the book addresses the following questions How can African universities reinvent knowledge production and dissemination in the face of the dominant Eurocentrism so pervasive and characteristic of academic practice in Africa to enhance their relevance to the contexts in which they operate How can such change particularly at knowledge production and distribution levels be undertaken without falling into an intellectual and discursive ghettoization in the global context What then is the role of academics policy makers and curriculum and program designers in dealing with biases and distortions to integrate policies knowledge and pedagogy that reflect current cultural diversity both local and global Against this backdrop while some contributions in this book argue that emancipatory epistemic voice in African universities is not yet born or it is struggling with little success many dissenting voices charge that if Africans do not take responsibility and construct knowledge strategies for their own emancipation who will
