Longman Anthology of World Literature by Women, 1875-1975 Marian Arkin, Barbara Shollar, 1989 Swedish Women's Writing 1850-1995 Helena Forsas-Scott, 2000-12-01 Provides a survey of women's writing in Sweden from the beginnings of the struggle for emancipation in the 1850s to the present day These writers are seen within the political cultural and economic context of women's lives Modern critical currents are also assessed and Swedish feminist criticism is considered alongside the French and American traditions Modern Drama by Women 1880s-1930s Katherine E. Kelly, 2002-09-11 Modern Drama by Women 1880s 1930s offers the first direct evidence that women playwrights helped create the movement known as Modern Drama It contains twelve plays by women from the Americas Europe and Asia spanning a national and stylistic range from Swedish realism to Russian symbolism Six of these plays are appearing in their first English language translation Playwrights include Anne Charlotte Leffler Edgren Sweden Amelai Pincherle Rosselli Italy Elsa Bernstein Germany Elizabeth Robins Britain Marie Leneru France Alfonsina Storni Argentina Hella Wuolijoki Finland Hasegawa Shigure Japan Rachilde France Zinaida Gippius Russia Djuna Barnes USA Marita Bonner USA This groundbreaking anthology explodes the traditional canon In these plays the New Woman represents herself and her crises in all of the styles and genres available to the modern dramatist Unprecedented in diversity and scope it is a collection which no scholar student or lover of modern drama can afford to miss Women and Words in Saudi Arabia Saddeka Arebi, 1994 This study explores how contemporary Saudi women writers use their writings as a way to gain control over the rules of cultural discourse in their society The author examines the work of nine influential women writers and presents excerpts of their writings which appear here for the first time in English Handbook of British Literature and Culture of the First World War Ralf Schneider, Jane Potter, 2021-09-20 The First World War has given rise to a multifaceted cultural production like no other historical event This handbook surveys British literature and film about the war from 1914 until today The continuing interest in World War I highlights the interdependence of war experience the imaginative re creation of that experience in writing and individual as well as collective memory In the first part of the handbook the major genres of war writing and film are addressed including of course poetry and the novel but also the short story furthermore it is shown how our conception of the Great War is broadened when looked at from the perspective of gender studies and post colonial criticism The chapters in the second part present close readings of important contributions to the literary and filmic representation of World War I in Great Britain All in all the contributions demonstrate how the opposing forces of focusing and canon formation on the one hand and broadening and revision of the canon on the other have characterised British literature and culture of the First World War World Literature Today, 1989 Rosamond Lehmann and Her Critics Wendy Pollard, 2017-11-28 This study of contemporary and later critical responses to the work of the novelist Rosamond Lehmann 1901 1990 offers an original approach to twentieth century literary history by foregrounding the cultural and commercial fields in which Lehmann's writing was situated Wendy Pollard examines the effect recent developments in literary theory and movements from modernism to feminism have had on Lehmann's literary reception She also considers the interpolation of a damning third category between the and popular culture namely middlebrow a widening gender divide in readership controversies within book reviewing changes in the publishing world and the introduction of popularist means of book marketing While considering the general privileging of male authors from the 1920s to the 1950s Lehmann's most prolific period Pollard argues that her novels have been unfairly subjected to specific forms of neglect and their exclusion from many academic comparative studies is due to a diversity of form and content that can also be considered their strength

American Women Short Story Writers Julie Brown, 2014-05-01 This collection of original and classic essays examines the contributions that female authors have made to the short story The introductory chapter discusses why genre critics have ignored works by women and why feminist scholars have ignored the short story genre Subsequent chapters discuss early stories by such authors as Lydia Maria Child and Rose Terry Cooke Others are devoted to the influences race class sexual orientation education that have shaped women's short fiction through the years Women's special stylistic formal and thematic concerns are also discussed in this study The final essay addresses the ways our contemporary creative writing classes are stifling the voices of emerging young female authors The collection includes an extensive five part bibliography

