LONG TERM CARE INSURANCE

This type of private insurance can help pay for many types of long-term care, including both skilled nursing and assisted living. Long-Term care insurance policies can vary widely. Some policies may cover only nursing home care. Others may include coverage for a range of services. Like adult day care, assisted living, medical equipment, and home health care. Long-term care insurance does not replace your Medicare coverage.

PERSONAL RESOURCES

You can use your own resources and money to pay for long-term care. Some life insurance companies may let you use your insurance policy to pay for long-term care. Besides long-term care insurance and personal resources, you may choose to pay for long term care through a Trust or an Annuity. The best option for you depends on your age, health status, risk of needing long-term care, and your personal financial situation.

MEDICAID

Medicaid is a joint federal and state program that helps pay for certain health services for people with limited income and resources. If you qualify, you may be able to get help to pay for Nursing Home care, Assisted Living care, and other health care costs.
