Methods of Rhetorical Criticism Bernard L. Brock, Robert Lee Scott, James W. Chesebro, 1989 Shaw Richard Malin Ohmann, 1962 The World of George Jean Nathan George Jean Nathan, 1998 Applause Books This anthology represents George Jean Nathan in all the various facets of his long writing career He has written on marriage politics doctors metropolitan life the ballet love alcohol on virtually every major aspect of contemporary life and he has had something shrewd or amusing to say about every one of them A George Jean Nathan Reader George Jean Nathan, 1990 The selection in this one volume anthology are representative of Nathan's entire oeuvre and include informal essays criticism of famous plays of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries discussions of dramaturgy and aesthetics profiles of noted producers players playwrights and other writers and letters that illuminate his writings The American Mercury Henry Louis Mencken, 1925 The American Mercury, 1925 The I and Being Human Norman Holland, 2017-07-05 The I in the title pertains to the core of self that persists over time These are challenges that elude people like social scientists philosophers or critics of literature and the arts who would chronicle or explain humanity's doings This informative engaging and joyous book by Norman N Holland offers a usable model for the aesthetics psychology history and science of the human subject Holland begins by modeling the self as a theme and variations constant yet constantly changing He shows how symbolization perception cognition and memory all contribute to the sense of I hence how any one I grows out of a specific history and culture but also out of experiences all humans share Holland proposes a scientific psychology based on his model fusing the experiments of academic psychology with the insights of psychoanalysis He illustrates his theory by the lives of George Bernard Shaw Scott Fitzgerald and other writers as well as Freud's patient Little Hans in adulthood a famed stage director at the Metropolitan Opera The I and Being Human attempts nothing less than to draw together aspects of the self such as objectivity and subjectivity that have eluded connection In so doing Norman Holland offers a rereading of psychoanalysis as a theory of the I Coming to Terms Jane Blankenship, 2011-12-23 Coming to Terms The Collected Works of Jane Blankenship an edited collection from Jane Blankenship and Janette Kenner Muir is the story of one academic journey through self discovery intellectual development and mentorship It is a conversation that illustrates how in Mary Catherine Bateson's terms one composes a life that has meaning and makes a significant difference in other lives as well Jane Blankenship was an active member of the speech communication discipline starting with her first job teaching in the Rhetoric and Composition program at Mount Holyoke College and finishing with the great distinction of Professor Emeritus at the University of Massachusetts Amherst As a noted rhetorical scholar in both criticism and theory Jane Blankenship was a long time leader within the National Communication Association including one of a handful of women who served as president in the 20th Century and an award winner of numerous teaching and scholarship awards Throughout her academic career Blankenship made important contributions to the understanding of language and form specific literary critics such as

Kenneth Burke and Samuel Coleridge and the role of women in politics Most importantly she worked with and inspired a cadre of graduate students who continue to reflect her ideas and perspectives in their own work particularly in the area of political communication Through her writing and mentoring she impacted and changed thousands of lives Coming to Terms brings together some of the significant pieces that marked Jane Blankenship's career and also shows the process wherein one makes choices in writing and publishing that underscore the interrelationship between scholarship and teaching an important element throughout her academic life

The Business Man's Magazine & the Book-keeper, 1905 Men Alone Jopi Nyman, 1997 This study examines masculinity and individualism in four American novels of the 1920s and 1930s usually regarded as belonging to the genre of hard boiled fiction The novels under study are Red Harvest by Dashiell Hammett The Postman Always Rings Twice by James M Cain They Shoot Horses Don't They by Horace McCoy and To Have and Have Not by Ernest Hemingway In this first full length study of gender in hard boiled fiction the genre is discussed as a representation of the ideologies of masculinity and individualism Hard boiled fiction is located in its historical and cultural context and it is argued that the genre with its explicit emphasis on masculinity and masculine virtues attempts to reaffirm a masculine order The study argues that this emphasis is a counter reaction to more general changes in the gender relations of the period Indeed hard boiled fiction is argued to be an attempt to reconstruct a masculine identity based on anti modern values generally accepted in the cultural context of the genre

Men's wear. [semi-monthly], 1910 Cass Gilbert Life And Work Barbara S Christen, Steven Flanders, 2001-12-04 Nineteen essays by a diverse group of historians and others who experience and study Gilbert's buildings in their professional lives detail the intricate relationship between Gilbert's work and the longstanding tradition of public architecture in America This volume examines Gilbert's work in five unique categories the building of a national practice an evaluation of his Minnesota State Capitol as a defining moment in American civic architecture his New York career his response to civic ideals in his plans for towns and universities and his work in the public domain

Clothing and Fashion José Blanco F., Patricia Kay Hunt-Hurst, Heather Vaughan Lee, Mary Doering, 2015-11-23 This unique four volume encyclopedia examines the historical significance of fashion trends revealing the social and cultural connections of clothing from the precolonial times to the present day This sweeping overview of fashion and apparel covers several centuries of American history as seen through the lens of the clothes we wear from the Native American moccasin to Manolo Blahnik's contribution to stiletto heels Through four detailed volumes this work delves into what people wore in various periods in our country's past and why from hand crafted family garments in the 1600s to the rough clothing of slaves to the sophisticated textile designs of the 21st century More than 100 fashion experts and clothing historians pay tribute to the most notable garments accessories and people comprising design and fashion The four volumes contain more than 800 alphabetical entries with each volume representing a different era Content includes fascinating information such as that beginning in 1619 through 1654 every man in Virginia was required to plant a number of mulberry trees to support the silk industry in England what is known about the clothing of enslaved African Americans and that there were regulations placed on clothing design during World War II The set also includes color inserts that better communicate the visual impact of clothing and fashion across eras Men's Wear Advertising William Borsodi,1910 Literary
