Counter-narratives, and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec Roxanne Rimstead, Domenic A.

Beneventi, 2019-03-14 Contested Spaces Counter narratives and Culture from Below in Canada and Québec explores strategies for reading space and conflict in Canadian and Québecois literature and cultural performances posing questions such as how do these texts and performances produce and contest spatial practices What are the roles of the nation city community and individual subject in reproducing space particularly in times of global hegemony and neocolonialism And in what ways do marginalized individuals and communities represent contest or appropriate spaces through counter narratives and expressions of culture from below Focusing on discord rather than harmony and consensus this collection disturbs the idealized space of Canadian multicultural pluralism to carry literary analysis and cultural studies into spaces often undetected and unforeseen including flophouses and slums shantytowns and urban alleyways underground spaces and peep shows and inner city urban parks as they are experienced by minorities and other marginalized groups These essays are the products of sustained high level collaboration across French and English academic communities in Canada to facilitate theoretical exchange on the topic of space and contestation uncover geographies of exclusion and generate new spaces of hope in the spirit of pioneering works by Henri Lefebvre Michel Foucault Michel de Certeau Doreen Massey David Harvey and other prominent theorists of space Modern Anglophone Drama by Women Alan P. Barr, 2007 Alan P Barr has brought together eleven world class modern plays by women that show not only their artistry but also their variety and their passion Drawn from nine different countries other than the United States and England that use English as their literary language the plays reflect the concerns of women across the globe The imagery and dramatic conventions may shift and the tones vary but the need to be strong and its difficulty the sense of a world that is anything but nurturing or ideal and the suspect nature of family life and relations are constant themes The struggle over language in countries that are very often ex colonies conveys the frequent overlap between feminist and postcolonial focuses The diversity of Englishes on stages from Singapore to South Africa is a lovely curtain call to this theater festival English Studies in Canada, 2002 Recherches Théâtrales Au Canada, 2006 Global Realignments and the Canadian Nation in the Third Millennium Karin Ikas, 2010 With aggravating global realignments the dynamics and contradictions of a world risk society are looming ahead in the unfolding Third Millennium while globalization is gaining further steam To this bears witness a potpourri of often frightening geopolitical social cultural economic demographic ecological and other changes and challenges that gives substantial cause for concern about getting lost in a trans whatever sea of turmoil uncertainty and indeterminateness The resultant current backlash or rather renewed interest in the nation as a collective identity establishing category is an effort to gain some anchorage in ever more disintegrating times and proves especially those theoreticians wrong for whom the whole concept of the nation has worn off since long In 16 resourceful essays internationally distinguished Canadian and European experts from a variety of fields take a fresh look at these developments by focussing on one of the most fascinating multicultural and multifaceted nation state s in the world Canada in the Third Millennium The topics they discuss include among others Canada s difficult dissociation from Europe and the USA the reframing and reclaiming of the Canadian story the role of nations within the nation the efforts to transcend the nation pending geopolitical and geo ecological crises glocal issues and new wars Collectively the entries prove that Canada is a very progressive nation and opens up new perspectives for other collectives currently reassessing their national identities in a global environment Thus the book reaches well beyond the study of Canada and will be valuable to academics professionals teachers and students of various disciplines coping with the issue at stake as well as the general reader
