She Went A Whaling The Journal Of Martha:

She Went A-whaling Martha Smith Brewer Brown,1993 One of the women who accompanied her whaling captain husband for an adventure on the whaling grounds Martha Smith Brewer Brown kept a journal in 1847 and 1848 and it is presented here edited by Anne MacKay in a little book that makes a large contribution to women s history and whaling history The very religious Martha Brown writes about her fears her moral concerns shipboard life whale hunting and especially her distress during eight months ashore in Honolulu with a baby on the way a husband in the Sea of Okhotsk and not enough money in her purse      To Swear like a Sailor Paul A. Gilje,2016-02-15 Anyone could swear like a sailor Within the larger culture sailors had pride of place in swearing But how they swore and the reasons for their bad language were not strictly wedded to maritime things Instead sailor swearing indeed all swearing in this period was connected to larger developments This book traces the interaction between the maritime and mainstream world in the United States while examining cursing language logbooks storytelling sailor songs reading images and material goods To Swear Like a Sailor offers insight into the character of Jack Tar the common seaman and into the early republic It illuminates the cultural connections between Great Britain and the United States and the appearance of a distinct American national identity The book explores the emergence of sentimental notions about the common man through the guise of the sailor appearing on stage in song in literature and in images      Remarkable Women in New York History Helen Engel,Marilynn

Smiley,2014-04-08 A history of the amazing women who have left their mark on the Empire State The significant events in New York State history are well known to educators students and New Yorkers alike But often the role that women played in these events has been overlooked In this book members of the American Association of University Women in New York State have meticulously researched the lives and actions of some of New York s finest women Some of the names are renowned like the great emancipator Harriet Tubman who settled in Auburn and some are less so such as Linda Tetor who fought for the rights of senior citizens in Steuben County and throughout the state Discover the stories of these indomitable women who from Long Island and Manhattan to Buffalo and Fredonia have steered the course of New York s history from the colonial era through today      Fish Harlan Walker,1998 The annual volume of the proceedings of the Oxford Symposium the longest running colloquy on food and food history in the western world The subject of this year s discussions was not just fish but the diet of fishermen and any foodstuff that may be culled from the waters such as seaweed      Female Husbands Jen Manion,2020-03-26 A timely and comprehensive history of female husbands in Anglo America from the eighteenth through the turn of the twentieth century      Hen Frigates Joan Druett,1999-05-04 A hen frigate is any boat with the captain s wife on board This is their story of life on the high seas      Captain Ahab Had a Wife Lisa Norling,2014-02-01 During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the whaling industry in New England sent hundreds of ships and thousands of men to distant seas on voyages lasting up to five years In Captain Ahab Had a Wife Lisa Norling taps a rich vein of sources including women's and men's letters and diaries shipowners records Quaker meeting minutes and other church records newspapers and magazines censuses and city directories to reconstruct the lives of the Cape Horn widows left behind onshore Norling begins with the emergence of colonial whaling on the island of Nantucket and then follows the industry to mainland New Bedford in the nineteenth century tracking the parallel shift from a patriarchal world to a more ambiguous Victorian culture of domesticity Through the sea wives compelling and often poignant stories Norling exposes the painful discrepancies between gender ideals and the reality of maritime life and documents the power of gender to shape both economic development and individual experience

Maritime Labour Richard Gorski, 2007 This is a collection of soundings into various aspects of the history of maritime labor from the close of the Middle Ages to the present The spatial emphasis of the essays is north European and Atlantic since they deal with the countries around the North Sea and Baltic with some coverage of North America Indeed from time to time the authors leave the sea behind in order to examine broader issues such as labor markets the regulation and institutions of seafaring and industrial relations on the waterfront But at all points there is a common theme of sea related labor and a common objective of better understanding what have often been perceived as difficult and elusive groups of people

Round About the Earth Joyce E. Chaplin, 2013-11-19 Originally published in hardcover in 2012

Whaling on Martha's Vineyard Thomas Dresser, 2018-05-28 Martha's Vineyard became an integral part of the whaling industry at the beginning of the eighteenth century and inspired a lasting romantic enthusiasm for life on the open ocean From shorewhaling to daring voyages into the Atlantic Pacific and Arctic Oceans the insular whaling community offered a tempting path for many young Vineyarders to rise from cabin boy to captain Local businesses were enticed by the potential profit from whaling voyages and many reaped generous rewards from successful whale oil harvests Through memoirs music and memorabilia author Thomas Dresser recounts this dramatic history of the bygone era of whaling on Martha's Vineyard

