Copyright Office, 1927 Part 1 Books Group 1 v 23 Nos 1 128 Issued April 1926 March 1927 The Publisher, 1901 Writings on American History, 1905 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1899 Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature Color Victoria Finlay, 2007-12-18 In this vivid and captivating journey through the colors of an artist's palette Victoria Finlay takes us on an enthralling adventure around the world and through the ages illuminating how the colors we choose to value have determined the history of culture itself How did the most precious color blue travel all the way from remote lapis mines in Afghanistan to Michelangelo's brush What is the connection between brown paint and ancient Egyptian mummies Why did Robin Hood wear Lincoln green In Color Finlay explores the physical materials that color our world such as precious minerals and insect blood as well as the social and political meanings that color has carried through time Roman emperors used to wear togas dyed with a purple color that was made from an odorous Lebanese shellfish which probably meant their scent preceded them In the eighteenth century black dye was called logwood and grew along the Spanish Main Some of the first indigo plantations were started in America amazingly enough by a seventeen year old girl named Eliza And the popular van Gogh painting White Roses at Washington's National Gallery had to be renamed after a researcher discovered that the flowers were originally done in a pink paint that had faded nearly a century ago Color is full of extraordinary people events and anecdotes painted all the more dazzling by Finlay's engaging style Embark upon a thrilling adventure with this intrepid journalist as she travels on a donkey along ancient silk trade routes with the Phoenicians sailing the Mediterranean in search of a special purple shell that garners wealth sustenance and prestige with modern Chilean farmers breeding and bleeding insects for their viscous red blood The colors that craft our world have never looked so bright

Confederate Veteran ,1922 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1901 British Books ,1903 Landscapes Revealed Amanda Brend,Nick Card,Jane Downes,Mark Edmonds,James Moore,2020-09-30 Winner Current Archaeology 2023 Book of the Year 2023 This volume brings together several years of work devoted to the wider landscape of the Heart of Neolithic Orkney World Heritage Site It documents the results of a program of geophysical and related survey across an area of c 285 hectares between Skara Brae on the west Orkney coast and Maeshowe by the Loch of Stenness The project has made it possible to talk for the first time about the landscape context of some of the most remarkable and renowned prehistoric monuments in Western Europe The aims are to synthesize the data from different forms of survey and to document the changing character and development of this landscape over time The results are genuinely remarkable are presented in a manner which makes the material of interest and value to a relatively wide readership with an array of images which fully document and interpret the evidence Survey work at a landscape scale tends to deal with palimpsests Here descriptive sections are set within a thematic structure designed to explore the changing use and significance of different areas over time The results shed important new light on the character and extent of known prehistoric sites and ceremonial monuments But they also document the afterlives of these and other places and their relation to the lived landscapes of the historic and more recent past In tracing the changing configuration of the World Heritage Area we can begin appreciate this landscape as an artifact of several millennia of dwelling working land attending to wider worlds and to the past itself

The Spectator ,1903 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Northwestern Reporter ,1902 The Bookseller ,1918 To Advance the Race Linda M. Perkins,2024-04-09 From the United States earliest days African Americans considered education essential for their freedom and progress Linda M Perkins's study ranges across educational and geographical settings to tell the stories of

Black women and girls as students professors and administrators Beginning with early efforts and the establishment of abolitionist colleges Perkins follows the history of Black women s post Civil War experiences at elite white schools and public universities in northern and midwestern states Their presence in Black institutions like Howard University marked another advancement as did Black women becoming professors and administrators But such progress intersected with race and education in the postwar era As gender questions sparked conflict between educated Black women and Black men it forced the former to contend with traditional notions of women s roles even as the 1960s opened educational opportunities for all African Americans A first of its kind history To Advance the Race is an enlightening look at African American women and their multi generational commitment to the ideal of education as a collective achievement
