Salwak, 2016-05-23 Living With A Writer brings together a group of prestigious contributors to discuss the writing lives of contemporary poets novelists critics dramatists editors and collaborators What are the practical considerations of being a writer What are the household dynamics How do the circumstances contribute to the work What does it tell us about the creative process The book features pieces from well known authors and partners in famous literary relationships including John Bayley Amanda Craig Nadine Gordimer Ann Thwaite Paul Theroux and John Updike Essays Henry David Thoreau, 2021-05-11T21:19:01Z Though perhaps most famous for Walden Henry David Thoreau was also a prolific essayist Many of his essays touch on subjects similar to his famous book long walks through nature things found in moonlight that are invisible and unheard during the day his preference for wild apples over domestic ones In many ways he prefigured environmentalism expressing his love for untouched nature and lamenting what the encroachment of man and cities were doing to it He also had strong opinions on many other subjects One of his most famous essays On the Duty of Civil Disobedience was written as a result of his going to jail for refusing to pay several years worth of poll taxes One of the primary reasons for his refusal was his holding the government in contempt for its support of slavery and several of his other essays express support and admiration for John Brown who thought to start a slave revolt when he attacked Harper s Ferry in 1859 Whether discussing trees in a forest slavery or the works of Thomas Carlyle Thoreau s essays are deeply personal and full of keen observations often in poetic language They give a sense of the man expressing them as being much more than the views being expressed This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks This Living Hand Edmund Morris, 2012-10-23 When the multitalented biographer Edmund Morris who writes with equal virtuosity about Theodore Roosevelt Ronald Reagan Beethoven and Thomas Edison was a schoolboy in colonial Kenya one of his teachers told him You have the most precious gift of all originality That quality is abundantly evident in this selection of essays They cover forty years in the life of a maverick intellectual who can be at whim astonishingly provocative self mockingly funny and richly anecdotal The title essay a tribute to Reagan in cognitive decline is poignant in the extreme Whether Morris is analyzing images of Barack Obama or the prose style of President Clinton or exploring the riches of the New York Public Library Dance Collection or interviewing the novelist Nadine Gordimer or proposing a hilarious Diet for the Musically Obese a continuous cross fertilization is going on in his mind It mixes the cultural pollens of Africa Britain and the United States and propagates hybrid flowers some fragrant some strange some a shock to conventional sensibilities Repeatedly in This Living Hand Morris celebrates the physicality of artistic labor and laments the glass screen that today's e devices interpose between inspiration and execution No presidential biographer has ever had so literary a take on his subjects he discerns powers of poetic perception even in the obsessively scientific Edison Nor do most writers on music have the verbal facility to articulate as Morris does what it is about certain sounds that soothe the savage breast His essay on the pathology of Beethoven's deafness breaks new ground in suggesting that tinnitus may explain some of the weird aural effects in that composer's works Masterly monographs on the art of biography South Africa in the last days of apartheid the romance of the piano and the role of imagination in nonfiction are juxtaposed with enchanting almost unclassifiable pieces such as The Bumstitch Lament for a Forgotten Fruit Morris suspects it may have grown in the Garden of Eden The Anticapitalist Conspiracy A Warning an assault on The Chicago Manual of Style Nuages Gris Colors in Music Literature and Art and the uproarious Which Way Does Sir Dress about ordering a suit from the most expensive tailor in London Uniquely illustrated with images that the author describes as indispensable to his creative process This Living Hand is packed with biographical insights into such famous personalities as Daniel Defoe Henry Adams Mark Twain Evelyn Waugh Truman Capote Glenn Gould Jasper Johns W G Sebald and Winnie the Pooh not to mention a gallery of forgotten figures whom Morris lovingly restores to life Among these are the pianist Ferruccio Busoni the poet Edwin Arlington Robinson the novelist James Gould Cozzens and sixteen so called Undistinguished Americans contributors to an anthology of anonymous memoirs published in 1902 Reviewing that book for The New Yorker Morris notes that even the most unlettered persons have on occasion power to send forth surprise flashes illuminating not only the dark around them but also more sophisticated shadows for example those cast by public figures who will not admit to private failings or by philosophers too cerebral to state a plain truth The author of This Living Hand is not an ordinary person but he too sends forth surprise flashes never more dazzlingly than in his final essay The Ivo Pogorelich of Presidential Biography Past and Present of Hardin County, Iowa William J.