North Fork Cemeteries Clement M. Healy, 2005-07-13 To better appreciate the beginnings of the North Fork the best place to start is in the ancient burial grounds that dot the East End These beautiful sites tell the tale of northeastern Long Islands early history preserved in stone The names that appear Booth Conklyn Corwin Fanning Hallock Latham Terry Tuthill Wickham Youngs read like a who's who of the North Fork

Keeping Time in Sag Harbor Joyce Egginton, 2007 For 300 years Sag Harbor has been a prism reflecting facets of American history from its heyday as a prominent whaling port worthy of mention in Moby Dick to a factory town shipping out Bulova watches to its latest incarnation as an alternative coastal retreat to the exclusive Hamptons Stephen Longmire explores the stories of this renowned eastern Long Island community in Keeping Time in Sag Harbor a unique combination of fine art photographs and historical text Architecture is a cornerstone of Sag Harbor's charm because the village has preserved a full range of buildings dating from the American Revolution to the present These include the stately eighteenth and nineteenth century mansions lining what realtors have dubbed Captains Row the modest homes of generations of working people from diverse backgrounds the commercial facades of Main Street and preserved public buildings such as the early Custom House and Minard Lafever's Whalers Church The work to protect this architecture and the economic and ecological balance it embodies in the face of booming real estate development is at the heart of Longmire's account Interviews with residents both new and old chart the evolving character of the village exploring how it has struggled to retain its identity while learning to sustain itself on tourism Anchoring this story are Longmire's own color photographs of Sag Harbor today and archival photographs and maps that reveal the many layers to the community's sense of place Keeping Time in Sag Harbor is an intimate portrait of a special place that is changing fast despite almost all of the town being listed on the National Register of Historic Places Through Longmire's images and words we appreciate why Sag Harbor is both a unique American village and an example of what is happening to communities across the United States from Santa Fe to South Beach Book Jacket Asia, 1924

Pursuing the Leviathan Paul Magid, 2025-06-17 Set in the golden age of whaling in the nineteenth century this book brings to life the adventures of Benjamin Clough best known for single handedly rescuing the ship Sharon from mutineers in 1842 Clough's heroism earned him a whaling command which led to a whaling career that for a quarter century took him into the Atlantic Pacific and Arctic Oceans The extraordinary event that merited Clough his promotion to a captaincy occurred when he was just twenty three years old At sea since the age of sixteen by 1842 Clough's impressive skills and seamanship had earned him an appointment as third mate aboard the whaling ship Sharon While most of the crew including Clough were in smaller boats pursuing whales three Pacific Island crewmembers enraged by their captain's wanton cruelty mutinied and subsequently murdered him and seized the ship Raising its sails they prepared to abandon the other men to die a terrifying death on the open sea The crew cowed by the mutineers' ferocity was at a loss as to what to do when Clough stepped up and volunteered to retake the vessel Alone he swam in the pitch black of night through shark infested waters boarded the Sharon overcame two of the Islanders in hand to hand combat and recaptured the ship The Sharon's owners rewarded his heroism by giving him command on its next voyage launching him on the second phase of his whaling career as a successful much admired whaling captain Drawing on whaling logs journals and family documents author Paul Magid follows Clough from his first voyage in 1835 to his retirement from whaling in 1867 Clough's story is set in the context of the book's gritty portrayal of the dangerous and brutal conditions endured by whalers during this period At the same time Clough's time ashore on Martha's Vineyard allows the author to explore a little known period in the island's history and the protagonist's role in transforming the Vineyard into a coveted destination for mainland vacationers

The Grey Undercurrent Felix Schürmann, 2023-04-03 By extending their voyages to all oceans from the 1760s onward whaling vessels from North America and Europe spanned a novel net of hunting grounds maritime routes supply posts and transport chains across the globe For obtaining provisions cutting firewood recruiting additional men and transshipping whale products these highly mobile hunters regularly frequented coastal places and islands along their routes