years of Texas women writers including fiction and nonfiction authors poets and dramatists Polish Literature as World Literature Piotr Florczyk, K. A. Wisniewski, 2022-12-15 This carefully curated collection consists of 16 chapters by leading Polish and world literature scholars from the United States Canada Italy and of course Poland An historical approach gives readers a panoramic view of Polish authors and their explicit or implicit contributions to world literature Indeed the volume shows how Polish authors from Jan Kochanowski in the 16th century to the 2018 Nobel laureate Olga Tokarczuk have engaged with their foreign counterparts and other traditions active participants in the global literary network and the conversations of their day The volume features views of Polish literature and culture within theories of world literature and literary systems with a particular attention paid to the resurgence of the idea of the physical book as a cultural artifact This perspective is especially important since so much of today's global literary output stems from Anglophone perceptions of what constitutes literary quality and tastes The collection also sheds light on specific issues pertaining to Poland such as the idea of Polishness and global phenomena including social and economic advancement as well as ecological degradation Some of the authors discussed like the Romantic poet Adam Mickiewicz or the 1980 Nobel laureate Czeslaw Milosz were renowned far beyond the borders of their country while others like the contemporary travel writer and novelist Andrzej Stasiuk embrace regionalism seeing as they do in their immediate surroundings a synecdoche of the world at large Nevertheless the picture of Polish literature and Polish authors that emerges from these articles is that of a diverse cosmopolitan cohort engaged in a mutually rewarding relationship with what the late French critic Pascale Casanova has called the world republic of letters The HarperCollins World Reader Mary Ann Caws, Christopher Prendergast, 1994 Women Writing in India: The twentieth century Susie J. Tharu, Ke Lalita, 1991 These ground breaking collections offer 200 texts from eleven languages never before available in English or as a collection along with a new reading of cultural history that draws on contemporary scholarship on women and India This extraordinary body of literature and important documentary resource illuminates the lives of Indian women through 2 600 years of change and extends the historical understanding of literature feminism and the making of modern India The biographical critical and bibliographical headnotes in both volumes supported by an introduction which Anita Desai describes as intellectually rigorous challenging and analytical place the writers and their selections within the context of Indian culture and history Textual Liberation (Routledge Revivals) Helena Forsas-Scott, 2014-11-13 Feminist writing has emerged in recent years as a major influence of twentieth century European literature Textual Liberation first published in 1991 provides a timely and wide ranging survey of twentieth century feminist writing in Europe presenting texts from a number of countries and highlighting some of the transnational parallels and contrasts The contributors emphasize the wider contexts political social economic in which the texts were produced They cover feminist literature in Britain Scandinavia Germany Eastern Europe Russia France Spain Italy and Turkey and consider a range of genres including the novel poetry drama essays and journalism Each chapter contains an extensive bibliography with special emphasis on material available in English A stimulating introduction to the development of European feminist writing Textual Liberation will be an invaluable resource for students of women's literature, women's studies and feminism

Selected Poems of Angela de Hoyos Angela de Hoyos, 2015-08-30 In How to Eat Crow on a Cold Sunday Morning renowned Mexican American poet Angela de Hoyos suggests you start on the wings nibbling apologetic like before moving to the dry tough giblets and on to the gall bladder that green bag of biliousness wants to gag your throat in righteous retribution making you wish that you had learned how to eat a pound of prudence instead Tension between people men and women Chicanos and Anglos is a frequent theme in de Hoyos's work Clear and accessible her poems about relations between the sexes are universal in their appeal Many eloquently convey women's issues and feelings Men she said sometimes in order to say it it is necessary to spit the word This collection showcases the work of a beloved literary activist who gave voice to marginalized communities Born in Mexico de Hoyos spent most of her life in San Antonio Texas where she saw firsthand Chicanos loss of language identity and traditions The discrimination endured by Mexican Americans runs through her work and in one of her most well known poems Arise Chicano the poet exhorts her people to free themselves from poverty and oppression There is no one to succor you You must be your own messiah Mostly self educated de Hoyos was equally adept at writing in Spanish or English and many of her poems are written in a skillful combination of the two Containing 80 previously published poems and several that have never been published this volume highlights a vibrant voice that calls for equality and respect for all people regardless of gender or ethnicity
