Marcel's Letters Carolyn Porter, 2017-06-06 Finalist for the 2018 Minnesota Book Award A graphic designer's search for inspiration leads to a cache of letters and the mystery of one man's fate during World War II Seeking inspiration for a new font design in an antique store in small town Stillwater Minnesota graphic designer Carolyn Porter stumbled across a bundle of letters and was immediately drawn to their beautifully expressive pen and ink handwriting She could not read the letters they were in French but she noticed all of them had been signed by a man named Marcel and mailed from Berlin to his family in France during the middle of World War II As Carolyn grappled with designing the font she decided to have one of Marcel's letters translated Reading it opened a portal to a different time and what began as mere curiosity quickly became an obsession with finding out why the letter writer Marcel Heuz had been in Berlin how his letters came to be on sale in a store halfway around the world and most importantly whether he ever returned to his beloved wife and daughters after the war Marcel's Letters is the incredible story of Carolyn's increasingly desperate search to uncover the mystery of one man's fate during WWII seeking answers across Germany France and the United States Simultaneously she continues to work on what would become the acclaimed P22 Marcel font immortalizing the man and his letters that waited almost seventy years to be reunited with his family

Cowboy of The Road: True Stories of His Survival Valerie M. Pontbriand, 2021-02-28 Childhood or wildhood This collection of stories begins with a young boy whose cleverness ability and determination are more in line with an adult rather than the curious minded six year old that we are introduced to in the first story Normal was never to be a part of Marcel Pontbriand's life Orphaned at the tender young age of 14 and with only pennies to his name you'll read about how he took to the ice roads of Canada and met with fear tragedy and obstacles that only few could even imagine Challenge defeat and the curses of Mother Nature would forge the young Marcel into a focused dreamer who would plan re-examine his situation and promise himself a better life all the while pledging to help others along the way Just like the highways of Canada and the U S A it's never a straight path to meet a timeline and a destination These stories will take you on an adventure of one man's life that was intertwined with controversy crime and corruption It's been a truckin' hard life for Marcel Pontbriand a life that he would not change in the least because it molded him into what he became to be called Cowboy of the Road He has driven more than 5 million miles behind the wheel of his Peterbilt rig So let us begin this incredible collection of true tales right now
